

DECLARES GREEKS MURDERED TURKS

Letter Writer Tells of Massacre at Smyrna Recently

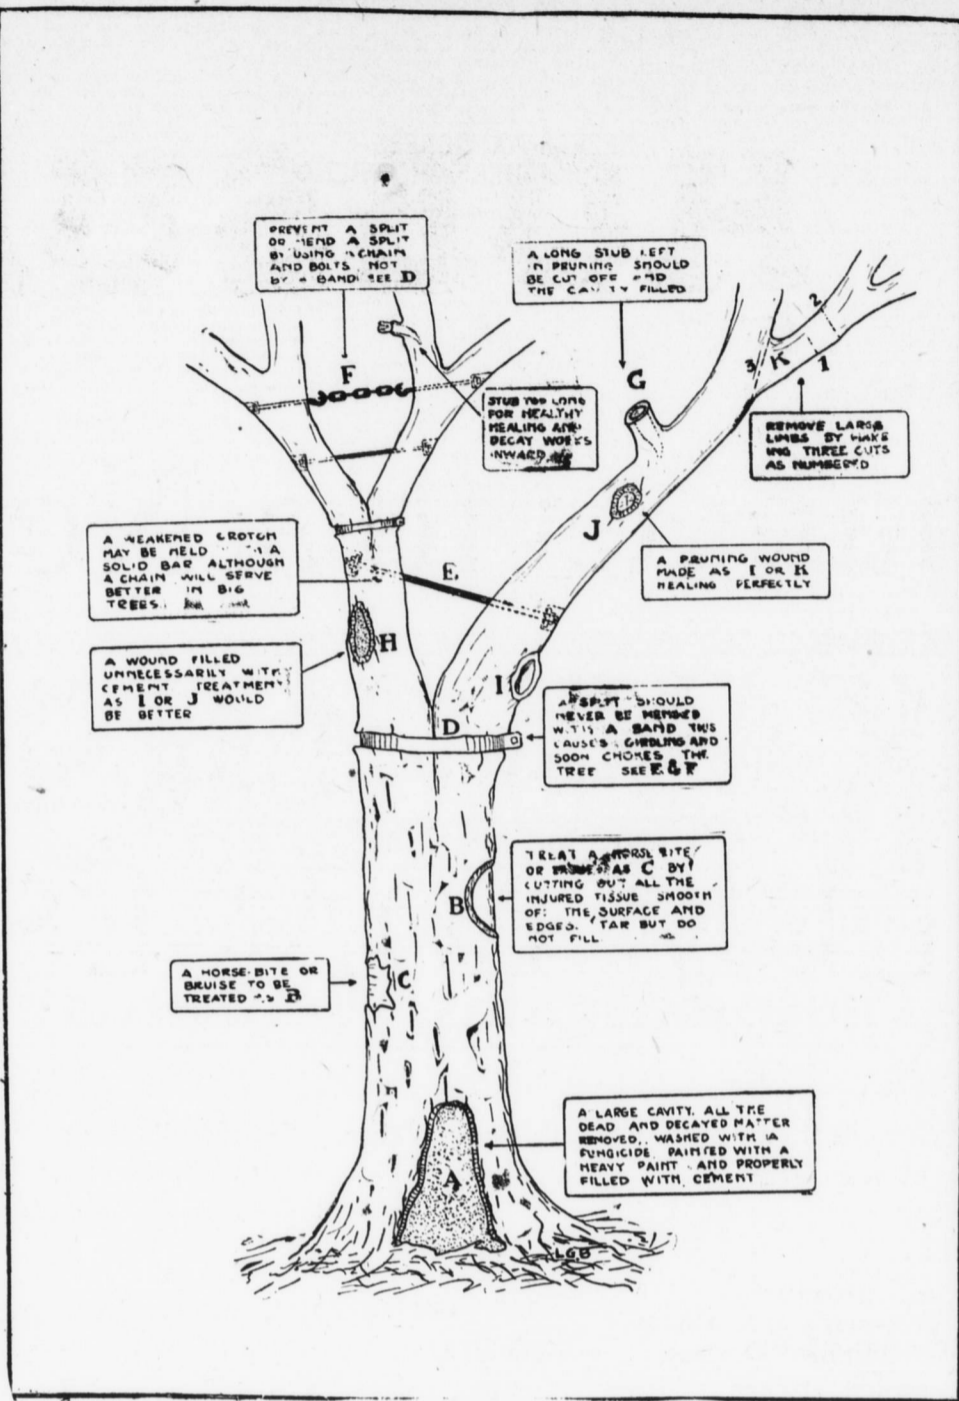

London, Aug. 5.—The Greek Army of Occupation which landed at Smyrna a few months ago murdered and pillaged the Turks, according to a letter published by Marmaduke Pickthall, a well-known writer of eastern affairs. The writer of the letter was described by Mr. Pickthall as "the reliable correspondent" but his identity was not disclosed.

The writer asserts that when the Greek army landed at Smyrna, Turkish troops had been ordered by the Turkish authorities to remain in their barracks and that they did so, but that the Greeks broke into places where Turkish officers were collected and shot down all who would not shout "long live Venizelos." Many were thus shot down according to the writer. The writer adds: "The Governor of Smyrna was dragged along the wharf and carried aboard a Greek ship. His wife was wounded and his house looted. The Turkish Chief of Staff was bayoneted in the face and thrown into the hold of the Greek cattle ship among the animals. The senior doctor of the Turkish army corps was murdered and his body mutilated. Fingers of Turkish men and women who wore rings were cut off wholesale. Houses were looted, women robbed of all their jewels.

"This was supposed to be an absolutely peaceful occupation in the interests of law and order. Greece had not even been at war with Turkey. In no case did the Turks show fight until they were attacked by the Greeks. The civilian Greeks joined with the invading soldiery in the work of murder and pillage. And the Allied Fleet acquiesced these proceedings, which were made possible only by its presence."

A member of the House of Commons recently asked the Government representatives whether it was true that the Greeks had massacred their prisoners in Smyrna in full sight of the Allied War Ships. Sir Cecil H. Harmsworth, now Secretary of Foreign Affairs replied that numerous Turkish officers and men lost their lives in that way but the Greek Government, he said, regretted the affair and it was engaging the attention of the British Minister to Paris.

HOW TO DOCTOR A TREE

City Forester Louis G. Baidmore, in reply to many inquiries about the care and treatment of trees, issued the following statement and the above drawing to show the best methods of doctoring trees:

"Trees, like human beings and animals, require care, and in case of injury require principles of treatment similar to those used in human nature. In case of wounds inflicted during windstorms, etc., the tree requires doctoring as in human nature and thus giving rise to the term 'Tree Surgery,' which is a legitimate one to use in describing modern methods of treating trees.

"The accompanying diagram shows methods of doctoring a tree. In following out these methods it is always best to be on the conservative side, since it is very easy to cause a tree serious injury. 'It often becomes necessary to bolt or chain a tree to render it more secure or to prevent injury or disfigurement; and as this process is rather expensive it is possible in many cases to save trees from destruction. If it is necessary to fasten branches near the point of forking where swaying is limited an iron rod is preferable (E); but for connecting limbs a few feet apart more or less remote from their point of junction with one another and where swaying is more pronounced the chain method is superior (F). Iron bands should never be used because as the tree develops the iron band becomes imbedded in the bark and causes partial girdling and eventually disfiguring and injuring the tree (D). 'Cavities should be filled with cement. Before filling, all the dead and decayed matter should be completely removed. The cavity should then be washed with a fungicide, painted with a heavy paint and then filled with cement. (A). 'Bruises, horse-bites or other bark wounds caused by external forces should be gauged out, smoothed off and painted to allow rapid healing. (C treated as B). 'A careful watching of the tree from youth will add many years to its life and to the pleasure of those who may enjoy it.'"

SHE WAS FLATTERED Two women who had not met for years suddenly encountered each other on a train.

"How do you do?" said one effusively.

"Now this is delightful," said the older of the two. "Just to think that you knew me after so many years, I can't have changed much—really, I feel quite flattered."

"Oh," quickly replied the first speaker, "I recognized your hat."

Then there was a horrid silence—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Why Women Grow Old More Quickly Than Men

Greater Percentage of Anaemia—Lack of Iron in the Blood—Among Women Makes Them Lose Much of Their Youth, Beauty and Former Attractiveness, And Become Fretful, Nervous and Run-down—What Women Need Is Not Cosmetics or Stimulating Drugs But Plenty of Pure Red Blood, Rich in Iron

Physician Explains How Organic Iron—Nuxated Iron—Enriches The Blood, Strengthens The Nerves, Builds Up Physical Power and Often Makes Weak, Pale Careworn Women Look and Feel Years Younger.

Look for the woman who appears younger than a man of the same age and you will find the exception to that vast majority upon whom anaemia—lack of iron in the blood has fastened its grip and is gradually sapping the health, vitality and beauty which every woman so longs to retain. In most cases men safeguard their health better than women by eating coarser foods, being more out-of-doors and leading more active lives, thereby, keeping their blood richer in iron and their bodies in better physical condition. The very moment a woman allows herself to become weak, nervous and run-down she is placing a drain upon her whole system which overtaxes the power of the blood to renew wasted tissue and keep active the natural life forces of the body. There are thousands of women who are ageing and breaking down at a time when they should be enjoying that perfect bodily health which comes from plenty of iron in the blood, simply because they are not awake to their condition. For want of iron a woman may look and feel haggard and all run down—while at 50 or 60 with good health and plenty of iron in her blood she may still be young in feeling and so full of life and attractiveness as to defy detection of her real age. But a woman cannot have beautiful rosy cheeks or an abundance of strength and endurance without iron, and physicians below have been asked to explain why they prescribe organic iron—Nuxated Iron—to help supply this deficiency and aid in building a race of stronger, healthier women.

Dr. James Francis Sullivan formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital says: "Many a woman who is run-down, easily tired out, nervous and irritable, suffers from iron deficiency and does not know it. I am convinced that there are thousands of such women who, simply by taking Nuxated Iron might readily build up their red corpuscles, increase physical energy, and get themselves into a condition to ward off millions of disease germs that are almost continually around us. I consider Nuxated Iron one of the foremost blood and body builders—the best to which the springtime of life into their step is not cosmetics or stimulating drugs but plenty of rich pure blood. Without it no woman can do credit to herself or to her work. Iron is one of the greatest of all strength and blood-builders, and I have found nothing in my experience as effective for helping to make strong, healthy red blooded women as Nuxated Iron. Manufacturers' Note: Nuxated Iron which is prescribed and recommended above by physicians is not a secret remedy but one which is well known to druggists everywhere. Unlike the older inorganic iron products it is easily assimilated, does not injure the stomach, make them black nor upset the stomach. The manufacturers guarantee successful and entirely satisfactory results to every purchaser or they will refund your money. It is dispensed in this city by Croll Keller, G. A. Gorgas, Nelson Clark and all druggists.
