

WAR CRIPPLES SCHEDULED BY CITY MUMMERS

Second Annual Event Planned For Paxtang Park For August 22

The second Mardi Gras of the Harrisburg Mummer's Association will be held Friday, August 22.

The same general committee that was in charge of the first Mardi Gras, staged in July, 1915, will be in charge again this year.

More than 100 contests will be included on the program. The committee is now working on securing satisfactory prizes for the events.

The first event was a big success, and the preparations now indicate that this year's affair will excel it.

COUNTRY CLUB PLANS APPROVED

L. Stoddard, the architect of the Penn-Harris, although some changes in interior details were suggested.

To cost $85,000, the plan, which calls for raising of $85,000 in round numbers and pointed out the big investment in the property and the desire of members to have an adequate home.

Strike leaders claim that 95 per cent of the entire system was tied up by the strikers. More than 2,000 men had joined the union.

Thousands of motor trucks, automobiles and wagons were employed during the rush hours to bring a vast army of workers to Manhattan.

The alleged union official said he had obtained his information from a source who was covering the various barns. He said the "raw" men were being trained in the barns.

William Siebert, superintendent of surface transportation of the B. & O., said that the strikers were employing green motormen, and said that only the regular motormen and conductors were being used.
