COLORED CHAMPS WIN OVER KLEIN

Chocolate Boys Fail to Show Come-Back Form; Play Again Today

"Johnny" Brackenridge with his Klein Chocolate Company team, struck a snag yesterday in their winning stride. The Bacharach Giants of Atlantic City won a close score 2 to 1. Walter Harned was unable to pull himself together for his usual come-back finish, and his teammates were also lacking in willow.

The Giants are a fast bunch and if yesterday's work was a sample of what they have been doing there is no further argument to the claim that they are the champion colored team of the United States. No team has played in this city that has shown speed near like the old Cuban Giants until the Bacharach got busy yesterday.

Two innings passed without any scoring. In the third the Giants got busy.

Lloyd Scores Run Lloyd walked and went from first to home on a two-bagger by Taylor. Bacharach got his other in in the fourth, when Evans got a base through an error by Cranston, reached second and third and crossed the plate and scored on a passed ball.

Klein scored a run in the sixth inning. Trout walked and was sacrificed to second by Evans. He went to third on a passed ball and scored on a hit by Hunter.

Klein hitters were able to connect with the ball but four times and of those hits "Duck" Kaufman made two. Reading, the Bacharach moundsman pitched a great game.

At one period of the game, Push, the colored nine's right fielder, robbed Klein of a run when he made a beautiful catch of a hit that was labeled for four bases. The score:

High Cost of Shoes Is Blamed on Brokers and Shortage of Hides

Boston, Aug. 19.—Speculation in hides by a group of New York brokers, has tended to enhance the market price materially, yesterday, to a witness who testified yesterday at the Grand Jury investigation of the high cost of shoes.

District Attorney Pelletier questioned James H. Stone, editor of the New England Shoe Retailer; James F. McElwain, of W. H. McElwain & Company, shoe manufacturer; Charles H. Jones, a shoe manufacturer; and J. W. Smith, manager of the Tanners' Council.

Witnesses agreed, the District Attorney said, that the packers did not control the price of hides, but they believed them an important factor in the market.

RAIN INTERFERES WITH BIG GAMES

Contests This Evening Are Important; Close Race in the West End League

Something near a real storm broke at a wrong time last evening and put a crimp in tonight's baseball games. Fans were willing to take a chance with a few drops but when the lightning flashed and the water came down in torrents it was all off for them.

West End Must Win West End must win four games and in the event that the leaders drop three and Motive Power win six, the race would be tied up. West End has a chance to clinch the flag by winning three games. There are more games to play. Whatever the result may be, one thing is certain, the game yet to be played on the West End will be worth seeing.

Games This Evening Reading was kept from a game with Speese A. C. last evening and Taylor, 1b., will play this evening on the Hill League field.

Another big game scheduled this evening is that one at Hummelstown between the Fire Company and the club of that place and Rosewood Club, of Harrisburg. Watson is scheduled to pitch for Hummelstown.

All Rosewood players are ordered to report on the Hummelstown diamond at 6 o'clock in order to start the game promptly at 6:30. The following Rosewood players will go to Hummelstown: Kirby, Challenger, Bender, Hoerner, Emmanuel, Geary, Kettle, Hinkle, Fortna, Thompson and "Ike" Schriver, manager.

PORT ROYAL HAS STRONG AGGREGATION; BRING INTEREST TO DAUPHIN-PERRY CIRCUIT

Port Royal has made a good start in the Dauphin-Perry after dropping from the Millin Junction League, because of alleged in justices. The team at the time of its withdrawal, was just a half game from first place, and has played a consistent game of ball since joining the lower end circuit.

A number of former Dauphin-Perry players are with the Junata aggregation. Hertzler, outfielder, was at one time with Duncannon as a pitcher. Melvin Frankhouse, pitcher and third baseman, covered the same position with both Dun cannon and Newport, formerly of Halifax. J. Groninger, pitcher and infielder, performed like duties several seasons with Newport, while Second Baseman "Ike" McCord, well-known in Harrisburg athlete, covered the keystone sack in a number of games for Duncannon.

In the above picture, reading from right to left, the players are: Back row: Slesher, center field; M. Frankhouse, third base; Troutman, pitcher; S. S. Beaver, manager; Bailor, catcher; Hertzler, right field; McCord, second base. Front row: Riden, shortstop; S. Groninger, left field; H. Groninger, first base.

ASKS QUICK FRAUD PROBE

Plumb Urges Congressional Investigation of Railroad Looting Charges

Washington, Aug. 19.—Immediate investigation of their charges that the Morgan, Gould and Rockefeller interests, controlling more than 254,000 miles of railroads in the country, "have perpetrated fraud after fraud upon the public, looted the vast railroad systems of the nation" and seek further by legislation to resume expropriation of the public by high transportation rates, is the latest demand of the railroad brotherhoods supporting the Plumb plan for joint railroad control by government, operatives and public.

This spur to quick action is made in a communication sent by Glenn E. Plumb, counsel for the Organized Railway Employees of America, today to Representative Esch, chairman of the House interstate and foreign commerce committee, following a report that the committee will ask the Interstate Commerce Commission if it can practically conduct an investigation of railroad financing requested by the brotherhoods.

Mr. Plumb doesn't doubt the ability of the Interstate Commerce Commission to accomplish the large and important task fairly and thoroughly but he does believe that if that body undertakes the labor it should start at once and should submit a report of the investigation before Congress acts. In his letter, Mr. Plumb calls attention to the warning uttered by A. B. Garretson, in which he said it is largely within the power of Congress to allay the unrest which is taxing to the utmost the energies of labor leaders to restrain.

Jap Officers Do Not Believe Their Country Is Eager For Shantung

Cincinnati O., Aug. 19.—Captain M. Z. Kamiuski and Captain M. Hirni, army officers, both of Tokyo, on a month's tour of the United States, gathering data on the manufacture of machine tools and automobile and airplane motors, arrived in Cincinnati and will remain until Wednesday when they leave for Atlanta, Ga.

Captain Kamiuski, who was in engagements along the eastern front in Russia during the World War, said in speaking of the Shantung peninsula clause of the Peace Treaty: "I do not believe that Japan will insist on holding Shantung, nor do I believe it should be considered as a serious question. Japan does not want this stretch of land, for it is inhabited by Chinese who speak another language and whose civilization is still in the making."

"For Japan to gain anything through the holding of Shantung would mean that we the Japanese must educate the Chinese in that district to modern customs and ways while we need all the time and financial assistance in promoting industries in our own nation."
