

BUDDING ORATORS HOLD UP MEASURE

Bill in House to Curb Profiteering Is Subject of Windy Discussion

Washington, Aug. 13.—The forthcoming bill to curb profiteering in the United States could be disposed of promptly in the House of Representatives but for the desire on the part of from 150 to 200 of the 435 members of that body to take part in the discussion.

A special rule limits merely the general debate, but when a measure is taken up under the five-minute rule, and when amendments are in order, that is the great opportunity for the new and inexperienced Congressman to get in his work, and in these latter days he would simply "bust" wide open if he did not make an attempt to edge in so that he could pad his remarks and make it appear to the voters of his district that he had a leading hand in putting through legislation for reducing the high cost of living.

If the bill being considered in committee by veteran legislators is to be speedily passed it is realized by the leaders of the House, both Democrats and Republicans, that an unusually drastic special rule will have to be reported and adopted for shutting off the flow of talk.

Philadelphia to Sell Bread at Reduced Prices in Police Stations

Philadelphia, Aug. 13.—Director Joseph S. MacLaughlin, chairman of the market commission, announced yesterday that the commission is planning to sell bread, fresh fish and vegetables at all the police stations in the city.

"As soon as we find that the sale of government stocks at cost is a success," said Mr. MacLaughlin, "we are going to put this new plan in operation. Already two of the largest bakeries in town have consented to sell us bread at a rate which will enable us to dispose of it at two cents a loaf less than the usual price at the stores. Similar offers have been made by a number of fish and vegetable wholesalers."

This rash may become serious.

Some people are inclined to neglect a slight rash. They consider it a mere trifle and expect it to disappear next day. On the contrary this delay permits the rash often times to become more malignant in nature, and consequently more difficult to overcome and heal.

Mexicans Drag Him From Home and Torture Him

Mexico City, Aug. 13.—Details of the lynching of Juan Galvan, a prominent resident of the village of Zaragoza in the state of San Luis Potosi, have just been received in the capital and El Democrita, in publishing the story, declares this is the first instance of lynching recorded in Mexico.

Galvan was publicly accused by the pastor of a church in Zaragoza of being the person who robbed the image of a virgin in one of the churches of gold and jewels valued at 10,000 pesos. The words of the curate inflamed his hearers, who dragged Galvan from his home, built a funeral pyre and upon it tortured the unfortunate man until he died. The curate has been detained by the authorities as the author of the crime.
