Bowman's August Sale Of Fine Furniture

Furniture has been hard to get and is hard to get today. Stores that order six suites of a kind are lucky to get one, but for months we have been after the factories to get our orders shipped so there would be no disappointment when our August Sale came to hand.

The sale is now here, or will be Friday morning, August First, when the sale opens. But prior to that day you have

Two Days, Wednesday and Thursday, Courtesy Days

On these days you are welcome to come in and see how well we have succeeded in assembling a fine stock of furniture for this semi-annual sale. And bear in mind, that as this furniture was purchased months ago, and several increases have gone into effect since then at factories, you can purchase furniture to-day for a great deal less than seems likely for many months to come—perhaps years.

We pay freight to all points within one hundred miles or will deliver at such later date as may be required.
