Reid in "Roaring Road." PAXTANG Vaudeville—Two shows every evening. Priscilla Dean, famous emotional actress, is scoring a distinct hit at the Victoria theater in her latest and greatest picture, "The Wild Cat of Paris." It is another clever story of Paris in pre-war days with a girl and brandy her an outcast, but she reciprocates by saving his life.

Would you expend $250,000 just to meet a beautiful and exclusive society woman? That's just what Fatty Arbuckle, what Buddy McNair, and the hero of "Venus in the East," the Paramount photoplay starring Bryant Washburn did, and how and why he did it are shown by the picture which is presented at the Regent to-day and to-morrow.

Buddy McNair had a great deal of money and he was free with it. He saw a picture in a New York Sunday paper. It was a photograph of a girl and a man who were in love and went to New York to meet her.

"Fatty" Arbuckle is also here in a return engagement in that funny, side-splitting comedy entitled "Camping Out."

To-day and to-morrow the Colonial management is offering another delectable feature in the form of a picture which is presented at the Regent to-day and to-morrow.

Night," another clever picture just released. Wednesday and Thursday Harrisburgers will have another chance to laugh at the funny antics of Mabel Normand in "Upstairs," a production said to be even funnier than "When Doctors Disagree."

It is claimed that it would certainly take a real pessimist to sit through a performance by the Tangled Army, at the Puxtang Park Theater this evening and not be willing to admit that there were a few things in life capable of provoking a good hearty laugh even in a pessimist. This troupe of five acrobatic comedians certainly put on a knock-about act that is fast and funny all the time they are before the audience.

Carmen's Minstrels is the big attraction at the Majestic theater the last half of the week. This aggregation of singing and dancing entertainers, singing the latest songs and dancing the latest dances, and have a budget of jokes that are new to Harrisburgers. For these who enjoy magic acts, Frank Juhaz will please. He is a clever magician and injects a lot of good comedy into his act.

Gernert A. C. Wins Game With Good Batting Record Those Gernert A. C. boys had their sticks working last evening, scoring under the lights at Hudson A. C. score 22 to 8. Clere was batted all over the field, but took his medicine like a real sport, Fluss was a strike-out twirler in this game, fanning eleven men. The score follows: GERNERT A. C.

HARRY WAGNER IS STAR HITTER Leads Dauphin-Perry League Batters; Ford Stands High

Harry Wagner, heavy-hitting left-fielder of the fast-moving Newport team, is the premier batter of the Dauphin-Perry circuit, according to batting averages released to-day by R. M. Barton, of Duncannon, secretary of the league.

While "Ed" Stricker, of Duncannon, has the best average in the league, he nevertheless has played in but three games and honors really belong to the heavy hitter Newport outfielder, Wagner has managed to club out in the eleven games in which he has participated.

Norman Ford Hits Hard Norman Ford, of Duncannon, is pressing the Newport man hard for honors and is only a few points behind with an average of .421. Ford has managed to drive out 16 hits in 38 times at bat in the 10 games in which his team has played.

ISAACMAN HAS PUZZLERS Sam Isaacman's curves were factors in a game with the White Stars last evening and the Walnut Street Stars emerged victorious from a battle on the ball field, score 8 to 5. Sam was not the only factor in the winning, however, for Ben Levi bumped a three-bagger right at a time when it counted most. Score by innings: White Stars 0 2 2 1 0 0—5 Walnut St. Stars 0 5 1 2 0 0—8
