OVER $40,400 IN RETIREMENT

New State School System Starts Off With an Army of Employes Enrolled

Many school districts of Pennsylvania have en-rolled all of their rolled all of their school employes in the State Teachers Retirement system, according to Dr. H. H. Baish, secretary of the State Board, who has been summarizing the State system is now 40,450, which is a few hundred more than the number expected. In June alone 8,000 applications were received and on June 30, the last day for enrollment, more than 1,500 applications were sent to the Capitol.

Warren county was the first county to send to the State Board a report for the retirement system from the whole county. It came from Superintendent C. S. Knapp.

Dr. Baish says "The contributions to the retirement fund by school so the retirement such as the alone on shall be allowed on account of any shal for the retirement system from the whole county. It came from Superintendent C. S. Knapp.

Dr. Baish says "The contributions to the retirement fund by school employes will be made in the form of deductions from their salaries. The secretary of each school district will remit to the head-quarters of the board monthly beginning with July the total amount of these salary deductions of school employes in his district and in the office of the State Retirement Board a separate account will be kept with each individual employed. We have prepared a handbook of these salary deductions which will be sent to each secretary and reduce the amount of work required in making the deductions."

Await the Word—Locations of the units of the new National Guard and of the choice of the organization to be established when the new militia is formed will not be determined for some time. Questions relative to the size of the division are being discussed at Washington to-day by Adjutant General Frank D. Beary, who is hopful that authority for the formation of the whole division instead of only a part may be given.

Capitol Hill opinion is that there will be a number of vetoes in the remaining general bills which are before the Governor. Attorney General William I. Schaffer came here to-day for a talk with the Governor on some of the bills whose fate has not been settled.

The Governor has told all heads of departments not to come around with plans for reorganizations until he finishes with the appropriation the finishes with the appropriation bills. He has until Saturday to dispose of legislation in his hands and plans to come here next week to take up departmental matters. Reorganization of the Workmen's Compensation Bureau will be one of the early matters and Agriculture and Labor Industry will come next.

This Is "Palm Beach" Week

You won't mind the heat of the sun's rays near so much if you are wearing the proper clothes—There was a time when men had to spend a considerable sum of money to "Keep Cool." Only those who were fortunate enough to have bank accounts or a surplus of cash were in a position to "go away" and seek a cool place on the map. Those who stayed at Home had to endure the extreme heat, and no doubt you have had some experience along that line, but it's no longer necessary to go away. You can enjoy living along the banks of the beautiful Susquehanna in the "good old summer time" by investing a few dollars in behalf of your own comfort. During this week we will sell

All $15--$18--$20 Palm Beach Suits $11.75

With the hottest part of the summer just approaching----the days when you almost wish you had an electric fan or some other cooling process surrounding you, surely men will not look lightly upon an opportunity to have comfort when they can get so much of it for so small an investment-This is the time to spend to save.

We have plenty of the "Palm Beach" suits in light, medium and dark shades, waist seams, slash pockets, or in all the best conservative models. The last two seasons we have had a Palm Beach Week and, frankly, we are fairly swamped on these occasions. We expect, with the enormous growth and increasing popularity of this "Live Store," that this occasion will be far greater than ever before, come here as early in the week as possible. Your suit may need a few alterations—although our "Palm Beach Suits" are so well proportioned that in very many cases we can fit men with scarcely any adjustments.
