Manager Brackenridge Anx- Increasing Number of Walk outs Causing Much Attention

Form Possible

In preparation for the game with the Athletics on Wednesday, July 23, at Island Park, Manager John Brackenridge, of the Klein Chocolate Company team, will keep his players on the move. It is his purpose to get in as many twilight games as possible, and to take in one or more afternoon games as observers.

His schedule will include Terra Hill, Lancaster, Ephrata and the Hell Fighters, the crack team of colored players. Williamsport will be the big Saturday afternoon attraction at Elizabethtown. This game is of great importance as the Klein team is out for championship honors. A large number of local fans will go to Elizabethtown Saturday morning for this game. On Sunday the game with Ephrata will be played on the latter's grounds.

Mellinger to Pitch

Manager Brackenridge has decided to give Mellinger a chance to show his speed against big leaguers and will pitch him against the Athletics. This boy showed fast form in the Allison Hill League games and has been picked as a comer. He has been credited as a Comer. He has been cre ready to break out on occasion. If socialism cannot legitimately raise its head, then it will try to do so illicitly, and the result is Bolshevism and anarchy."

The journal recommends immediate and effective improvement of labor conditions in line with the suggestions of the League of Nations, political and educational reform, the elimination of bureaucratic methods and a true restoration of the ideal of democracy.

Battle For First Chance to Face Dempsey RAIN INTERFERES RIVALS TO MEET French and English Champions Who Will

GEORGES CARPENTIER, AND IN CIRCLE JOE BECKETT English sporting men think Joe Beckett, recognized heavyweight champion of their country, has a go od chance to beat Jack Dempsey. Whether he or George Carpentier, the French champion, who before the war was going to the top fast, has the better right to try for Dempsey's world title, will be proved when these two meet at the National Sporting Club in London. Fight critics fear that Carpentier's long absence from the ring will give Beckett a big advantage.

Urges Further Protection For Buck Deer in State

then several young ones have been born, and it is probable a score or more are making their headquarters at Barren Hills, near Honeybrook. Spotsmen of the county are considering sending a petition to the State Game Commission to close the season for deer for two more years. They have been protected the last two years, but it is feared all the bucks will be killed when the season opens this autumn by hunters who have them located.

Finds "Reds" Active Among Negroes in South

Among Negroes in South

New York, July 16.—Following revelations made by the committee appointed by the New York State Legislature to investigate Bolshevist and other anti-American propaganda in this city, of extensive operations by the radicals among the negroes of the Far South, the National Security League made public today a statement concerning active steps already taken by the League to counteract these efforts.

The Security League states that the disclosure by the Legislative Committee came as no surprise to it and that the League formulated plans months ago to actively combat the influence of the disorganizers and destructionists upon the negroes.

WITH BIG GAME

West End to Meet Motive Game in Hill League Tonight Power Friday Evening; Today's Schedule

Rain caused all kinds of disappointment to baseball fans last evening. At West End grounds an important event was ifaged. West End, leaders of the league was scheduled to meet Motive Power, runners up in the race. Bitter rivalry exists between these teams and the second place boys are going strong for a winning streak that will put them in the lead. Rain stopped this game and now they will fight it out Friday evening.

Harry Menear, of Middletown, a new twirler was on the board for a start. He was expected to be a factor in putting a crimp in the Motive Power plans. Don Wertz was the boy selected to oppose Menear and had been working out with a view to being in the best condition possible.

Game This Evening
This evening the Motive Power team will meet the Commonwealth club, providing rain does not interfere and this too is expected to be a close and hard fought contest, for the Travelers are also going at a pretty good clip. Dewey Eisenberser will probably be selected by Manager Walter Smith to do the heaving for the Travelers while Bamford will perhaps be Motive Power's choice on the mound.
