EPWORTH METHODIST CHURCH TOMORROW WILL SOLICIT FUNDS TO BUILD CHURCH

BOARD APPROVES BUILDING PLANS

Will Be Presented to Congregation at Meeting on Monday Evening

The official board of Grace Methbdist Episcopal Church, last evening approved plans presented by E. Z. Wallower, chairman of the building committee, incident to the improvement and repairs to the Church, in connection with the installation of the new $25,000 Austin organ, and the Building Committee was authorized to have the contractor proceed immediately, under the direction of the architect. A congregational meeting will be held in the lecture room of the church on Monday evening, July 28, at 8 o'clock, when these adopted plans will be presented to the congregation, so that they may have full information. ment and repairs to the Church, in lecture room of the church on Monday evening, July 28, at 8 o'clock, when these adopted plans will be presented to the congregation, so that they may have full information of just what is going to be dore to the church building, and to exact cost of same.

To-morrow morning at 10.30 o'clock, Dr. Robert Bagnell will preach a sermon on the topic, "The Prayer of Jesus," which will be the last sermon the Grace Church passitor will preach before leaving the city for his vacation.

In the evening at 7.30 o'clock, there will be a meeting of special interest, with Wm. Ray Chapman, educational director of Grace Church making an address on, "The Great making an address on, "The Great thing at the Centenary Celebration." Mr. Chapman spent a week at Columbus, and had a splendid opportunity to see all sides of this most unusual celebration.

The music for Sunday will be especially attractive. At the morning service the Summer Quartet will render, "Sing Alleluia Forth' and Mr. Chapman, tenor, will sing as a solo, "The Prodigal Son," by Parker. At the evening service the Quartet will render, "I will give you rest," and Mrs. Robert Reeves, contralto, will sing "Lead Kindly Light" by Evans.

Make Big Plans For

Make Big Plans For Presbyterian Reunion at Pen-Mar Thursday

The Presbyterian reunion at Pen Mar on July 31 promises to be better than ever this year. Presbyterians, North and South, will be present in great numbers. The Cumberland Valley, Western Maryland and Norfolk and Western roads offer low rates and convenient trains from all points on their lines. Consult local agents for particulars. A high class program has been arranged. There will be an address on "The Church and the Hour," by Dr. George E. Hawes, pastor Market Square Presbyterian Church, Harrisburg. James McKinley Rose, tenor, of New York city will sing.

Coxestown Methodist Church Being Repaired

The morning and the evening service, and the Sunday School session, of the Coxestown Methodist Episcopal Church, the Rev. John G. Davis, pastor, will be held in the church hall instead of in the church auditorium to-morrow. The morning services will be at 10.30, and the evening services at 7.30. The Sunday School session will be held at 9.30 a. m. The Rev. Mr. Davis will preach in the morning on the subject: "The Baptism of Fire," and in the evening, "Filled with the Holy Spirit."

The change in place is made necessary owing to renovations being made to the church proper. The interior is being repapered and other necessary repairs are being made. It is expected that the work will be completed by next week, and on Sunday, August 3, special reopening services will be held.

Enola Church of God to Burn Mortgage Tomorrow

To Receive Evidence Against Proprietors of Philadelphia Saloons

Philadelphia, July 26.—United States District Attorney Francis Fisher Kane has agreed to receive evidence voluntarily offered by saloonkeepers in order to make cases against saloon proprietors selling two and three-fourths per cent. beer. As there are nearly 1,800 saloons in Philadelphia, Mr. Kane said it would simplify matters to have men come in and voluntarily submit their evidence. If they place the evidence at the government's disposal, this fact would be taken into consideration, Mr. Kane said.
