of Trip Through Russia

Lieutenant Paul W. Gerdes, ordnance Corps, U. S. A., writes interestingly to his mother of a trip through Russia as a guard on a train of Red Cross supplies. His mother, Mrs. B. J. Gerdes, 120 Sylvan Terrace, received the letter a few days ago.

The leter is dated Omsk, July 1, and speaks of a twenty-three-day trip from Vladivostock to that city.
Enroute Lieutenant Gerdes passed through Ekaterinburg, the city where the Czar and royal family were murdered. This city is also the place where one can get the beauliplace where one can get the beautiful Ural stones and the lieutenant expressed the hope that he would be able to obtain some before com-

be able to obtain some before coming home.

His description of the pitiful condition in which the millions of refugees from the Bolsheviki are living is most interesting, and he fails to see how they can get through the winter without fearful suffering. The work of the Red Cross is strongly commended in this letter. Cross is this letter.
