HUGHES URGES RESERVATIONS IN PEACE TREATY

Declares League Is Needed, but Opposes Sacrificing Interests of United States; Frames Resolution For Senate

Washington, July 28.—Charles Hughes, Republican candidate in the last Presidential election, has drawn up a resolution which he offers for adoption by the United States Senate, consenting to inclusion of the League of Nations Covenant in the Peace Treaty, but suggesting four reservations to prevent "sacrificing the essential interests of the United States."

This became known to-day when correspondence between Mr. Hughes and Senator Frederick Hale, Republican, of Maine, dealing with ratification of the Treaty, was made public.

While finding ambiguities in Articles I and XV, dealing respectively with withdrawal from the League and questions of purely a domestic nature, Mr. Hughes takes chief exception to Articles XXI and X, which concern the Monroe Doctrine and the liability of the United States to provide armed forces to protect other members of the League.

The "descriptive phrase" employed in connection with the Monroe Doctrine is said by Mr. Hughes to be "inaccurate," while Article X is branded by him as a "trouble breeder" which if not eliminated, should be thoroughly interpreted. Any "reservations," Mr. Hughes added, should be incorporated in "the instrument of ratification" which would have to resume operations.

Sees Need For League.

The resolution suggested by Mr. Hughes is embodied in a letter replying to one from Senator Hale requesting Mr. Hughes' opinion on the validity of reservations to the proposed covenant and also asking Mr. Hughes "what reservations in your judgment should be made to safeguard the interests of our country." In his letter, Senator Hale asserts he "wants to see some plan devised whereby the United States may safely enter the League of Nations." Mr. Hughes states, "there is a plain need for a League of Nations." He added that "there is also the immediate exigency which is considered" and "it is manifest that every reasonable effort should be made to establish peace as promptly and to bring about a condition in which the world may resume its normal industrial activity."

"I see no reason why these objects cannot be attained without sacrificing the essential interests of the United States," Mr. Hughes continues. "There is a middle ground between aloofness and injurious commitments."

Just a Beginning. While regretting that "suitable" steps have not been taken to formulate international legal principles and settlement of disputes by impartial tribunals, Mr. Hughes declares "there is merit enough in the proposed plan to make it desirable to secure it." He adds that "it is just as futile to exaggerate its value as it is to see nothing but its defects." In his opinion the proposed covenant should be viewed "as a mere beginning," "but it is important that a false start should not be made."

The question as to the validity of reservations has two aspects, says Mr. Hughes: "First, with respect to action on our part which is essential to making of reservations; and second, as to the effect of reservations upon other parties to the Treaty."

"As to the first question, it is manifest that attempted reservations will be ineffectual unless they qualify the act of ratification," said Mr. Hughes, adding that such reservations must constitute part of the instruments of ratification.

Would Play Safe. If the proposed reservations are reasonable, responsibility for defeat

American Rancher Pays Ransom to Bandits For Return of His Son

Washington, July 28.—Acting upon the advice of the Mexican government, John West Thompson, an American ranchman living near Mexico City, has paid the 1,500 pesos ransom demanded by bandits for the release of his 14-year-old son, the State Department was advised to-day. The Mexican authorities said they feared the bandits would murder the boy unless they received the money.

Secretary Lansing said the Mexican Foreign Office had agreed to refund the amount of the ransom and to take measures for the capture and punishment of the bandits. The kidnaping took place last Thursday at the Thompson ranch, thirty miles from Mexico City, and the boy was released on Friday.

THE WEATHER

Harrisburg and Vicinity. Thunder showers this afternoon. Fair, fresh west wind. Lowest temperature Tuesday night, 68 degrees. Tuesday fair. Eastern Pennsylvania. Thunder showers this afternoon. Fair to-night and Tuesday, cooler bright, fresh west wind. Susquehanna River: The Susquehanna river and probably all its branches will fall about a stage of about 4 feet is indicated for Harrisburg Tuesday morning.

THUNDERSTORMS TO BRING LOWER TEMPERATURES

Mercury Climbs Two Degrees Higher Than Yesterday's Record

SHOWERS ARE EXPECTED Lower Humidity and Spanking Breeze Makes Heat Endurable

The weather will be cooler this evening and to-morrow. Showers this afternoon or evening will send the mercury downward and the temperature will not rise tomorrow. This is the substance of the pleasing report of Forecaster E. R. DeMain, of the Harrisburg Weather Bureau, to the Harrisburg populace to-day.

91 at 1 O'clock. With last night the warmest night of the summer and with the mercury registering 91 degrees at 1 o'clock to-day, with promises of going even higher than yesterday, city people are expressing a high degree of appreciation of the kindness of the officious yesterday, the highest temperature recorded was 92 degrees, registered about 5 o'clock.

At no time during the night did the temperature drop below the 75 degree mark, according to Mr. DeMain's records, and at 5 o'clock this morning it had risen an even four degrees and was rising rapidly. The temperature throughout the morning was higher than yesterday, but about noon the rise was lessened and at 1 o'clock it had only reached the same heights as yesterday at the same time.

Humidity Lower. Old General Humidity is somewhat lower to-day and with a fair breeze blowing, the heat is somewhat more endurable, although it was hovering about the 44 mark while yesterday at the same time it was about the 48 mark.

FLASHY WOMEN ESCAPE POLICE DURING RAID. Make Way Through Muddy Fields in Heavy Down-pour of Rain.

Mincola, N. Y., July 28.—Nearly forty handsomely gowned women rushed panic-stricken from a residence in Cedarhurst near here yesterday following a raid on the house where gambling is said to have been in progress. Despite a heavy down-pour, the women succeeded in fleeing their way past the guards and escaping over muddy fields.

The raid was made by members of the State Constabulary and several special policemen, although it is said to have been inspired by the Nassau Association, composed of wealthy Nassau county residents who for some time have been agitated by numerous reports of society gambling in their midst.

The raiders entered the house with drawn revolvers. It was the sight of these weapons that created panic among the women, according to members of the raiding party, and put vim in their flight through the woods.

Three men and a truckload of gambling paraphernalia were taken by the raiders, who said that some of the poker chips were marked as high as $1,000. The men refused to give their names, and were booked at police headquarters as "John Sutherland, John Bookkeeper" and "John Doorkeeper."

Mother Sentenced to Year in Jail For Shooting Her Son

Pittsfield, Mass., July 28.—Mrs. Pittsfield, who is on trial in the Superior Court here for second degree murder for the shooting of her son, Joseph Allan Dunn, Jr., on August 11, 1918, pleaded guilty to manslaughter shortly after the opening of court this morning. Mrs. Dunn withdrew her plea of not guilty to the indictment at the suggestion of her attorneys and J. Allan Dunn, her attorneys and friends, who feared a jury verdict of "not guilty by reason of insanity," requiring her incarceration in a State hospital for the criminally insane, might prove fatal to her in a short time because of her nervous temperament.

It is expected that the District Attorney recommended a short sentence to the Berkshire county jail. Mrs. Dunn was sentenced to one year in jail.

Mrs. Dunn, who is the wife of J. Allan Dunn, of New York, an auctioneer, killed her son at their summer home in Lenox last August. The boy was 21-2 years of age.

The parents had quarreled, it appeared in evidence, and the wife, in anger, said she would kill the child and herself. She rushed to her room, obtained a revolver there, and, according to her counsel in his opening address, held it to her head. When her husband called to her she turned and discharged the revolver. The child was killed. Mrs. Dunn said she intended to shoot herself. She is 35 years of age and had been married twice previously.

HUNGARIANS BEATEN BACK. Vienna, Sunday, July 27.—The Hungarian Soviet troops have been thrown back in disorder across the Theiss river by the Rumanians, at Solouk and other points, according to reports received here to-day.

5-YEAR SENTENCE IS IMPOSED FOR THEFT OF AUTO

Court Hands Out Stiff Punishment on Fourth Offense

Pleading guilty to a charge of breaking into a garage and stealing an automobile owned by J. E. McCullough, Arthur Davies was given a penitentiary sentence of not more than five years and not less than two years and six months by President Judge George Kunkel to-day.

Assistant District Attorney Robert T. Fox produced in evidence Davies' former record showing that in three previous cases he was charged with burglary and had been sentenced. Davies was caught at Atlantic City, where he had taken the automobile and was using it. Albert, alias Mooney Campbell, charged with assault and battery by M. H. McFarland, was given a fine of $50 and one month in jail. Campbell had been in court on four other charges, first in juvenile court in 1911.

Charged with breaking into the garage of J. W. M. Bowman, at Middletown, Glen Billet, of Bowman'sdale, was given an eight-month sentence. Victor Shanbrook and Al. Crono, two men who were with him when he was charged with the automobile and who came away with him after he had taken tires, inner tubes, spark plugs and other accessories, have not been prosecuted on any charge.

After living together for more than 17 years, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Jackson separated, and to-day he pleaded guilty to a charge of non-support. After hearing the case Judge Kunkel told counsel for both sides that they should settle their differences privately and report to the court. It was alleged that he came home drunk almost every night for ten years, which he denied, and he is charged with his wife taking all their furniture to the city. She said she did not take $400 when she left him.

Because his wife could work and earn almost as much as he did, Levin S. Brightbill, of Palmyra, told the court he thought $4 a week out of his average earning of $21.84 would be sufficient for her and their child. He was charged with non-support. After hearing the case Judge Kunkel told counsel for both sides that they should settle their differences privately and report to the court.

Thomas Dalgleish Macmillan, son of William Macmillan, of Macmillan, Va., was the youngest of twelve children, eight of whom survive him. He was born in Glasgow, Scotland, in 1877, and spent his boyhood in that city. He came to America for his preparatory and college work, graduating from Mt. Hermon School in 1900, and from Yale College with the degree of A. B. in 1906. During 1906-07 he served as assistant secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Kansas City, Missouri. Then followed six years of teaching in the Government Schools of Japan, at Osaka and Nagasaki. In 1913 Mr. Macmillan returned to America for further study in English, and particularly Scottish literature, and he received the Degree of A. M. from Harvard University in 1914. On June 24, 1915, he was married to Eva Bryant Adams, of Northampton, Massachusetts, who survives him. During 1914-16 he was master of English at the Harrisburg Academy, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, and during 1916-17 he taught in the High School of Hartford, Connecticut. He was a member of the "Order and of the Church of England.

Oblige Dealers to Sell Food at 75 Per Cent. Below Market Price

Have, July 28.—Officials of the Federal Trade Commission went to the wholesale market to-day and obliged the producers to sell them a quantity of foodstuffs at prices varying from five to seventy-five per cent. under the prevailing market price. They then took the foodstuffs to one of the public market places where they were sold at cost price. In the excitement arising from the operation a crowd of people swarmed a farm cart laden with produce and a baker's store.

CONSIDER SHARING FOOD. Paris, July 28.—The Supreme Allied Council considered to-day the proposition advanced by Foreign Minister Tittoni, of Italy, to re-establish the system of sharing coal and foodstuffs among the Allied peoples. The Council also named to-day members of a military mission to fix the boundary between Germany and Poland.

Wreck at Van Dyke Blocks Middle Division Traffic

Four main tracks were blocked this morning at VanDyke as a result of a freight wreck. Seven cars on a westbound train were piled up. No person was injured. The cause of the accident is unknown. The wreck occurred at 8.45 and traffic east went from one to two hours later. This wreck also caused a shortage of engines and it was necessary to send the engines through to Philadelphia.

THIRD IS COMING. Coblenz, Sunday, July 27.—The Third Division of the American Army has been ordered home from the occupied area of Germany. It will begin entraining for Brest on August 5.

FAIR BATHERS TAKE TO THE STREETS WITH ENTHUSIASM

Atlantic City Has Nothing on Harrisburg's River Front Park When It Comes to Fair Damsels in Attractive Costumes

Some of Harrisburg's older and more sedate residents in Front street nearly lost an eye yesterday when they chanced to look out the window and observed what appeared to be a very good imitation of Annette Kellerman sputtering slowly down the park. After a few minutes stroll the Venus appeared to be rather bored with the intense observation which she suffered, and wandered down the bank to the city front steps. There really is no mystery to this story at all; she was not a diver from a local theater, she was not a mermaid or anything like that, in fact she was nothing "fishy" about her. Only a young woman suffering from the heat and desirous of a swim in the cooling waters of the Susquehanna.

FLETCHER WILL TAKE WARNING TO MEXICANS

Failure to Protect Lives Will Leave Stern Alternative For United States

NEW POLICY BUDDING Program Is Mapped Out and Moving Along Well-Defined Lines

Washington, July 28.—Ambassador Fletcher, upon his return to Mexico, will bear an important communication to President Carranza. It is understood it will be of a nature so direct and to the point that the Mexican chief cannot fail to realize that his policy of evasion and qualification must terminate and proper protection given foreign citizens, as well as full amends for past outrages.

In event the Carranza government does not meet its international obligations it is expected the Mexican Executive will be given to understand clearly, the consequences and the duty entailed upon the United States under these circumstances.

New Policy May Be Budding. Demands from members of Congress that the United States withdraw its recognition of the Carranza government and go into Mexico to straighten out a tangled situation are being met by the State Department. The interests of foreign nations seem to be having little effect upon the White House, as the State Department is reported to be studying the possibility of a new policy.

Such action is more indirect than is being taken by the United States in its proclamation banning shipments of arms into Mexico, was indicative of a swing belief that sooner or later intervention will be necessary and that the United States should do stopped in the interest of those who must later cope with that crisis.

His Own Guardian. This same view is held by virtually every physician in the city, it was learned to-day. Much stress is laid upon the necessity of periodical examination. Such examinations it was said would show at the development stages the small list of diseases which kill large numbers of men and women in the prime of life.

Every man is the guardian of his own health, said Dr. Raunick, when asked to lay out a chart showing how to lead a healthy life. "Most of our troubles are due to our own negligence in properly caring for our bodies."

Moderation in Diet. "Be in the open air and sunshine as much as possible, and avoid over-eating and poorly ventilated places. Take plenty of exercise and breathe regularly and deeply. Live on a diet of meat (once daily) eggs, cereals, green vegetables, fruit and milk. Avoid cold drinks especially at meals; chew food slowly and thoroughly, and use the toothbrush regularly. Take a daily bath and, if the heart can stand it, take a sweat bath once every week or two. Secure a daily action of the bowels and take a purgative once a week if constipation exists. Wear Sensible Clothes. Wear porous clothing, loose collars, light shoes and hats and dress in keeping with the weather. Retire early and rise early. Sleep in a dark, quiet room with open windows and sleep from 6 to 8 hours. Rest for a whole day each week without even reading or writing. Be Temperate. Avoid fatigue and excitement and don't worry about things that have happened or may happen. Never say unpleasant things and don't listen too much. Be temperate in all things, especially in the use of alcohol, tobacco, coffee, tea and also the new drinks now being exploited. Get married and have a happy home. Opportunity for the reopening of trade relations between the United States and Germany was thus definitely afforded, allowing American firms to compete with European houses in the German market.

U. S. Commercial Men Now Allowed in Germany. Coblenz, July 27.—Army headquarters yesterday gave permission for five American commercial travelers to proceed through the Coblenz bridgehead on business in the interior of Germany. Opportunity for the reopening of trade relations between the United States and Germany was thus definitely afforded, allowing American firms to compete with European houses in the German market.

THREE HURT IN RIOT. Hastings on Hudson, N. Y., July 28.—Several men were injured, three seriously, in rioting to-day between striking laborers of the National Conduit and Cable Company and the skilled employees who have remained at work. The rioters were finally driven off by the police and the crowd was driven to the street.

Crowds Sack Shop When Grocer Marks Up Chicken Prices. Paris, July 28.—Further instances were reported of the public taking their own measures against profiteering by retailers. A grocer in the poor quarter of Montmartre, seeing the rush of purchasers for chicken and rabbit at three francs 75 centimes a pound, marked up the price in front of customers to four francs. The crowd resented this action and sacked the shop, a few minutes sufficing to clear out the grocer's stock of chickens, rabbits, melons and other eatables. The shutters of the shop were lowered with the aid of four policemen and the crowd was driven to the street. At Dunkirk, Northern France, spinners who are striking as a protest against the high cost of living, made a demonstration in the market place yesterday. So effective was the demonstration that sellers lowered their prices by one-half.

DR. RAUNICK GIVES RULES FOR LIVING

Hundreds Suffer From Chronic and Serious Illnesses Who Could Have Avoided Them by Sensible Living, Says the City Health Officer, Who Advises Moderation

How to be YOUNG at 60! Dr. J. M. J. Raunick, city health officer, in a statement issued to-day lays down a number of rules showing how Harrisburg men and women may not only reach that age, but what is more important, have sound, healthy bodies after three score years of work and play. Many hundred Harrisburgers are seriously ill and thousands of others more or less frequently are ailing because of their neglecting to follow the simplest rules, the city health officer believes.

OBTAIN A WIFE, YOUNG MAN!

Do YOU want to live to be 60? Well, there is no reason why you should not—and much longer—physicians say.

POLICE GAIN UPPER HAND IN CHICAGO RIOTS

Two Negroes Are Killed and Fifty or More of Both Sides Injured in Clashes

BREAKS OUT A NEW TODAY

Shots Fired at Wagonload of Workmen Causes Fresh Disorders

Chicago, July 28.—Trouble between whites and negroes was renewed in Chicago's black belt to-day when Moses Thomas, a negro, fired several shots at a wagonload of white workmen being taken to a South Side factory. When an attempt was made by whites to disarm Thomas a dozen negroes rushed to his assistance. The police quelled the disturbance and reported that nobody had been injured. The disturbance occurred on North Dearborn street, between Thirty-fifth and Thirty-seventh streets, where many negro workmen reside. A riot call was sent to the Dearborn street police station, but when a wagonload of patrolmen arrived the fighting was over. Hundreds of white men and negroes were gathered in groups on the sidewalk and a patrolman had Thomas in custody.

Can't Find "Boy". Police to-day said they had been unable to find any trace of the unidentified white boy reported drowned yesterday in Lake Michigan at Fremont.

REPORTS EXAGGERATED. Paris, Sunday, July 27.—Henry Morgenthau, former American ambassador to Turkey, appointed by President Wilson as head of the American commission to investigate reports of pogroms in Poland, told the newspaper men here to-day that the short visit which he had made to Poland had convinced him that the reports of the pogroms were tremendously exaggerated.
