

STARVED PEOPLE FILL PETROGRAD

Visitor to the Russian Capital Describes Conditions There

Archangel, July 18.—Ivan Davidoff, a wood supply contractor who has recently returned from Petrograd, says he found that city almost unrecognizable. Tramways were approaching a standstill and there was hardly any artificial lighting.

FRECKLES

Now Is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots.

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as Othine—double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any druggist and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful, clear complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

He often saw starved horses fall down and die in the streets.

"Everywhere one saw starved and emaciated people unable to walk, lying or sitting in the streets begging for bread," he said. "Later these heartrending spectacles were seldom to be seen, as Red Guards collected such mendicants and took them away. No one I knew could tell me for certain their ultimate fate, but often one heard the communist motto, 'Anyone who does not work shall not eat, and must die.'

"The poor houses, hospitals for infirm or helpless wounded soldiers were all used as barracks and common headquarters, the inmates being thrown out to die. "Many starving children of workmen were expatriated to so-called grain growing districts, but, unfortunately, now no district can grow enough grain to feed itself adequately. The lack of food especially in the capital was appalling.

"In Petrograd and Moscow many an honest and educated woman has been forced to sell herself for food or clothing. The people look like the inmates of a hospital and the death rate is phenomenal."

Paris, Wednesday, July 16.—A number of persons were killed or injured this afternoon when a large munition dump was blown up at Le Bourget, seven miles northeast of Paris.

THE HISTORIC SHADE GAP PICNIC

Three Congressmen Will Be Present and Address the Gathering August 2

J. M. Harper, chairman of the committee of arrangements for the annual soldiers' reunion and picnic in the Donald's Grove at Shade Gap, Huntingdon county, on Saturday, August 2, has invited the following Congressmen to speak at that time and place: Hon. R. E. Evans, of the Third district, Nebraska; Hon. H. B. White, of the Sixth district, Kansas, and Hon. B. K. Focht, of the Seventeenth district, Pennsylvania. All three have accepted. Admiral William S. Sims, of the United States Navy, who was raised within a few miles of the picnic grounds, and was appointed a cadet to Annapolis from the "Shoestring" district by the late Congressman R. M. Speer, was invited to attend, but prior engagements for the day prevent his acceptance.

In the cloak room of the House at Washington, a few days ago, Congressman Focht was surprised to learn that his two Western colleagues, Messrs. Evans and White, are cousins of the third degree, being the great grandsons of Thomas White, a member of the Boston "Tea Party," who helped to dump a huge cargo of tea into the harbor at Boston before the Revolution. Every reader of American history recalls that great event. The active men in the raid, it will be remembered, were disguised as Indians. Thomas White, the Revolutionary forefather of Congressman Evans and White above referred to, settled in Huntingdon county after our independence had been won, and his descendants have ever since constituted a large and influential body of its citizens in the Triangle Creek valley region and vicinity, where they are prominent as farmers, educators, physicians and preachers. So far as the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, some one or more members of the descendants of Thomas White have held the office of justice of the peace in Huntingdon county continuously. There are three such justices in the county at this time.

Some years ago the descendants of the spirited man who helped to dump the tea overboard erected a monument in his honor near Saxton. The two Western members of Congress visited the sacred shrine a few days ago and took occasion to make a little visit with relatives whom they had never seen before. Their return to Huntingdon county on the 2d of August, when they speak at Shade Gap, is awaited with keen interest by the people of Huntingdon and surrounding counties. In speaking of the ability of his two Western colleagues, Mr. Focht says, "They are a pair of wild and woolly orators from the plains and talk as forcibly as a cyclone hits the glorious landscape."

Belgium Wants to Know If U. S. Can Protect Her

Brussels, July 18.—Two of the various sections of the Chamber which have been examining the Peace Treaty have asked the Government whether it is possible to secure the protection of Belgium by the United States in the same way as protection has been given to France.

Convalescent Soldiers Camp at Camp Linder

A summer camp for convalescents is the latest thing in army-hospital work. Such a camp has been established for the overseas boys under treatment at General Hospital No. 31, at Carlisle. It is known as Camp Linder, named after John Linder, of Carlisle, who made available his country estate of one thousand acres of hill, valley, forest and stream for the recreation of the wounded men.

Ten large army tents constitute the sleeping quarters of the campers, fifty-two patients being sent to the camp each week. The camp is run on the honor system with no restrictions upon the men although general supervision is exercised by an officer of the hospital staff. The camp grounds afford excellent facilities for healthy amusements and diversions such as golf, tennis, swimming, tramping and baseball. It is planned to allow all patients to visit the camp at some time during the summer. The men will be given the same medical attention as medical officers, nurses and attendants are maintained at the camp.

The Red Cross conducts a camp fire each evening and furnishes various sporting equipment including bathing suits and fishing tackle.

Failure to File Transportation Reports Means Prosecution for $5,000 Fine

Notice has been given by Secretary of Internal Affairs James F. Woodward that transportation and other companies required to file reports with the Bureau of Railways of his department which have not complied will face prosecution by the Attorney General's Department. The penalty for failing to file reports is $5,000 fine.

"Continued failure of companies, including wire companies, to file the annual reports required by law, will result in their names being certified to the Attorney General for prosecution," said the secretary. "Under the law all transportation companies, railroad, street railway, telephone, telegraph and canal companies, must file the statements before March 31. They are some companies that failed yet. I have instructed Chief F. C. Gerberich, of the Bureau of Railways, to give final notice."
