

Main and Company Open Offices in Harrisburg

The importance of Harrisburg as the center of Pennsylvania legal, political and business affairs has been emphasized during the last few weeks not only by the bringing to the city of a number of departments of the State government, but by the coming of a number of new business firms, the latest of which is Main and Company, which to-day announce the opening of offices in the Kunkel Building.

Main and Company are certified public accountants. The head of the firm is Frank Wilbur Main, a brother of W. R. Main, comptroller for the State Highway Department.

Local offices of the company are in charge of T. V. Hunter, who arrived from Pittsburgh several days ago. Frank Wilbur Main was in Harrisburg for several days supervising the opening of local headquarters.

SOLDIER BRINGS RELICS HOME

Lewis Natta, son of Justice of the Peace VanNatta, of this place, is home from service in Italy with a number of interesting relics. After the close of the war he traveled through France, sightseeing. He is a candidate for county treasurer of Mifflin county on the Republican ticket.

DENTIST'S RECIPE FOR BLEEDING GUMS OR LOOSE TEETH

If your teeth are loose or if your gums are receding and sore, or if you suffer from pyorrhea, if they bleed easily, are spongy, flabby or colorless and discharge pus, go to Dr. Kennedy's or Geo. Kennedy's and get a one ounce jar of Epithol and gently rub a little over the gums with your finger tips each night and morning.

SPENT LOTS OF MONEY FOR MEDICINE THAT DID NO GOOD

"I have taken a lot of medicines and spent a lot of money," said John Comer, of Duboisstown, Pa. "I hate to think about how much money I could have saved if I had found out about the right medicine sooner."

Save baking hours and go on a picnic with the children

It is impossible to make a bread like "American-Maid" on a stove or a range, a few loaves at a time. And if you could, it would cost you more than you pay for it.

Next time baking day comes, put out the fire or turn off the gas and take the children to the woods on a picnic.

Forget baking. Phone the grocer and order him to send a loaf of

GUNZENHAUSER'S AMERICAN-MAID BREAD

Don't say a word. Don't tell them the difference. Just watch 'em eat it. One experience will cure you of baking. You will find it crisp, firm and delicious.

You have our guarantee that it is made from the best flour, and that it is clean, wholesome and nutritious. Slices smoothly and tastes deliciously. Buy a loaf today at your nearest good grocer's.

COL. ROOSEVELT MAY VISIT HERE

Efforts Being Made to Have Him Address Local Legion Post

The American Legion through its post in Harrisburg is attempting to enroll in its membership every member of the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps who served in the war between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918.

The legion was first organized in Paris at a convention lasting from March 15 to 17, which was attended by about one thousand members of the American Expeditionary Force.

The final step in the establishment of the organization will take place at the convention to be held at Minneapolis, Minn., November 11 (armistice day) and 12, and for that reason it is hoped that the Harrisburg post can be completely organized so that it may send a delegate to the convention to represent this part of Pennsylvania.

More than 700 soldiers, a large percentage of them wearing overseas stripes, and many others wearing the gold wound stripes on their other sleeves, will participate in the demonstration.

The parade will move promptly at 10 o'clock, according to the announcements made to-day. It will move as follows: East on Main to Arch, north on Arch to Center, east on Center to Pottsville, west on Pottsville to Coaldale, thence east to Division street, Lykens, north on Division to North Second street, east on North Second to Pine, south on Pine to South Second, east on South Second to Market, north on Market to Main, east on Main to Chestnut, counter-march west on Main to Park.

UPPER DAUPHIN IS HONORING SOLDIERS

program. A big band concert has been scheduled to be held from 3:30 to 4 o'clock and starting promptly at 4 o'clock, the Lykens and Williamsport teams of the Dauphin-Schuylkill League will mix it up in a baseball game.

Big Demonstration

The recruiting party from the Harrisburg recruiting station, is already reporting highly successful results during the short period it has been at work among the patriotic residents of the district.

The gigantic demonstration of soldier life in Europe, scheduled to take place this evening, promises to be the one of the most spectacular events of the entire three-days' celebration.

Preparations are being made to-day for the accommodation of thousands of people tomorrow, which promises to be the really big day of the entire program.

More than 700 soldiers, a large percentage of them wearing overseas stripes, and many others wearing the gold wound stripes on their other sleeves, will participate in the demonstration.

The formation of the parade has been announced as follows: Chief marshal, chief of staff, bugler, Asa Blackway; aids, Lieut. Leroy Keon, Lieut. Roy, color guard, Helmer Post, No. 232, G. A. R., and Spanish-American War Veterans.

First Division - Forty-eighth Division Field Artillery Band, soldiers, sailors and marines of the World War, Lieut. Samuel Hoff, commanding; Lorraine Cross, representing the Red Cross; floral tributes to our boys still in service, Washington Camp, No. 238, P. O. S. of A.

Second Division - Marshal James McCormick, Aid James Kelly, Steelton Band, color bearer, girls representing St. Mary's service flag, St. Mary's Holy Name Society.

Third Division - Marshal J. J. John, aids, Ladies' band, Wisconsin Lodge, No. 533, I. O. O. F.; Wisconsin Council, No. 57, Jr. O. U. A. M.; Boy Scouts.

Fourth Division - Marshal Ed. Miller, Aid John Cooper, Moose band, of Harrisburg; Moose Lodge, No. 1176; Lykens Lodge, No. 106, K. of P.; Ladies with American flag.

Fifth Division - Marshal William Hart, aids, Rockaway Castle, K. of G. E. No. 278; Elizabethtown band; Washington Camp, No. 148, P. O. S. of A.; Harrisburg Drum Corps, Westchester Tribe, 177, I. O. M.

Sixth Division - Marshal John Kupp, aids, Orwin band, Russian Society, Tower City band, Liberty Hose Co., No. 2, Lykens.

Seventh Division - Marshal John Matter, aids, Wisconsin band, representatives of Ladies' Social Circle of Zion Lutheran Church, United Evangelical Sunday School.

Eighth Division - Marshal Amos Matter, aids, floats, fantastics, automobiles.

Goodyear to Pay Damages Caused by Balloon Crash

Chicago, July 25.—G. M. Stadelman, vice-president of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., owners of the ill-fated dirigible, which cost thirteen lives, and injury to twenty-eight other persons when it burned and crashed through the skylight of the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank on Monday, has filed a statement saying the company will pay all expenses caused by the accident.

Rumania and Serbia Get Bulk of Bulgar Indemnity

Paris, July 25.—Rumania and Serbia are awarded the greater part of more than a billion francs indemnity demanded under the Bulgarian Peace terms, which are nearly finished, according to the Excelsior. The remainder of the amount will be given to Greece, the paper says.

LEG BROKEN IN CRASH

Charles Weaver, 29 North Cameron street, is in the Harrisburg Hospital with a fracture of the left leg, suffered yesterday when he was thrown from a bicycle when struck by a trolley car. Weaver, an employe of the Monarch Wall Paper Company tried to cross the trolley tracks at Cameron and Market streets, and did not notice the approach of a trolley car.

Dr. Muck Claims He Is Not Native of Germany

Washington, July 25.—Dr. Karl Muck, former director of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, now confined to the internment camp at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., wants to return, not to Germany, but to Switzerland, of which country he claims he is a citizen.

It is understood here that for some reason the Swiss government does not want Muck, and up to this time it has been impossible to get a passport for him to go to Switzerland. Officials of the Bureau of Investigation, Department of Justice, said to-day that Muck would be released from internment at once if he secured the Switzerland passport.

Attorney General Palmer said that Muck was to be discharged from his internment shortly along with several hundred other enemy aliens. He announced when requested by the Department of Justice recently that he did not desire to go to Germany with a group of Germans who were repatriated.

You Buy The Lot--- We'll Build Your Home

"The Live Store"

"Open Saturday Night"

"Always Reliable"

Palm Beach Week

Have you been to Doutrichs this week?—Say it has been a hummer! Of course we expected that it would be, for the wonderful values this "Live Store" is offering surely would appeal to anybody who looked at these we are selling at $11.75

Every man who has ever worn a "Palm Beach," "Mohair" or Kool Kloth Suit finds it almost indispensable for Summer use—To the man who don't know the comforts of these sensible garments we urge them to invest now in one or two of Doutrichs Palm Beach Suits, for at our price they are less than the actual wholesale cost for next season—Manufacturers think it's a crime that we are selling these excellent suits at such marvelous reductions

We'll admit it does seem a bit unwise to sell these Suits at such a ridiculous price, but it's a part of the Doutrich policy to dispose of all merchandise within the season for which it was bought. But you can see plainly what an advantage it is to our customers, not for the saving only, but the clean stocks they have at all times at this "Live Store."

$11.75

July Clothing Reductions

On all Hart Schaffner & Marx, Kuppenheimer and Society Brand Clothes. In fact, when you come here you will find

Every Suit in Our Stock Reduced

Table with 2 columns: Suit Price and Reduced Price. All $25.00 Suits $21.50, All $30.00 Suits $24.50, All $35.00 Suits $28.50, All $40.00 Suits $32.50, All $45.00 Suits $37.50, All $50.00 Suits $41.50

All Boys' Suits Reduced

Doutrichs logo with "Always Reliable" and address: 304 Market St. Harrisburg, Penna.