

MORNING BRIDAL IN MIDDLETOWN

Miss Irene Churchman Marries Alvin Hamman, Prominent in Civic Life.

Miss Irene Louise Churchman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Churchman, of Middletown, and Alvin S. Hamman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hammon, Sr., also of Middletown, were united in marriage by the Rev. James B. Cunningham, pastor of the Ann Street M. E. Church, Middletown, in the church parsonage this morning at 6 o'clock.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a smart navy blue traveling suit with hat to match. Only the immediate members of the family were present.

Mrs. Hamman is a graduate of the Middletown high school, 1912, and the West Chester Normal school in 1914. She taught two years in the public schools of Royalton, giving up her work there to accept a position in the Middletown public schools where she has taught for the past two years.

Mr. Hamman is a graduate of the Royalton high school, class of 1906, and has been a newspaper man ever since, having become a member of the Middletown Journal's staff, the Patriot, Star Independent and is at present a member of the Evening News editorial staff.

Following an extended trip, Mr. and Mrs. Hamman will reside at 110 North Second street, this city.

Young Folks Entertain For Lt. Robert Sheffer

A merry party of young people arranged a farewell picnic at Boiling Springs Tuesday in compliment to Lieutenant Robert E. Sheffer, of 1613 Green street, Lieutenant Sheffer recently returned after overseas service and left yesterday for Schenectady, N. Y., to take a former position.

Those on the outing were: The Misses Sara McCormick, Emily Martin, Helen Bare, Rosanna Sheffer, the Misses Margaret and Kathryn Kochenour, Mrs. Mary Klackey, Mrs. Jesse Bernheisel, Messrs. Lieutenant Sheffer, Wayne Markley, James Reese, Jesse Bernheisel, Mr. Heckman and Mr. Coover from Carlisle and the Rev. Kenneth Otten, of Wilmington, N. C.

The young folks had as their guests six wounded soldiers from the Carlisle hospital.

TAKING THE LAKE TRIP. Attorney Fred C. Miller, of North Second street, is taking a pleasure trip over the Great Lakes, including stops in Montreal, Thousand Islands and Quebec, Detroit, Michigan, Portland, Maine, Boston, and points in Connecticut will be included in the journey.

Mrs. Helen Frantz left today for a visit with friends in Hampton, Va. Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Bowman and their son, David Bowman, Third and Maclay streets, went to Atlantic City today for an outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brady, of Muench street, are home after a trip to Atlantic City.

Wedding Flowers Plant Decorations THE BERRYHILL Locust Street at Second

For Your Family Golden Roast Blend Coffee R. H. Lyon Coffee Purveyor to the Penn-Harris, Harrisburg, Pa.

Every Married Man Should Help With The Washing Works SET HER FREE Neidig Bros., Ltd. 21 S. SECOND ST.

Mid-Year Optical Sale THESE PRICES MEAN SAVINGS RUBIN & RUBIN Harrisburg's Leading Eyesight Specialists 320 Market St. Open Wed. and Sat. Eves. Established 15 Years.

Lane's SMART APPAREL SIX SOUTH FOURTH STREET An opportunity that comes but once in a great while. 100 Georgette Blouses at $4.49

INTERESTING PERSONAL NEWS

THE BOLTZ-DARE NOON WEDDING

Young Couple Journeying Over Great Lakes on Honeymoon

A pretty wedding was solemnized today at noon, when Miss J. Rachael Dare, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Dare, 1855 Regina street, and Ammon L. Boltz, of Lebanon, were united in marriage at the home of the bride, the Rev. Dr. J. A. Lyter, of the Derry Street United Brethren Church officiating.

The wedding ceremony was held at 12 o'clock, and was witnessed by a large number of friends. The bride wore a gown of white crepe and satin and a picture hat of white. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses.

Miss Anna Bender, the maid of honor, was attractive in a frock of white crepe de chine with touches of pink and blue, and a large, Leghorn, picture hat. Her arm bouquet was of pink snapdragons.

The bridesmaid, Miss Neva Nichols, of Glasgow, wore a dainty pink organdie with hat to harmonize, and carried a shower of pink snapdragons.

The bride is a graduate of the Music Department, of Lebanon Valley College, class of 1917, and for the past two years has taught piano in this city. She also organized a violin club and conducted the meetings.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Annullie High School and of Lebanon Valley College, class of '17 and is professor of chemistry and biology in the High School at Roselle Park, N. J.

For the wedding trip through the Great Lakes, Cleveland and other points of interest in the west, Mrs. Boltz chose a suit of silver-gray Baronet satin with small hat of silver and turquoise blue. After September 1, the young couple will reside at Roselle Park, N. J.

Miss Haupt Marries Emory Reed Sourbeer

A pretty August wedding was that of Miss Eleanor Izora Haupt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Haupt, Bellefonte, to Emory Reed Sourbeer, last evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. E. A. Latham, 1817 Chestnut street, the Rev. Dr. Clayton Albert Snicker, officiating.

The bride was gowned in gray tulle and Princess lace. Her only attendant was Miss Naomi Adams of Bellefonte. The best man was Gilbert Haupt, a brother of the bride living in Bellefonte. The reception followed the wedding service at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Latham 1817 Chestnut street, at which Mr. and Mrs. Sourbeer left for an extensive honeymoon trip. After September 15 they will be at home at 181 South 17th street to their numerous friends and acquaintances. The young couple received many handsome and useful gifts.

HERE FROM N. Y.

Miss Reba Miller, 21 North Thirtieth street, entertained a number of friends last evening, who motored here from New York city. The party included George Hill, Russell Wolfe and Marshall Dixon.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Carpenter, of Geneva, N. Y., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Carpenter, of 2124 North Third street, on their honeymoon.

Miss M. Eliza Bair, Miss Katharine V. Bierbower, Miss Miriam M. Taylor and Miss Alva Toomey spent Tuesday evening at Williams Grove with the guests of Miss May Shesley.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Crabbe and family have returned to their home, 1921 Whitehall street, after closing their summer cottage at Williams Grove.

Miss Sara Cooper, of Camp Hill, has returned from Hartford, Conn., where she was a bridesmaid at the wedding of Miss Grace Post and Randolph Eddy.

Weakley Family Reunion at Boiling Springs Park

The Weakley Family Association held its annual reunion yesterday at Boiling Springs Park. A memorial service was held for Mrs. Martha Weakley Craighead, whose death occurred last week.

The following officers were elected for next year: Mr. J. Warren Peffer, president; Miss Esther E. Weakley, secretary; J. King Weakley, treasurer, and Miss Helen Harmon, historian.

Those present for the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. J. Warren Peffer, Mr. Earl R. Hertzler, Mrs. Frank Weakley, Miss Tillie J. Huston, Miss Mildred Huston, Miss Sara Weakley, Miss Jean Weakley, Miss Grace Weakley, Samuel L. Huston, W. H. Peffer, Milton A. Embick, of Carlisle; Mr. and Mrs. Percy Harman, Miss Janet Harman and Miss Helen Harmon, of Mt. Holly Springs; Mrs. James H. Mackey, Miss Margaret Mackey and Miss Helen Harmon, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. J. King Weakley, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Maixel, Miss Esther E. Weakley, Robert Weakley Peffer, Robert Bruce Peffer, and William K. Weakley, of Boiling Springs; Mrs. Margaret Dunlap, of Newville; Harrison Weakley, of Shippensburg; Mrs. E. J. W. Hench, Mrs. Charles Craighead, Mrs. Abby Baker, Miss Mary L. Hench and Charles C. Craighead of this city.

RETURNING FROM CAMP. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Balsey, of Altoona, former Harrisburgers, motored to this city Tuesday from the Juniata Fishing Club cottage, where they had spent the week.

The bride is a graduate of the Music Department, of Lebanon Valley College, class of 1917, and for the past two years has taught piano in this city. She also organized a violin club and conducted the meetings.

AT FAMILY REUNION. W. H. Cobough, a passenger engineer of the Philadelphia division, has returned to the city after a delightful trip to Atlantic City, New Jersey, and Philadelphia. He attended the Cobough family reunion at Willow Grove Park arranged in honor of his sister, Miss Mayme Cobough, of St. Louis, Mo.

Miss Bessie Lutz, Miss Minnie Lutz and Miss Marjorie Lutz, of 328 South Fourteenth street, have returned home after a stay at the seashore, visiting Atlantic City and nearby resorts.

Miss Ida M. Probasco, of Trenton, N. J., will come next week for a visit with Miss Edna Dietrich, 2030 Briggs street.

Miss Helena Richards and her sister, Miss Bertha M. Richards, are visiting relatives in Market street.

Owen Deane went home to Brooklyn today on a short stay among relatives in town.

Carl M. Kennedy and Lester B. Kennedy, of Buffalo, are spending a week with friends in this vicinity.

Mrs. James Rockman, of New York city is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Mary Bell Rankin, of State street.

Mrs. Frank F. Brannan and children, Helen, Virginia and Paul, have returned to their home in Wilmington, Del., after visiting Mrs. Jack Seafraus.

Mr. and Mrs. James Grace and son, James Edward Grace, 1013 North Third street, are at Kenneth Square, attending the funeral of Mr. Grace's cousin.

Mr. and Mrs. David Snoke, 309 Hamilton street, have returned after a two weeks' visit with relatives at Orrstown, bringing with them their daughter, Miss Catharine Snoke, who spent her vacation there.

Naomi Seafraus, 229 Boas street, is visiting with relatives in Wilmington, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lutz and family, of Hepler street, are leaving for Quebec, Canada, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Drake, former Harrisburgers, now settled there.

COUNTRY OUTING IS MUCH ENJOYED

Members of Derry Street U. B. Church Are Guests of the Starrys at Cottage

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace G. Starry entertained the members of the Ladies' Bible Class of the Derry Street United Brethren Church at their summer cottage, "Waldheim," Dauphin, Miss Ruth Starry conveying the guests to and from this city, by automobile, throughout the day.

The day was spent with boating, bathing, games and music. A large number of group photographs were taken and Mrs. T. B. Kines entertained the party with a vocal solo, Miss Lauretta Gotschall gave several instrumental selections.

Mrs. G. K. Kines and Mrs. Harry Balfour won the quilt contest, Ralph Gotschall and Theodore Starry were in charge of the swimming events, and Miss Mary Starry and Miss Fannie Layman supervised the canoeing. The main feature of the event was a chicken corn soup dinner, served by a committee comprising Mrs. Robert Drake, Mrs. Harry Arnold, Mrs. Wallace Starry, Mrs. Charles Crawford, and Mrs. Charles Spangler.

Among the Guests. The specially invited guests were Harry Haynes, Wallace Starry, T. P. Kines, Shuman Black, the Rev. Dr. J. A. Lyter, of this city, the Rev. G. L. Schaffer, of Dauphin, Pa.

Class officers are Mrs. E. H. Seidle, president; Mrs. J. A. Lyter, teacher, and Mrs. T. B. Kines, treasurer.

The following persons enjoyed the day's outing. The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Lyter, Mrs. O. K. Kines, Mrs. J. P. Kines, Mrs. E. H. Seidle, Mrs. Harry Haynes, Mrs. Charles Spangler, Mrs. Edward Sterling, Mrs. Elmer Shesley, Mrs. W. R. Peffer, Mrs. W. G. Starry, Mrs. Catherine Rupp, Mrs. Robert Drake, Mrs. Milton Gotschall, Mrs. Harry Arnold, Mrs. Harry Balfour, Mrs. Edward Minnich, Mrs. Charles Crawford, Miss Fannie Layman, Miss Mary Starry, Miss Loretta Gotschall, Ralph Gotschall, Miss Mary Crawford, Kenneth Black Kines, Miss Dorothy Balfour, Miss Anna Starry, Theodore Starry, Miss Ruth Starry, Henry Haynes, Wallace Starry, T. P. Kines, Shuman Black and the Rev. Mr. Schaffer.

Miss Dorothy Whitaker entertained at her home, 1701 North Second street, for Miss Florence Markward, who will soon leave for her home in Springfield, Ohio.

Miss Sarah B. Rochman, of 612 Cumberland street, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. Zeigler, at their cottage in Williams Grove.

Dr. A. S. Koser is home after a brief stay in camp at Beaver, Pa.

Miss Martha Trace, industrial secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at Germantown, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Emma S. Trace, 227 State street.

Mrs. Carroll Price of The Donaldson is home after a pleasant visit among old friends in Wellsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Spicer of Emerald street and the Misses Mary and Katharine Spoford of 1919 North Second street are home after an automobile trip to Atlantic City where they spent several days.

Mrs. John Barr McAllister and Mrs. William Hain are guests of Mrs. A. Wilson Norris at her Bellefonte home.

Mrs. J. W. Johnson and Miss Grace Johnson 1427 Berryhill street will leave to-morrow for Guilford, Conn. Returning they will visit in New York and Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Melly and Miss Louise Melly 130 Locust street, left today for a two weeks' stay in Atlantic City.

Warren S. Taylor, of Shade Gap, in the Cumberland Valley, a former instructor of the Harrisburg Academy, is in the city for a few days.

Tractor Demonstration Was Very Successful

The officials in charge of the Pennsylvania tractor demonstration, held Tuesday and yesterday at Bonnymead farms, have declared themselves as being more than satisfied with the results of the exhibition.

In spite of the bad weather yesterday, there was a fairly big crowd in the afternoon, and although no plowing could be done, the crowd repaired to the tents where talks were given on the workings of the various types of machines.

Announcement was made that the next big tractor demonstration will take place at Butler on August 21 and 22.

HOMESICK BOY STOLE AUTO TO GET HOME

Charged with stealing the automobile of Dr. S. F. Hassler, City Commissioner, on Tuesday evening, Watson Taber, of Buffalo Beach, Va., was brought to this city by Motorcycle Officer George Fretow from Hagerstown, Md., where he was arrested yesterday. He was homesick and chose this method of getting home. Taber is alleged to have told police. He says he is about 15 years old.

OUT OF THE MARINES

Charles Francis Comings, of Philadelphia, was a recent guest of his father, Charles B. Comings, 14 North Fourth street. He has received an honorable discharge from the United States Marine Corps, having served five years. From a private he was made corporal, then sergeant, then gunnery sergeant, then second lieutenant, and last of all, first lieutenant. He has an excellent Army record, with fine letters from his superior officers.

TELLS OF WRECK OFF PERU'S COAST

Mrs. E. A. Custer, of Philadelphia, in a recent letter to her sister-in-law, Mrs. George M. Whitney, 1605 North Second street, describes a shipwreck off the coast of Peru during May, when the passengers were transferred from their sinking vessel to another which was transporting a circus.

Mrs. Custer with Major Custer and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Hayes, were passengers on the Santa Louisa when it struck a sandbar. She describes the shock of the collision and the ensuing scenes when all the cargo was dumped into the sea. Later they were taken off and transported to the Montara, which was carrying a circus. The animals got loose and a regular riot resulted, with passengers crowding to the bridge, while the crew fought off the animals.

Announcement was made that the next big tractor demonstration will take place at Butler on August 21 and 22.

Dinner Thursday Eve., Aug. 14 Stouffer's Restaurant 4 N. Court St. 5 to 7.30

DAY AND NIGHT SCHOOL Shorthand, Typewriting, Bookkeeping, Accounting, English, Penmanship, Arithmetic, Spelling, Etc. Strickly Individual Promotion Register Now Day and Night Sessions Open Aug: 25 & Sept: 1

WITMER, BAIR & WITMER WALNUT NEAR SECOND "Real" Bargains For Friday Balance of our Summer Merchandise at prices averaging one-half and one-third of original price--read items carefully, it will save you time and money All Sales Final--None Charged, Laid Away or Exchanged

Always Fresh Roasted COFFEE PEANUTS 40c, 45c, 50c lb. JUMBO PEANUTS ...25c per lb. IMPERIAL TEA CO., 213 Chestnut Street

THE VALUE OF EYE GLASSES R. D. PRATT Eyesight Specialist 26 N. THIRD ST. Over Schleimer's Store.

STORK NEWS Drops are not Necessary Some of the medical profession "se drops" in their examinations of the eye. Scientific progress has demonstrated that it is not necessary to use toxics, atropia, etc.—which are rank poisons. Optometry has put such methods in the discard. There is not one case in hundreds that requires medical treatment. A thorough examination by a competent optometrist will insure the most satisfactory results—without inconvenience to the patients.

Mary Elizabeth Shop 109 N. Second St. Drops are not Necessary Some of the medical profession "se drops" in their examinations of the eye. Scientific progress has demonstrated that it is not necessary to use toxics, atropia, etc.—which are rank poisons. Optometry has put such methods in the discard. There is not one case in hundreds that requires medical treatment. A thorough examination by a competent optometrist will insure the most satisfactory results—without inconvenience to the patients.