

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH A NEWSPAPER FOR THE HOME

Published evenings except Sunday by THE TELEGRAPH PRINTING CO. Telephone Building, Federal Square

E. J. STACKPOLE President and Editor-in-Chief F. R. OYSTER, Business Manager GUS M. STEINMETZ, Managing Editor

Member American Newspaper Publishers Association, Eastern office, Brooklyn, N. Y. Western office, Chicago, Ill.

Entered at the Post Office in Harrisburg, Pa., as second class matter. By carrier, ten cents a week; by mail, $3.00 a year in advance.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 14, 1919. Christopher Pearce Crauch. To-day is all your own; To-morrow, God's alone.—Anon.

OUR LAW BETTER

PRESIDENT WILSON suggested to Congress last week that the United States pass a cold storage law modeled after that of New Jersey. Possibly President Wilson is acquainted with the New Jersey law and knows no other.

James Foust, like the lamented Kalbus, peace to his ashes, has been a faithful servant of the Commonwealth in a trying and difficult position.

NEW RESPONSIBILITIES

IT USED to be that the average American knew little or nothing of European politics and cable tolls cost the big press associations very little.

For example, if we ratify it we become a full partner in every phase of the enterprise designed for other members of the Big Five. We must take part in the delimitation of the new frontier line between Belgium and Germany.

necessary, in protecting the rights of racial, linguistic, and religious minorities in Czechoslovakia and Poland. We accept a fee simple of one undivided fifth part of the property in Danzig, join in giving ultimate title to the Kreis of Stuhm and Rosenberg, take part in the occupation of Schleswig and help decide what portion of the deficit in the budget shall be paid by the inhabitants of East Prussia.

On us, as a signatory of the treaty, will be thrust our portion of the responsibility of determining how best to place ill-governed colonies in the hands of governments which are to act as trustee for the people; as to the disposition of sums of money in German possession with reference to the Turkish debt, and pledges in gold held as collateral in connection with German loans to Austria-Hungary.

As a full-power member of the reparations commission, into which Wilson is trying to force us before ever the treaty has been considered, we would be concerned with the manner and sums which Germany must pay in equivalent of the 20,000,000,000 gold marks indemnity; the supervision of Germany's scheme of taxation; the decision as to the cancellation in whole or in part of the German debt; the distribution of reconstruction materials demanded from Germany; the control over German shipyards, specifications for German ships, price per ton at which those ships are to be accounted for; the determination as to what portion of the German debt shall be borne by territories ceded by Germany.

VISITING ROYALTY

THE United States will give the young Prince of Wales as cordial a reception as it did Prince Albert when he sojourned in America in 1860. Prince Albert came as an inexperienced young man of eighteen years; his grandson, six years beyond that age, comes as a seasoned veteran of the Great War.

Here is a hero to appeal to the popular imagination—a man and a soldier, a statesman and a democrat, despite his royal trappings, a king who reigns by virtue of popular will and who has won his right to authority on the bloody fields of his own country and France.

LABOR NOTES

Over 700 men, largely shop employees, have been dropped from the payroll by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company.

Over 600,000 wage-earning women are now members of the National Women's Trade Union.

Politics in Pennsylvania

By the Ex-Committeeman

Judge John M. Patterson last night announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for mayor of Philadelphia. He is the candidate of the Vares. He delayed the announcement of his platform until to-day.

"I have decided to become a candidate for mayor of Philadelphia and to seek the nomination of the Republican party at the primary on Tuesday, September 23rd," said Judge Patterson in a letter to Thomas Robins, who has volunteered to form a campaign committee of 1,000 to promote my nomination as a candidate.

A slight rift appears in the Republican slate of Lancaster county. The Examiner commends the slated candidates generally, but thinks the assistant district attorney, Mr. Hoskins, is a better choice than the Republican candidate, Mr. Dorney Park.

—Congressman J. Hampton Moore has already injected a lot of ginger into the campaign for mayor in Philadelphia. His speeches are full of pep and his canvass promises to be of more than usual interest.

—In Dauphin county as elsewhere throughout Central Pennsylvania the Republican workers are looking after important details of registration so that all may be in readiness for the September primary.

—The Johnstown Tribune takes a couple of columns to congratulate its contemporary, the Johnstown Democrat, sharply criticizing the holding responsible President Wilson for the mixup over the Peace Treaty.

—Many former Democrats are openly declaring their purpose this year to enroll as Republicans. They feel that the time has come to return to the Democratic party and get away from one-man dictatorship in this country.

Workers in the various building trades in Paterson, N. J., have been successful in their fight for increased wages.

OH, MAN!

WILL YOU LADIES EXCUSE US - WE'RE JUST GOING IN THE PARK TO SHOW HANK SOMETHING - JUST FOR A MINUTE

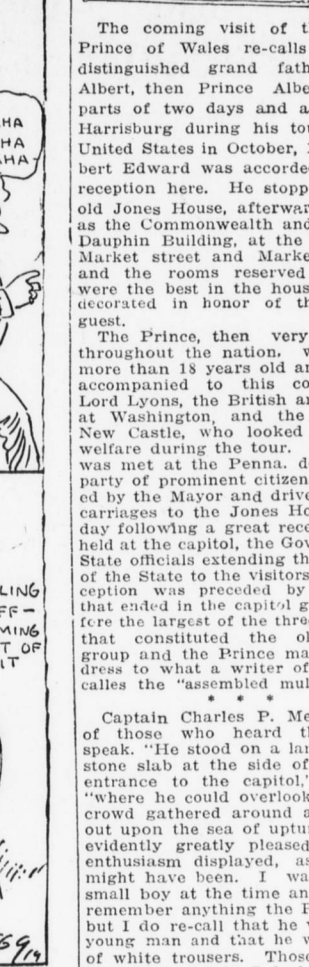

WELL - HI TILLY HI - TIE -

WHAT'S THE JOKE HANK? HOW 'BOUT ANOTHER?

By BRIGGS

He Can Be Punished

[From the New York Herald.]

There is ample sanction for the trial of the fugitive Kaiser notwithstanding assertions to the contrary. In the face of facts it is difficult to see how any candid person, especially any American whose memory goes back to the sinking of the Lusitania and the deed done in Belgium and France, can for a moment entertain other views.

Napoleon an Editor

[New York Times]

It is some times forgotten that Napoleon was an assiduous journalist, and that he long attempted to manufacture and guide public opinion. In the journal of the Royal United Service Institution Major Compton reviews and studies Napoleon's connection with the press.

Russia Deserted

[New York Times]

So Kolchak, without ammunition, food, or other supplies, and with a patriotic mob which he cannot discipline, is being driven to the sea.

Tree Tributes at the Memorial

[From Washington (D. C.) Star.]

It is proposed to surround the Lincoln Memorial, now approaching completion, with trees in memory of the sons of America who lost their lives during the Great War.

No Wonder Germany Quit

NUMBER FORTY-THREE.

"The camps immediately behind the trenches in France were queer combinations of shacks and buildings," said Major Frank Mahony of the Army Recruiting Station, 325 Market street, Harrisburg.

—The President wants the Treaty ratified without a single change. But he also wants to get the ratification through. Whether he would agree to having reservations made if he could not secure his ratification otherwise here is not known.

—The President wants the Treaty ratified without a single change. But he also wants to get the ratification through. Whether he would agree to having reservations made if he could not secure his ratification otherwise here is not known.

THE REMEDY

Hang the high cost of living On the sour apple tree,

Hang the high cost of living On the old persimmon tree. Leave it shrivel up to nothing As it shriveled you and me;

Hang the high cost of living In the Legislator's nose, In Washington, D. C. Where the Profiteering grows; Sure, the President himself May take a snif.

"Ratification With Reservations"

[From the Literary Digest]

THE CONVICTION of a large number of editors that the Treaty and Covenant will eventually be ratified with "amendments" or "reservations" has been greatly strengthened by the messages from Republican leaders calling for "ratification with reservations."

—The President wants the Treaty ratified without a single change. But he also wants to get the ratification through. Whether he would agree to having reservations made if he could not secure his ratification otherwise here is not known.

—The President wants the Treaty ratified without a single change. But he also wants to get the ratification through. Whether he would agree to having reservations made if he could not secure his ratification otherwise here is not known.

THE REMEDY

Hang the high cost of living On the sour apple tree,

Hang the high cost of living On the old persimmon tree. Leave it shrivel up to nothing As it shriveled you and me;

Hang the high cost of living In the Legislator's nose, In Washington, D. C. Where the Profiteering grows; Sure, the President himself May take a snif.

He Can Be Punished

[From the New York Herald.]

There is ample sanction for the trial of the fugitive Kaiser notwithstanding assertions to the contrary. In the face of facts it is difficult to see how any candid person, especially any American whose memory goes back to the sinking of the Lusitania and the deed done in Belgium and France, can for a moment entertain other views.

Napoleon an Editor

[New York Times]

It is some times forgotten that Napoleon was an assiduous journalist, and that he long attempted to manufacture and guide public opinion. In the journal of the Royal United Service Institution Major Compton reviews and studies Napoleon's connection with the press.

Russia Deserted

[New York Times]

So Kolchak, without ammunition, food, or other supplies, and with a patriotic mob which he cannot discipline, is being driven to the sea.

Tree Tributes at the Memorial

[From Washington (D. C.) Star.]

It is proposed to surround the Lincoln Memorial, now approaching completion, with trees in memory of the sons of America who lost their lives during the Great War.