JUNIOR LEAGUE GOSSIP

East End, this season's champions, is one of the fastest junior teams in the State. With the two famous batteries, "Louie" Karmatz and "Chess" Strine, East End was easy winners in the City Junior League. Only eight defeats were chalked up.

To-night Swatara will meet the champions in an independent game. These two teams rosen to be having the best battles and to-night's game should be hot. Karmatz will hurl for the champs and McLinn for Swatara.

MRS. SAUERS IS CITY CHAMPION

Retains Title by Defeating Largest Crowd of Season Sees Miss Mildred Sheesley in Challenge Match

Mrs. Chris Sauers, 1719 State street, retains the city tennis cham-pionship for women. In a challenge match yesterday, Mrs. Sauers defeated Miss Mildred Sheesley, of Paxtang, 6-2 and 6-3. The match was interesting. The winner, however was never in danger of losing. Her experience and splendid tennis form was in evidence throughout the play. Miss Sheesley played well Tennis Tournament Match Charles Fager yesterday defeated Charles Fager yesterday defeated

A. S. Black in two straight sets,
6-2, 6-0. It was a sensational match.
Fager two years ago won the finals in the men's singles, but lost to William McCreath in the city championship match.
In a mixed doubles match yesterday, George Beard and Miss Marion Black defeated Charles Dasher and Margaret Pollock in sets 6-4, 5-7 and 6-1.

The winner, how ever was never in danger of losing. Here experience and splendid tennis form was in evidence throughout the play. Miss Sheesley played well at times, but was a trifle nervous. It was the second time Mrs. Sauers has defeated Miss Sheesley. It was a great day in the Greater Harrisburg Tennis Tournament. The match was played at Reservoir Park.

Mrs. Sauers won the first five games playing almost perfectly. Miss Sheesley showed brilliant work at periods. It was the general be-

Mrs. Sauers' superior generalship

Mrs. Sauers' superior generalship ounted. At no time did she appear nuch concerned about the ultimate utcome, though apparently some-chat surprised at her challenger's lashes of brilliant work.

The second set was much a repetition of the first, with the exception that Miss Sheesley seemed more at ease and played a surer game than at the outset. The final result, however, was little in doubt after the nitial set.

initial set.

This is the second time that Miss Sheesley and Mrs. Sauers have met in the challenge round. Owing to war conditions, no city tournament was run off last season, but two years ago Miss Sheesley also won the ladies' singles and opposed the champion in the challenge round. Two years ago Mrs. Sauers won from Miss Sheesley by scores of 6-1 and 6-2, and the year before that she took two straight sets from Miss Ruth Starry by scores of 6-3 and 6-3. This is the fifth time that Mrs. Sauers has wone her right to the Standing of the Clubs. Sauers has wone her right to the title of city champion in ladies'
