Save Baking Hours and Spend them with the Children. SOME women still bake their own bread. Would you believe such a thing could be possible? Yet it is true. And it is the husbands of such women who will gain the most. If a man was managing a house, do you think he would bake? He would NOT. He'd give baking hours to the children for things important, and he would buy GUNZENHAUSER'S AMERICAN-MAID BREAD. because he would know that he could not bake it better, if it were good—because he would know that it would cost him less to buy than to bake.
