OF HEAVY STORM

and Fields Leveled in York County Monday

Dilisburg, Pa., July 20,-A storm of considerable violence passed over the upper end of York county late Monday afternoon and wrought much damage. One barn was destroyed by fire, trees were uprooted and limbs broken, corn fields leveled and sheaves of grain were scattered. The barn on the farm of Elisworth Bushey, near Siddonsburg, Monaghan township, was struck by lightning and entirely destroyed, entailing a loss of $5,000, partly covered by insurance. All this season's crops of hay wheat and part of the oats were destroyed.

At Goldsboro a telephone pole, along the main street, was broken sff, but was supported by wires. On York street, in the same borough, the electric light wire, carrying the current from York Haven Power plant, having its insulation rubbed off, on a tree, blazed and one end of the live wire dropping to the street, causing much excitement. In the southern section of Dover township, the storm traveled in a path, a quarter of a mile in width, leveling fences, uprooting trees, scatterney stoled grain in the folder and a quarter of a mile in width, leveling fences, uprooting trees, scattering stacked grain in the fields and damaging entire corn fields.

The barn of Frank Stambaugh, near Admire, was partly removed from its foundation, and boards were ripped from the structure. For a distance of fully a quarter of a mile a row of Locust trees along the thoroughfare leading from Admire to Emig's Mill, were uprooted and thrown over the highway. A field of corn on the Harry Stambaugh farm, Dover township, was entirely ruined. The top of an automobile, left standing out doors by Edward Smyser, on his farm near Weiglestown, was carried off by the gale.

State Highway Road Builders in Mt. Holly

Carlisle, Pa., July 30 .- Work on the construction of a new main street in Mount Holly Springs has been be-gun by the State Highway Department. Barn Burned, Trees Uprooted State Librarian Thomas Lynch Montgomeny Makes Address at Ceremony at LeRoy Springs Yesterday Afternoon; Woman Was Captive of Indians For Three Years

Mifflinburg, Pa., July 30.—The privations Marie LeRoy suffered while a captive of the Alleghany Indians from 1755 to 1755, and her great work of giving information concerning 40 slaves of Indians whom she had met while a prisoner, were dedicated to posterity yesterday afternoon when a memorial tablet, inscribed with a brief history of herself and father, was unveiled at LeRoy Springs, this county.

Thomas Lynch Montgomery, State LeRoy was taken prisoner after her father had been killed by a band of Indians. Barbara Lein-linger, another girl, was captured at the same time. As the slaves of an Indian named Galasko, they were subjected to inhuman treatment and made to perform tasks that in this age fall only to the lot of men.

The young women finally escaptured at the same time. The young women finally escaped their captors and after wandering half-nude and in a broken-down condition, reached Pittsburgh, narrative, written by her soon after where they were received by friends.

High School Building

Gettysburg, Pa., July 30. — The school board has secured its full number of teachers for the year, the election of Mrs. Henry E. Clare to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Blanche Stoops Hartman completing the list.

Just what will be done with all the pupils, especially in the high has been felt keenly by school board and faculty, but when the proposition was put up to the voters two years ago the project was defeated. The high school has been overcrowded for some time and is becoming more so each year. Last year a class of thirty-two was graduated. A class of fifty-eight will enter at the opening of the term on September 1.
