A Letter About My Twice-a-Twelvemonth Clearance Sale Recently I wrote my advertising man about my Twice-a-Twelvemonth event (see page 5 for the announcement) and he returned the letter with the suggestion that part of it be reproduced verbatim. So here it is: I will send you the items to be sold within a day or two. They include absolutely everything remaining in my stock from the Spring and early Summer Season. I am marking them at prices which will surely move them. I want this to be a grand big event; bigger even than my last Twice-a-Twelvemonth Sale in February and goodness knows all Harrisburg poured in here then. It was no wonder, I almost gave my stock away. This time the values will be just as wonderful. Please write me a fine big ad so people will realize just how important this event is and how much money they can save. The sale opens Monday, August fourth, so have the copy here sometime the previous week. And be sure to mention that my shop is open all day Thursday and closes Saturday at noon.

KEWPIES TELLING OF ENGAGEMENT

Miss Miriam Keiser Entertaining For Bride-Elect Tells Her Own Betrothal

Miss Miriam Keiser, of Camp Hill, entertained at bridge this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Civic Club House in compliment to Miss Eleanor Copelin whose engagement to Francis Simonetti was recently announced. Card tables were placed on the veranda, where the guests remained until summoned to the tea room for refreshments.

Each of the five tables was graced with a slender basket containing masses of pink roses, and Victory bouquets with here and there a touch of blue Delphinium. At each place stood two little Kewpies, one in black frock coat and the other wearing a sash of filmy maline, ending in a peppy bow. Attached to them were innocent-looking place cards. That is, they appeared innocent until close examination revealed these words on the back: "We are announcing our engagement." Inside the little booklets were written the names of Miss Keiser and Dr. Edwin A. Edmunds.
