URGE MEXICO TO PAY 942 CLAIMS

Total Loss to U. S. Citizens Through Bandits $26,000,000, Lansing Told

Washington, Aug. 2.—Claims filed by American citizens asking damages because of Mexican depredations during the time have totaled 942, Secretary of State Lansing told the Senate.

No amount of damages was fixed in 153 of the claims, Mr. Lansing said, but the total of the remainder was $26,629,597.

The question of claims of American citizens against the government of Mexico, said Mr. Lansing, is the subject of diplomatic negotiation, having been strongly presented to General Carranza, confidential ambassador to Mexico, recently on an official mission to the United States. This government is pressing the matter of arranging for the adjustment and payment of the claims.

Elimination of President Carranza "with the least damage possible" is the only solution of the Mexican problem, the House rules committee was told by William Gates, an archeologist, of Baltimore, who resumed his testimony on a resolution proposing an investigation of the relations between Mexico and the United States.

Mr. Gates said Henry P. Fletcher, American ambassador to Mexico, recalled Carranza was, recently on an official mission to the United States. This government is pressing the matter of arranging for the adjustment and payment of the claims.

If we had had a Morgenthau, a Whitlock or a Hoover in Mexico," declared Gates, "the German minister Von Eckhardt would have had to leave Mexico, and Mexico would have fallen into the war on the side of the Allies."

Community Swim Was Big Attraction on River; Winners in Two Races

Harrisburg's first community swim has held last night and was a big success. Two contests were of the program, the one-mile race for men and boys and quarter-mile race for girls and women.

The benevolent and mission boards have lent their leading experts for the undertaking. In addition experienced census directors, sociologists, college professors and others active in non-religious enterprises have been called.

The principal purpose of the intercultural census is to ascertain the exact facts about the present religious situation of every part of the world, and an intelligent cooperative program can be made.

The basic unit of the survey is the county council, consisting of from two to four members, which oversees collection of data in the field. Wherever possible local men will be used in investigations.

The urban surveys together with those of special problems, such as those of the immigrant, the foreign-language colony work among isolated people such as those in the Southern mountains, work among negroes, etc. will be handled by special investigating bodies.

The rural surveys are under the general direction of Edmund de S. Brunner, of the Moravian Church, a writer on rural matters, and Hermann N. Morse, of the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions.

As each survey reveals to each county the actual facts about religious conditions within its own confines, it is believed that the counties themselves will work out programs of interdenominational cooperation in the local field.

Out of such local programs, State programs will be formulated. Regional plans will grow from these and national enterprises from the regional plans. Finally it is expected that from a national viewpoint it will be possible to answer such questions as the whole church in industrial matters, and towards such social problems as Bolshevism and other causes of world unrest.

GENERAL OFFICE WINNER The General Office nine of the Central Iron and Steel League last night won from the Open Hearth tossers, score 9 to 2, in a forfeit game. The Open Hearth players did not all put in an appearance on the diamond.

WORLD CENSUS BIGGEST TASK EVER STARTED

Interchurch Organization Begins Survey of Peoples and Conditions

New York, Aug. 2.—The first world census, or survey, of peoples, economic conditions, schools, churches, hospitals, orphanages, and the whole moral, social, religious and sanitary situation of mankind has begun.

This announcement was made today by the Interchurch World Movement of North America, the new co-operative organization of Protestant evangelical churches. The denominations of the United States and Canada involved number seventy-two.

With such support, the movement is carrying out the largest program of investigation ever undertaken in this country outside the United States census. Educators, social workers, economists and other scientists are watching it closely.

The United States will be studied intensively and from many points of view never touched on in a census. The object of the American, or home, survey is the tabulation of every kind of information about every community and institution in the country which will be of value in a united human betterment program of all Christian forces.

The foreign survey will determine how Christian forces abroad can be mobilized for the best advantage. The country is the unit of study in the home survey. Maps will be drawn of every American rural county showing the location of every church, school, railroad, road, grange, club, farm house and social center, with the range of influence of each church carefully charted so it will be possible to see at a glance where there is overlapping of effort or entire lack of attention.

The city surveys will be even more detailed. A work of such magnitude could not be undertaken by any single denomination and the Interchurch World Movement is the first agency adequate for the task.

Lend Experts For Work The benevolent and mission boards have lent their leading experts for the undertaking. In addition experienced census directors, sociologists, college professors and others active in non-religious enterprises have been called.
