ASSELL—Died, August 21, 1919. Samuel B. Cassell in his 72d year. Funeral services will be held from his late residence, 36 North Curtin St. Penbrook, Pa., on Monday aft- ernoon at 1.30 p. m. at the house and 2 p. m. in the Penbook Chuch of God Bethel. Interment in the East Harisburg cemetery. Friends and relatives are invited to attend with- out further notice.	OPPORTUNITIES for A large number of inexperi- enced men. Ages 18 to 45.	WANTED FIRST CLASS PATTERN MAKERS IN A NEW AND UP-	FINDING A POSITION is some- times a most disheartening task. Just to rely upon friends, or upon going about and making personal applica- tions, often lead to utter discourage- ment. The quick road to a position is through the classified. Sometimes this road requires more than one day to travel—but it leads inevitably to the desired goal if followed.		16th St. 800 block north, 8-room brick and stucco house; all imp.; gar- age.
