Physician Declares His License Was Revoked by State Without Cause

Dr. John C. Bateson, of Dunmore Lackawanna county, brought a man- Miss Beulah Starry and Calder damus action to-day in the Dauphin county courts, against the Bureau of Medical Education and Licensure of Medical Education and Licensure of the Department of Public Instruction, to compel them to revoke their order prohibiting him from the practice of medicine and to restore him to the rights he had as a physician. The writ of alternative mandamus which was filed is returnable in tendays, and an answer must be filed at the prochonostry's office by August 8. In his petition Dr. Bateson states he was graduated from the New York University, medical department, March 14, 1885, and came to Pennsylvania to practice, locating finally in vania to practice, locating finally in Scranton, where he was a physician for almost 39 years, and for the last 25 years was a member of the Lackawanna County Medical Society and the Pennsylvania State Medical Society.

the Pennsylvania State Medical Society.
On June 28, according to the statement, he was notified that he should discontinue the practice of medicine as his license had been revoked by the State Bureau. No notice or copy of charges against him were furnished it is alleged and the action of the bureau is declared illegal. Dr. Bateson denying that he had violated any of the provisions of the State laws relating to the licensing of physicians. Arrangements were made at the courthouse through the Sheriff's office to have the papers served at once on officials of the bureau. Dr. John M. Baldy, the president, is named in the action, together with the other members of the bureau.

Retail Public Ledger

The Retail Public Ledger devotes considerable first page space in its issue of August 6 to the advertising of the Miss Sachs shop of this city. Particular mention is made of one of her advertisements which recently appeared in Harrisburg papers headed "An Advertisement Direct to Husbands," dealing with the subject of keeping down business costs. The Ledger article includes the complete reproduction of the advertisement referred to.
