Camp Shikellimy is still going full blast and the fine weather of the last few days has made the boys put all their "pep" into the games and work that Alvin Dinsmore and "Doc" Miller have planned for them.

This week will see the exit of a few of the campers and the entrance of a few more into the mysteries of camp life. Everything is going just as smoothly as was expected, and the only regret is that they will be on which the camping in a larger way, and probably the period will be more than doubled.

The headquarters staff of Camp Shikellimy follow: A. H. Dinsmore, amp director; C. W. Miller, physical director; Frank Peters, assistant physical director, and sanitary commissioner; Robert Leiby, purchasing ley, commissary officer and storekeeper; John Roth, chauffeur.

to Start Colony in Peru

Lima, Peru, July 28.—It is reported that Dr. Augusto Durand, a prominent landowner and proprietor of the newspaper La Prensa, has sold about 806,000 acres of land near Huanuco, on the Amazon watershed, to a Japanese syndicate. Three hundred thousand more acres are in negotiation. The land lies in the sub-tropical belt, and is suitable for sugar, cotton, coffee, cocoa, and similar products. This purchase is thought the forerunner of a great Japanese colonization scheme in Peru.

The Alderman Fritz Kramme

Falls Dead of Heart

Attack in Front of Home

Fritz Kramme, alderman of the fifth ward, died suddenly last evening with a heart attack, while sitting with his wife in front of his residence, at 443 Verbeke street.

Alderman Kramme was known to have had a weak heart, and it is believed that the fatal attack of last evening was brought on by the intense heat of yesterday. Medial ald was summoned at once, but he was dead before Dr. J. H. Fager arrived. The Alderman was especially popular with the children of the Fifth on Independence Day to distribute on Independence Day to distribute coal companies of the Pacific Coast and the causes of recent advances in the market price of petroleum products throughout the country was proposed in a resolution introduced to-day by Senator Poindexter, of Washington. The resolution was referred to the committee in the usual course.

The Senator said it was claimed that the price of oil on the Pacific Coast was arbitrarily fixed by the Standard Oil Company of California.

REPEAL TAXES

War Revenue on Soft Drinks

Washington, July 28.—Among the measures to be enacted this week by the House are those proposing repeat of the war taxes on soft drinks, authorizing increase in the number of army officers as requested by the War Department and proposing investigation of Mexican affairs by a House committee.—Leaders also hope to have the House pass bills giving permanent rank to Generals Pershing and March and Admirals Sims and Benson, and also set on the resolution providing for distribution of surplus army food supplies. The latter will come up to-morrow.

Prohibition enforcement legislation passed recently by the House was conditionally of the committee, a subcommittee of which form the committee, a subcommitteed of which form of the House bill.

PRESENT COURT-MARTIAL SYSTEM IS UPHELD

Washington, July 28.—The special committee of the American Bar Association appointed at the request of Secretary of War Baker to study the existing code of military justice and to determine the merit of charges that court-martial procedure in the United States Army was barbarous and Prussianized, has decided by a vote of three to two against substantial legislative change in the system.
