DADDY LONG LEGS AT THE VICTORIA

"Daddy Long Legs," the motion picture production of the great story by Jean Webster, in which Mary Pickford will be seen at the Victoria, is an attraction which will have universal appeal, for it is filled with children, and their doings. Moreover the children are not those we see every day, with fathers and mothers to care for and protect them, but little children who are the charges of an asylum which is sadly mismanaged.

Miss Pickford has the role of Judy Abbott, a 12-year-old girl, full of life and fun, who dodges the cruel punishments of the superintendent of the John Grier Orphanage, to run off and help the little ones who are facing ill on the miserable diet and poor care they receive.

Child Parts Cleverly Enacted More than a score of orphaned children, some of them the most clever child actors who have ever been seen on the screen, aid Miss Pickford in this earlier part of the picture, which shows scenes in the big orphan asylum. Clad in striped cheap cloth, fed upon prunes and thin soup, forced to work at hard tasks, and above all lacking the kindness and love which should be given children, these babies grip the hearts of everyone who sees the picture.

Miss Pickford is assisted by a number of children among whom is the funniest and kindest and loveliest ever seen in a picture. How he and Mary provoke and carry through a "prune strike" is one of the episodes of the picture in which humor and Billy Mc Dermott, the sole survivor of Coxe's Army, is the laughing hit of the bill now playing at the Majestic theater for the first half of this week. Mc Dermott has a line of stories and songs that is bound to take the grouch off any pessimist's face.

"Memories" is the title of a wonderful act in which four men present some real harmony. They harmonize on popular selections. The closing act is the Corinthians, a musical comedy. The act is somewhat out of the ordinary vaudeville offering.

Enormous audiences have greeted the first Clara Kimball Young picture to be shown in Harrisburg for several months. It is entitled "The Better Wife," a society drama void of sensationalism. The picture has been greeted with enthusiasm at every showing at the Colonial theater, the home of the better class pictures.

GLADYS BROCKWELL PLAYS GYPSY ROLE Gladys Brockwell has tried gypsy life, and reports that she likes it. The latest role of this Williams Fox actress is a gypsy princess, in "The Sneak"—which will be shown to-day for the first time at the Victoria.

"The Sneak" is the story of Rhona's romance, which is stormy and passionate. She is to be the model. She refuses proudly, but soon is tricked by one of her own tribe into entering his tent. She is surrounded by the jealousy of her betrothed, who denounces her before the king and the other courtiers.

Stars and Cooks Once upon a time a good Christian woman driven to distraction by servants, said: "If I don't go to heaven it will be because of my servants." "So say we all of us," one can almost hear millions of women like her shouting at the dining room.

They were talking the servant question over in the cafeteria at the Hamilton Hotel the other day when Bessie Barriscale joined in the symposium. Anna Q. Nilsson declared fearfully: "I have given up. My life is just one series of humiliations and sometimes more. One day I had three cooks. All I do is cry and interview servants."

"I have had my troubles," said Bessie sorrowfully, "but I can tell you a story that came to me when I was a domestic-help Bolshevik. I had been trying desperately for two weeks to find a cook who knew the kitchen range from the bread board, and who knew enough to cut a canteloupe in two before serving it. When I was in despair when one afternoon a three hundred-pound woman presented herself and announced that she was a cook."

"Can you really cook?" I asked. "Didn't I say I was a cook?" the wide woman demanded. "Oh, but you may call yourself a cook and about not cook, you know," I replied sweetly.

"I'll have you know I can cook anything in ten minutes. I have a know, Madame, and I'm an honest woman."

"I don't doubt, but I'll not believe you're a cook until you prove it. Go out in the kitchen and bake me some hot cakes. It's a simple test and you won't have to change clothes. I'll put on an apron and serve them to me in five minutes. If you can do it you'll win a life job here."

Here Bessie paused a minute to cut her (cream) which was skidding off her pie-la-mode. "Bake them," yelled the impatient audience in concert. "She did. The cakes were heavenly."

"Did you engage her?" "No," replied Bessie nochalantly. "It fell out like this: '$50.00 a week—holidays and three days a week off—tickets to picture show every night—tickets to matinee Saturdays—privilege of entering her friends in the drawing room—gold dinner when she had a feel like cooking 'em—use of my charge accounts at the shops, etc., etc. she asked."

"How many automobiles have you?" "Only three now, but I suppose we could arrange—"

"Oh dear no. Three is quite enough. But I was just thinking. I am rather heavy you know, and I live over near Pasadena. Of course you won't care if I use the limousine when I'm off Thursdays."

"That'd you tell her," yelled the gang. "I just asked her if she wanted my husband to drive her, and there must have been some mistake. I told her I said it that offended her, anyway, she said something about being insulted and left."

Hummelstown Ties Game in Series With Hershey

Hummelstown Fire Company team last evening held Hershey to a 1 to 1 score. It was a fast and interesting battle.

In the second inning, with Brown up, a hit for two bases, Keller hit a hot one to S. Heagy, who made the stop, but failed to get either runner. Brown going to third and Keller safe on first. Hippensteel hit a scorching single, scoring Brown. Keller was out trying to steal second.

Hasler pitched sensational ball for Hummelstown. Up to the seventh inning he had only allowed the Choctaw players three hits. In this inning they scored one run on a hit by Hart. Sullivan batting for Foster laid down another neat bunt, and was safe on base.

Alberts hit to Hasler, who threw him out at first. Howe, then batting for Shaub, hit a hot one to Hasler, which took a bad bounce, advancing both runners a base. Bases were full. Cocklin, batting for Fenner, hit a hot one, labeled for two bases, but Steuart made a fine stop and threwed a little wild home, leaving Hart score the run that tied the score.

Hummelstown held Hershey in the first game 4 to 0, and held them to a tie score in the second game 1 to 1 at Hershey. They will make arrangements for the next game at Hummelstown.

Hummelstown will play the Harrisburg Giants this evening and Carlisle A. C. August 16th at Carlisle. A game with the Harrisburg West End A. A. for Friday is pending. The score:

GERMAN GIRLS ARE BLACKLISTED

Their Association With the American Soldiers Is Charge

With the American Forces in Germany, Aug. 13.—Posters written in German and warning German girls against associating with Americans appeared recently in several public places in Coblenz and other towns on the Rhine, the girls being urged to refrain from making the acquaintance of soldiers regardless of the fact that the treaty of peace had been signed. At various times posters have been put up threatening indiscreet girls with punishment of one kind or another.

American officers who have investigated said the Germans are determined that girls who associate with the soldiers shall have their names known to the population and that several secret societies have been formed for that purpose. Intelligence officers say that on several occasions the names of girls who are on the records of the German police for associating with Americans have been read to the congregations at Sunday morning church services. In other villages the practice of posting the girls' names in public places was inaugurated some time ago.

The officers assert that blacklists of the girls' names have been prepared and are being kept for future use, after the Americans are gone.

Urges Anti-Storage Laws Re-Enacted Washington, Aug. 13.—Organized opposition of the packing interests to any comprehensive cold storage regulation law was predicted yesterday by Senator McKellar (Democrat), Tennessee, before the House Agricultural Committee. He urged the framing and adoption of stringent legislation which would cover the period of storage and be of such a character that it could not be evaded. Senator McKellar asserted "the five great packers" practically had a monopoly on cold-storage, adding that they had discredited entirely the law of supply and demand.
