

BUDAPEST IS BEING LOOTED BY RUMANIANS

Troops Kill Civilians; Threaten to Execute Five For Every Soldier Inured

CITY UNDER MILITARY Machine Guns Command All Strategic Positions; Arrest Hungarian Ministers

By Associated Press. Budapest, Monday, Aug. 4.—Thirty thousand Rumanian troops, including infantry, cavalry, artillery, entered the city today with a blare of trumpets. The Rumanian forces, led by General Marghescu, passed through Andrassy and other streets.

Paris, Aug. 5.—Telegrams from American officials at Budapest state that Rumanian troops upon entering Budapest yesterday started plundering in the suburbs. Fifteen or twenty civilians were killed by the Rumanians during the day, it is added.

Budapest, Monday, Aug. 4.—One regiment of Rumanian cavalry is quartered in Kobanya, a suburb three miles from the center of the city and overlooking it. Only Rumanian officers are actually inside the city proper.

Little Boys Who Steal Rides on the Top of the Load Should Look Out For Viaducts

WILSON GETS PLAN TO CUT COSTS AS U. S. AGENCIES START WORKING; DEALERS WOULD REDUCE EXPORTS

Free Market For Wheat Is Urged as One Step CONGRESS MAY BE ADDRESSED

Washington, Aug. 5.—Attorney General Palmer expects to be ready to present a preliminary report to President Wilson today concerning possible steps to be taken by government agencies in the effort to reduce living costs.

Some Grocery Prices

Table listing grocery prices for various items like Proctor & Gamble soap, Carnation milk, Baked beans, Soup beans, Canned salmon, Pickles, American Cheese, Swiss cheese, Canned spaghetti, Dried beef, Gold Medal flour, New potatoes, Onions, and Mackerel. Includes columns for 'Store', 'First', 'Second', and 'Third' prices.

Suggest Sending of Army Food Surplus to Other Nations

KEEP REGULAR SUPPLY IN U. S.

In the opinion of several Harrisburg wholesale grocers the high cost of living would be considerably reduced if the present excessive export was temporarily curtailed.

When the wholesale grocers were requested to allow a list of their prices to be published, they declined to do so and gave several reasons for their refusal.

PENNSY STATION TO CONFORM WITH PARK

Superintendent Elmer Declares He Wants Depot to Fit Into State's Plans, After Conference

Superintendent William Elmer, of the Philadelphia Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, who yesterday admitted before the Rotary Club of Harrisburg, that the passenger facilities of the big railroad system in this city were inadequate to meet demands and out of keeping with what they should be in the Capitol of the Keystone State.

Government Prices High "For example," said one wholesaler this morning, "if we were to present a list of prices, the average Harrisburg citizen would compare them with retail prices and, considering the minimum expense of delivery, realize that no excessive profit was being reaped by the retailer. If, however, the readers of the list in Perry or another county, were to read the list and compare their own local retail prices, they would consider themselves to be cheated, for they would never in the world think of the expressage, and hauling charges and other extra-charge."

Harrisburg Labor Parade to Break All Records; Industrial Flood Prizes

Plans for Harrisburg's largest Labor Day parade are being steadily put into shape by a committee from the Central Labor Union. Hugh L. McLaughlin is chairman, and J. R. Hurst, secretary.

About forty local organizations of this city are expected to be in line with a large percentage of their membership. Railroaders and railroad shopmen will form the largest section.

Newlywed Is Killed on Eve of Moving Bride Into Their New Home

Married a month ago and preparing to go to housekeeping to-morrow, James Hedman, 25 years old, of 102 Evergreen street, was almost instantly killed in the Pennsylvania Railroad yards here to-day.

Two Properties Are Condemned in Market Street by Inspector

Properties at 1028-30 Market street, owned by Mrs. Lydia A. Cahoe, 10 North Cameron street, have been condemned by Building Inspector James H. Grove, who sent a letter to-day to her notifying her that the structures were unsafe.

MINERS RIOT AFTER STRIKE IS DECLARED

Bolshevist Agents Responsible For Split From Union and Pitched Battles

Wheeling, W. Va., Aug. 5.—Twenty deputy sheriffs, armed with riot guns were rushed to the Fort Pitt coal mine, south of Bellaire, Ohio, near here, this forenoon following reports of a clash between striking miners, believed to be led by radical agitators, and others, more conservative workmen.

NEVER SAW SUCH A CITY

Harrisburg is the worst city she ever lived in! Absolutely! Why, children run their express wagons over her pavement, and one day a man even nicked the curbing in front of her home with a wheelbarrow.

300 OF P. R. R. JOIN

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 5.—The machinists and locomotive inspectors employed at the Pan Handle shops of the Pennsylvania railroad here, joined the shipmen's strike to-day. Officials of the men say 300 walked out.

WIN WAR CROSS

Washington, Aug. 5.—The War Department announced to-day that General Pershing had awarded the Distinguished Service Cross to the following officers and men of the American Expeditionary forces:

HASSLER ASKS FOR PROBE INTO LIGHT SERVICE FOR CITY

Council Authorizes Investigation When Commissioner Suggests Plan For Acquiring Municipal Plant

Making an official complaint to Council to-day about the poor light service furnished the city by the Harrisburg Light and Power Company, Commissioner S. F. Hassler secured the passage of a resolution directing City Electrician Clark E. Diehl to make an investigation and submit a detailed report to the Councilmen.

Police Asked to Bring Back His Bonnie to Him

No, he didn't want her arrested, he merely wanted the assistance of the police in bringing back his wife to him. This, in substance, was the tearful plea of a Harrisburg man at police station to-day, asking that the police department take steps to persuade his wife to come back to him.

OFFERS TO UNDRESS HER CHILDREN IN COURTROOM

It's a Scrappy Neighborhood, Mrs. McLaughlin Tells Judge Kunkel, Who Raps For Order

"We must have order in this court. This is no magistrate's court. These women if they don't behave will have to be shown that they have no business to talk or interrupt the court." Present Judge George Kunkel declared yesterday during the habeas corpus case brought by William J. McLaughlin against his wife, Mrs. Catherine L. McLaughlin, to secure the custody of their three children.

Anti-Forestalling Act Will Be Enforced With Every Resource of City

Copies of the forestalling ordinance printed on cards will be posted in the city markets before Saturday by George B. Nebinger, inspector of weights and measures, and circulars on which the measure will be printed also, will be placed at each stall, it was announced to-day.

Operators' Union Denies Charges Against Regent

The local Moving Picture Operators' Union last night retracted statements made on placards which have appeared in various parts of the city charging that the management of the Regent theater was not a friend of union labor.

Two Men, Heavily Armed, Arrested Near Home of Clemenceau

Paris, Monday, Aug. 4.—Two laborers, one of whom had two revolvers and the other a large knife, were arrested to-day near the residence of Clemenceau by police detectives who said their manner excited suspicion.

Police Asked to Bring Back His Bonnie to Him

No, he didn't want her arrested, he merely wanted the assistance of the police in bringing back his wife to him. This, in substance, was the tearful plea of a Harrisburg man at police station to-day, asking that the police department take steps to persuade his wife to come back to him.

NEVER SAW SUCH A CITY

Harrisburg is the worst city she ever lived in! Absolutely! Why, children run their express wagons over her pavement, and one day a man even nicked the curbing in front of her home with a wheelbarrow.

300 OF P. R. R. JOIN

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 5.—The machinists and locomotive inspectors employed at the Pan Handle shops of the Pennsylvania railroad here, joined the shipmen's strike to-day. Officials of the men say 300 walked out.

FORD TESTIMONY BROUGHT TO CLOSE

Chicago, Monday, Aug. 4.—The testimony of Ford in the case today. The jury should have the case over Tuesday.

TROUBLE IN STRIKING SHOPMEN'S RANKS

Chicago—John D. Saunders, secretary of the Chicago district council of the Federated Railway Shopmen's Union, said to-day that his organization had refused to take the strike vote ordered by the grand lodge officers.

JAP THINKS U. S. SHOULD GIVE MEXICO GUNS

Honolulu—To restore order in Mexico the United States should provide President Carranza with munitions with which to exterminate Villa and numerous bandits. Baron Jujitori Otori, Japanese ambassador to Mexico, declared to-day.

METAL TRADES WANT COSTS CUT

San Francisco—The metal trades department of the American Federation of Labor will make demands on Congress and the President that measures be taken to reduce the high cost of living.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS DEMORALIZED

Chicago—Demoralization seized the grain and provision trade this afternoon and forced down corn 8 1/2 cents a bushel in some cases and pork $3.50 a barrel. Extreme breaks to $1.39 for May delivery of corn and $44.50 for September delivery of pork.

NOMINATED POSTMASTER

Washington.—Postmasters nominated to-day by President Wilson included Enoch F. Hooper, Trenton, New Jersey.

CINCINNATI—OUTFIELDER AND PITCHER

Cincinnati—Outfielder and Pitcher Charles See, who was purchased from the Rochester International League Club by the Cincinnati Nationals, for a price said to have been $10,000, reported to Manager Moran of the Reds to-day.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Simon Pace and Rachel E. Matzbaugher, Harrisburg; Edwin L. Keen and Kathryn F. Jones, Wiconisco; Elmer R. Shirey, Pittsburgh, and Helen G. Devine, Reading; Guy Sherman, Philadelphia, and Mary J. Sinitery, Harrisburg; Homer Painter and Katherine Brandt, Middletown; Clarence L. Donawar, Rock Island, Ill., and Alice B. Matthews, Harrisburg.

HELD AS MILK THEIF

Suspected of stealing milk from a door step, Edward Arrington is being held by Harrisburg police. He was arrested early this morning by Patrolman Jackson while carrying a bottle of milk under his arm.

THE WEATHER

Harrisburg and vicinity, continued unsettled weather, with showers to-night and probably Wednesday. Not much change in temperature, lowest to-night about 72 degrees.

Eastern Pennsylvania: Showers to-night and probably Wednesday. Little change in temperature. Gentle variable winds.