The Rev. Henry Cunningham Praises Spirit of People and Progressiveness of Town

reason to be a happy people, "said the Rev. Henry Cunningham to-day, on his departure for Morristown, N. J., where he will spend his summer vacation, after preaching in the Covenant Presbyterian Church, Mr. Cunningham spent 7 years in Harrisburg, as assistant pastor of Pines Street Presbyterian Church, going from here to Wilmington, Del., from which charge he resigned to enter the naval Y. M. C. A. service for the war, being now pastor of the Langhorne Presbyterian Church.

"Long aljence from Harrisburg has not weaned me away from my love of the city and its people," he said to-day." I never knew more kindly folks. The people are well-dressed and prosperous looking and their hearts are in the right place. And the city grows in beauty and interest with every visit. Your city life is characterized by a bright and interest with every visit. Your city life is characterized by a bright and progressive spirit, the streets are clean and in good repair, the policemen are in fine uniforms and appear to be on the job and I note progressis in the business life of town.

"The Penn-Harris hotel is a big step forward and there appears to be a fine co-operative spirit among the people. The larger cities have nothing on your merchants here and your stores are bright and attractive. And Harrisburg stands in the forefront for church and Sunday

The leader of the bandits, he said, had worked on a railroad in Kansas and lost a hand and foot in an accident there.

The messages were sent to the border by messengers Sunday. Peterson immediately sent a message to his father at Hutchinson, Minn, saying "feeling fine. Had wonderful experience."

Davis also sent a similar message to his parents at Strathmore, Cal.

Father Is Overjoyed When He Gets Word of Release of His Son

By Associated Press.

Hutchinson. Minn., Aug. 19.

Samuel G. Peterson, father of Lieutenant H. G. Peterson, was overjoyed when informed early to-day of the safe return of his son across the border to the American side.

"I consider that the army acted promptly and did everything in their power to help us." he said. "The raising of the $15,000 ransom by the cowboys in Texas was an example of true Americanism of which the cowboys in Texas was an example of true Americanism of which I am proud. Their action may have saved the life of my boy and his comrade. Certainly now that the Mexican rebels have captured and held for ransom officers of the United States Army, the government cannot let bandit acts pass unnoticed. The capture of United States Army officers by bandits surely strikes at the heart of the government."

Mexico Sends Out Word That Relations With U. S. Are Tranquil

By Associated Press.

Buenos Aires, Monday, Aug. 18.—
The Mexican legation here to-day made public telegrams from the Foreign Office in Mexico City, saying that "relations between Mexico and the United States remain tranquil. Exaggerated press reports to the contrary are false."

The telegrams detail the steps taken by the Mexican Government to protect foreigners and explain the necessity for foreigners congregating in popular centers. The Mexican charge d'affaires declares Federal troops already have annihilated "such bandits as Zapata, Blanquet and Inez Davila" and now are engaging Villa forces. The legation also made public a note similar to the Mexican reply to Washington referring to crimes in most cultured nations.

Denies English Desires Protectorate For Persia ACROSS PACIFIC

London, Aug. 19 .- Nothing in the nature of a protectorate over Persia is contemplated by the agreement between Great Britain and that country, Cecil B. Harmsworth, Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, told the House of Commons yesterday in replying to Washington, Aug. 19.—An American naval officer will be the first aviator to fly across the Pacific ocean, if plans being worked out by the Navy Department mature successfully. Commander Reed, who made the first flight across the Atlantic, is slated to head the Pacific expedition. The flight will be from San Francisco, via Manila to the mainland of Asia, more than 7,500 miles.

Tentative plans call for a flight in four legs.

The first leg will be San Francisco to Honolulu, 2,089 miles; second, Honolulu to Midway Island, 1,100 miles; third, Midway Island to Guam, 2,000 miles; fourth, Guam to Manila, 2,500 miles; fourth, Guam to Manila, 2,500 miles.

The plans are being perfected in the utmost secrecy, but it is known, however, that larger and more powerful naval airplanes than hitherto employed are being constructed especially for the Pacific flight.

The same general plan will be followed as in crossing the Atlantic. Vessels will be stationed at intervals to render any needed assistance to the aviators.
