Poor Directors Sue to Recover Cost of Indigent

Sunbury, Pa., July 31.—Northumberland poor district to-day brought an unusual suit in court. Mrs. Mary Kistner, more than ten years ago, was a charge on the district, which expended $200 for her care. Since then she died. A lot owned by her has been twice sold. Mrs. Kistner first sold it to E. B. Jacoby for $1, and Jacoby's executors to George R. Krest for $25. The petitioners allege that under the law Jacoby did not enter his claim for record here within three months after the sale, and that it is therefore void. They ask the court to direct a resale of the property, and that the cost of the proceeds be set aside to meet the debt to the poor district.

Drys Will Put Ticket in Field in Cumberland

Carlisle, Pa., July 31.—Cumberland County prohibitionists are going to keep right on fighting. A meeting was held in Carlisle, officers elected and plans made. State Chairman Prugh was present. The vacancy caused in the county chairmanship by the death of J. C. Rummel, of Shippensburg, was filled by the election of his son, A. H. Eise, of Mechanicsburg, was chosen as secretary, and Charles L. Runnel, of Carlisle, as treasurer. C. C. Cocks and D. S. Wagner, both of Carlisle, were chosen as additional members of the executive committee to which was assigned the task of lining up candidates for the fall election.

Young Folks Gather in Honor of Child's Birthday

Shiremanstown, July 31.—Mr. and Mrs. Noah R. Heiges gave a birthday surprise party at their residence in East Main street on Monday afternoon in honor of the eleventh birthday of their daughter Evelyn. The young folks spent a very pleasant afternoon playing various games and contests. Miss Evelyn received quite a number of beautiful gifts, and refreshments were served to Mrs. Charles Goodhart and daughter, Virginia Goodhart, of Shippensburg; Mrs. Frank Rowe and daughter, Gladys Rowe, of Mechanicsburg; Dorothy Eckert, Edna Sensenbrenner, and George Margaret Morgret, Kathryn Fisher, Marie Norton, Mable Brown, Mildred Krone, Lena Krone, Anna Wallace, Carl Morgret, Mary Morgret, Mary Wells, Grace Brinton, Effie Brinton, Blanche Stare, Alice Wolf, Susie Bricker and Ada Bricker, all of Shiremanstown.

Miss Pearl Cornman Is Bride of Virginia Man

Mechanicsburg, Pa., July 31.—The marriage of Miss Pearl Cornman of Mechanicsburg, and George W. Wagoner, of Richmond, Va., was a quiet event of Tuesday evening at the Church of God parsonage, the pastor being Rev. J. Russell Bucher, officiating, using the ring ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Melville Kintz. After a visit with friends here, the young couple will live in Richmond, Va. The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cornman, 315 South York street, was formerly an employe of the Cumberland Valley Telephone exchange in this place. Mr. Wagoner is connected with one of the industrial interests in Richmond, Va.

Hotels in Sunbury Are Now Apartment Houses

Sunbury, Pa., July 31.—The Hoffman automobile excursion of 50 years licensed for the retail sale of intoxicating liquor, will be used for apartment purposes, according to Charles B. Hawley, the owner. The place contains more than 50 rooms. Belmar Hotel, also an old hotel here, has been turned into apartments and stores. Bars of the City and Central hotels are closed. Some of the hotels are selling two and three-quarters per cent beer. Little drunkenness is seen, although the police say they are on the trail of a "blind tiger." Old timers scout this tale and assert that no one is selling liquor without a license, or in violation of the Federal laws, or they would know it.

Farmers of Cumberland to Visit by Automobile

Carlisle, Pa., July 31.—The third annual automobile excursion of the farmers of Cumberland County will be held on Thursday, August 21, according to plans being made by Farm Bureau Extension agent J. J. Meisel. The excursion is composed of J. B. Meisel, W. S. Means, and T. A. Carothers, members of the board. The trip is to include morning visits to the homes of A. L. Bierbowler, North Middleton township; D. W. Line, South Middleton; L. H. Brehm and J. B. Meisel, Bolling Springs, and afternoon visits to J. S. Bashore, near Silver Spring church, and George W. Wright, near East Pennsboro. More than 500 are expected to participate.

Tyrone Has Tent of Daughters of Veterans

Tyrone, July 31.—Through the efforts of Mrs. Sarah Hull, of Pittsburgh, who has been spending the summer in Tyrone, a tent of Daughters of Veterans has been organized. The object of the society is to commemorate the valiant deeds of soldiers of the Civil War in saving our flag and Nation. A number of daughters and granddaughters of the veterans joined the organization Monday night at the first meeting held in the rooms of Colonel D. M. Jones Post, G. A. R. The charter list will remain open for a short time.

Saves Boy From Drowning in the Susquehanna

Jersey Shore, July 31.—John Richburg was saved from drowning in the river yesterday at the end of the bridge by Charles Doversy, of Pittsburgh. The boy is 11 years old and was in bathing with several other boys. He got into a depth hole several yards from shore and evidently became excited with the thought that he was in deep water. Doversy, who was on the beach, noticed the lad struggle in the water and go down and in less than two minutes he had the boy on the beach.

$85,000 Silk Mill Under Way at Mechanicsburg

Mechanicsburg, Pa., July 31.—Plans for the new silk mill in this place are going rapidly forward on the plot on the corner of North York and West Green streets. The ground is broken and to-day the work on the concrete foundation was begun. The building, which will be 160 by 140 feet, will be a one story brick structure and is to be completed in ninety days. The cost is estimated at $85,000. Arrangements are being made to start with 150 hands and increase the number to 500, as labor can be procured. Work will commence with three shifts of eight hours each, and the eight hour day will be the standard, different employes being on each shift. Already a number of persons are inquiring for employment.

Major Leeds Clarkson Home From World War

Lewistown, Pa., July 31.—Major Leeds Clarkson, son of Dr. J. A. C. Clarkson, of this city, who arrived in New York the beginning of the week and was met at the pier by his father and mother and wife and little daughter, came to his home in this place to-day. Leeds, one of the best known and most popular young men of this section was working in Philadelphia as an instructor in the Central Y. M. C. I. when the war broke out. He left at once to engage in Y work in France. Once on that side, he decided the army needed him. He enlisted as a private in the U. S. Army and good efficient service soon brought him up to the rank of Major.

Quoit Champions of Mifflin County Would Meet Rivals

Lewistown, Pa., July 31.—Samuel MacDill and Bert Shannon, representing the Barnhart Y. M. C. A., claim the undisputed quoit pitching championship of Mifflin County, since the Y have again defeated the ex-champions, Harper Shannon and James Colburn, five out of eight games. The champions challenge any quoit pitchers in the State irrespective of color, age, nationality or ability, and feel confident they can hold the title against all comers. The Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A. will install a quoit court with all modern facilities for making the game interesting.

Lure Young People to Church by Rivalry

Columbia, Pa., July 31.—The congregation of the Kinderhook United Evangelical church has adopted a novel plan to encourage friendly rivalry among the young people in the neighborhood. Last Sunday was "Boys Day," which resulted in an attendance of two hundred and two. On Sunday, August 10, the congregation will observe "Girls Day," when it is expected the attendance will outnumber that of Sunday. This rivalry is being encouraged and has resulted in increased attendance at all the services.

Church of Brethren Holding Annual Reunion

Huntingdon, Pa., July 31.—The Church of the Brethren of Central Pennsylvania, representing thirty-five churches and fifty-nine Sunday schools, held their annual reunion at Juniata college, Huntingdon, to-day. The Revs. C. F. McKee, of Oaks, Pa.; James A. Sell, of Leamersville; Galen B. Royer and C. C. Ellis, of Juniata college, were the speakers for the day. There were three programs rendered, at 11 a. m., 2:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Must Parade to Welcome Soldiers or Forfeit Fine

Chambersburg, Pa., July 31.—Local labor organizations are determined to make a good showing in the Labor Day parade in connection with the welcome home celebration. They have chosen Harry E. Rhodes, chief marshal of their division of the parade. A fine of $1 is to be imposed upon each member of organized labor here who fails to appear in the parade. A reasonable excuse in the failure will be the only cause for rescinding of the fine.

BERWICK GIRL A BRIDE

Sunbury, Pa., July 31.—Miss Rita Clewell, of Berwick, and DeForest Manning, of Bloomsburg, were married at Sunbury yesterday by the Rev. M. Grover, of the Catholic Methodist church. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fulmer, of Northumberland. The bride is one of Berwick's most popular young ladies and is very well known in this place.
