Twice a year we endeavor to clear out as much of the odds and ends as possible before we take inventory. It is unnecessary to remind you that the cost of practically all of this merchandise has gone up materially since most of this stock was purchased. The news items remind you of this daily. The values represented on this page are, therefore, far greater than mere type and ink can convey. Inspect the merchandise and note the regular price marks on tickets. They tell a story of remarkable values for this semi-annual two-day event.
