*Fun And Frolic In The Films Of
Bowman Picnic
At Good Hope Mill*
To-day and To-morrow
At The
Colonial Theater

Even though the thousands of friends of the employes of this store could not participate in the joyful events of the annual picnic of Bowman's store of this city and the Imperial Department Store, of Carlisle, they will have the opportunity of seeing the high spots of this annual picnic day shown on the screens at the Colonial Theater tomorrow.

Several hundred feet of film will show the starting of the twenty trucks for the picnic grounds, the judging of the cakes, the sports of the day, shooting the chutes, eating the eats, the winner of the cake prize and the many incidents of the day that are as interesting as a local talent theatrical wherein all the actors are personal acquaintances. And, of course, the actors in this one-day drama or two-store circus, will want to see how well they acted when they did not know the spot-light of the camera was on them.
