President Sufficiently Recovered to Resume Conferences With Senators

By Associated Press. Washington, July 22.—President Wilson was sufficiently recovered today from his indisposition to resume conferences with Republican senators at the White House without objection from Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, his personal physician.

Admiral Grayson said the President was in no pain, but that he was still extremely weak.

"The President is sitting up and now receiving callers," said Admiral Grayson, "and he probably will be up at least until lunch time. He was very anxious to get to work on the League of Nations, but he would do him no harm to see one or two people. It depends upon how he feels in middle of the day whether he goes back to bed again this afternoon."

The President went into conference at 10 o'clock with Senator Edge of New Jersey, and he hoped to call on Mr. Hoover at 11 o'clock, he was forced to defer yesterday because of an acute attack of intestinal trouble which developed upon his return from a week-end trip down the Potomac.

Not Possible to Tell of Loss to Wheat

"It would be impossible to say at this time either in terms of money or quantity the damage done to the wheat crop of Pennsylvania by weather or pests," said Secretary of Agriculture Rasmusson today.

"We cannot even approximate it and definite information on the loss will take weeks to collect," he said.

Secretary Rasmusson said that in many sections of the State the continued rains without any period intervening to permit the stalks to dry has caused much of the crop to rot in the fields and some of the loss, he said, continued the Secretary.

In Central Pennsylvania, for instance, some wheat was found to have had rot in the stalks and some of the loss, he said, continued the Secretary.

In the Shenandoah valley, he said, there was more wheat threshed in the fields this year than ever before and this is a gain. The wheat crop is not so short as it has been in the past few years, he said.

John M. Reese Dies in His 83rd Year

John M. Reese, aged 82 years, a retired Pennsylvania railroad employe, died early this morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. P. Strock, 1109 Green street.

He had been ill for some time. He attended the recent reunion of the Veteran Employers' Association of the Middle Division.

The survivors are the following children, Mrs. P. W. Reese, with whom he lived; Frank O. Reese, a retired Pennsylvania railroad employe; John M. Reese, Youngstown, Ohio; Mrs. George Freeland, Harrisburg, and Paul Peters Reese, of Reading, Pa.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the daughter, Mrs. F. P. Strock. Burial will be private.

"Jack" Reese, as he was known to many Harrisburgers, was an early employe of the Pennsylvania railroad, working since 1870 at the shops in the city. He was later made an engine man and for a number of years was chief hostler at the local enginehouses.

He retired some years ago after a record of nearly half a century in service. He was a veteran of the Civil War, serving in Company E, Two Hundred and First Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, in the Gettysburg campaign. He was discharged in 1865 and has not missed a meeting of the veteran employes. For many years he resided at 1419 North Third street.

Mrs. Jane M. Fritz, widow of Henry J. Fritz, of Lockport, died at her home, Eighteenth and Chestnut streets, this city, yesterday morning, aged 67 years. She is survived by three daughters, Sadie A. Fritz, M. Elise Fritz, of this city; Vernie E. Fritz, of Philadelphia, and three sons, Herbert W. Fritz, of Philadelphia; Willard A. Fritz, of Spring Lake, and Allan H. Fritz, of this city.

Funeral services will be held at her late home on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Homer Skyles May, pastor of the Fourth Reformed Church. The body will be taken to Lockport the following morning for burial.

SENATE HAS NO POWER TO GRANT DESIRE

Denies Wilson's Request to Approve Appointment of Man on Reparations

By Associated Press. Washington, July 22.—In replying to President Wilson's request that it approve provisional appointment of an American representative on the reparations commission to be created under the Peace Treaty, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today adopted a declaration that until the Treaty is ratified "no power exists" to carry out its provisions.

WOMAN NAMED POLICE MATRON

Not in favor of this appointment and would vote against it, but today when their names were called each member voted in the affirmative. Mrs. Lefoux, special engineer, authorized the purchase of partial equipment for municipal ash collection.

Mrs. Keister was given permission to have $100 transferred from the fund for the purchase of two motorcycles, to the fund for maintaining records and securing photographs for the Bertillon system.

Commissioner of Banking John S. Fisher said today when informed that Cashier Ralph T. Moyer, of the North Penn Bank had surrendered to district attorney at Philadelphia, that further information would come from the district attorney. He declined to say whether there would be any more arrests, referring inquirers to the district attorney.

Seek Pardon For Yank Who Painted Hun Flag on Statue

Washington, July 22.—Representative Wood, Republican, Indiana, yesterday introduced a resolution to grant amnesty to Charles A. McAnally, a private in the Army who recently was sentenced to six months' imprisonment after being convicted of painting the German flag on the statue erected by the Daughters of the Confederacy at Andersonville, Ga., to Henry Wirz, commander of the prison located there.

The resolution declares McAnally to have been actuated by patriotic motives and to have been ignorant of the true origin of the flag being painted the statue of "the arch-enemy of the Civil War."
