FARMER BATTLES WITH BIG SNAKE

Waynesboro, July 31.—Harvey Minnich, on the Strickler farm, east of town, had a thrilling battle with a large copperhead snake. Minnick was removing a wheat shock when he came upon the reptile curled up underneath the shock. Before he could deliver a blow with a pitch fork, the reptile sprang at him and made several lunges before being killed. Minnick says this was the hardest fight he ever had with a snake and he has dispatched many large ones. The snake was five feet long.

Woman's Fall Results

in Death at Hospital

Lebanon, July 31. — Mrs. Nora Christ, aged 31 years, sustained fatal injuries shortly after midnight while on an automobile ride with her husband, Clarence Christ, telegraph operator at the Pennsylvania Railroad station at Cornwall. Mr. and Mrs. Christ started on the auto ride shortly after the husband finished his day's work at 9 o'clock in the evening.

The accident occurred while they were homeward bound shortly after midnight, when Mrs. Christ fell from the running board of the car onto the roadside in the vicinity of the Cornwall Methodist church, sustaining concussion of the brain, the effects of which caused her death at the Good Samaritan Hospital at 3 o'clock yesterday morning.

NOW MEN! OUR BIG AUGUST

STARTS FRIDAY TOMORROW

This is the big clothing sale for which we have made preparations.

The Suits in the Sale Are Worth $25 to $35

Every person who has been reading the newspapers lately has seen the many articles in reference to the advanced prices of clothing for this Fall.

Some newspaper articles have stated that clothing prices will be 100 per cent. higher.

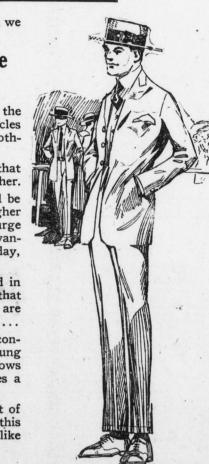

We feel sure that clothing prices will be higher—in many cases very much higher than they are now. Therefore, we urge every man who wants a suit to take advantage of our $19.95 sale, which begins Friday, to-morrow.

Every wanted material is represented in these suits. The very best materials that could be put into suits at $25 and $35 are in these suits for $19.95.

All the best colors are here, good, conservative styles that are suitable for young men and older men, conservative fellows and fashionable dressers who like styles a little out of the ordinary.

All together, it is the best assortment of suits at $19.95 you have laid eyes on this year. You probably won't see anything like them next year.
