

DAY'S NEWS IN CITIES AND TOWNS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA

AIRPLANE FALLS WITH FLIERS IN LEBANON FIELD

Aviators Mistake Seifert Farm For Arnold Airport and Crash to Earth

Lebanon, Aug. 21.—Major M. L. King, of the United States Aviation Service, and a mechanic, who accompanied him, luckily escaped with their lives and a few minor injuries yesterday when an attempt was made to land from too low an altitude. The accident took place about 150 feet away from the Kimmerling church road, north of Weavertown, on the Seifert farm.

SUNBURY'S SILK WORKERS STRIKE TYING UP PLANT

Employees Walk Out When Thirty Are Discharged in Converting Works

Sunbury, Aug. 21.—The action of the Sunbury silk company in discharging thirty employees of the converting works, a department of its mills, resulted in a strike yesterday morning that completely tied up that section of the plant.

Herewith is given a photograph of Lewistown's auto hose trucks, together with men who fight fires in the busy town along the main line of the Pennsylvania railroad west of Harrisburg. Lewistown has kept step in the march of improvement along with other Central Pennsylvania towns and is especially proud of its fire department. Yesterday the Chamber of Commerce visited Harrisburg and other places in this section in order to advertise the Mifflin county seat.

READING PASSES MARKET BILL TO CUT LIVING COST

In Spite of Protests, Council Quickly Enacts Law to Protect Consumer

Reading, Pa., Aug. 21.—In spite of the storm of protest raised against it by grocers, farmers and food dealers at a public hearing, council, by a unanimous vote and without a single word of comment, yesterday adopted Councilman Hunter's market bill.

Business Man Stricken and in Chicago Hospital

Carlisle, Pa., Aug. 21.—W. L. Jackson, last of the Manganese Steel Department of the Frog, Switch and Manufacturing Company, left here last Friday for Chicago Heights, Ill., to bring his family home.

ARMY AVIATORS FILM SITE OF FAMOUS BATTLE

Fliers Do Stunts and Take Views of Gettysburg's Historic Ground

Gettysburg, Pa., Aug. 21.—Gettysburg was given its first exhibition of flying by Lieutenant M. S. Boggs and Sergeant A. E. Mator, two aviators who were here with the Government plane that is a part of the trans-continental train now on its way to the coast.

ANNOUNCE BIRTH OF SON

Shrewstown, Pa., Aug. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Howry, of Railroad street, are being congratulated on the arrival of a boy, William Edward Howry, on Monday, August 11. Mrs. Howry was Miss Kathryn Miller, of Enola, before her marriage.

BOATMEN ARE TO HOLD BIG PICNIC

Will Gather in Annual Outing at Rolling Green on Saturday, August 30

Liverpool, Aug. 21.—The annual reunion of Pennsylvania canal boatmen will be held Saturday, August 30, at Rolling Green Park, near Sunbury. The regular business meeting will be held in the morning, the association president, Reese Bortel, of Newport, presiding.

FIRST PAYMENT MADE FOR PARK

Mechanicsburg Pays $6,000 as Initial Installment Toward Memorial Tract

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Aug. 21.—The first installment toward the purchase of Memorial Park was paid H. S. Gross owner of the tract. The sum paid Mr. Gross was $6,000. The balance is to be paid February 1, 1920.

STORM DAMAGES TOBACCO York Haven, Pa., Aug. 21.—Tobacco in the northern part of York county was damaged by severe electrical storms, accompanied by hail. While reports show heavy rainfall throughout the county, the hail affected only the territory north of Zion's View and taking in Mount Wolf, Manchester and this place.

Cambria Brewing Co. Heads Held For Court

Johnstown, Pa., Aug. 21.—Three of the five officials of the Cambria Brewing Company, who were arrested charged with violating the wartime prohibition law, were released on $1,000 bail each by United States Commissioner R. Patton Smith.

Arrested at Door of Johnstown Pawn Shop

Altoona, Aug. 21.—Willard Burkett, a former resident of Bedford, who came here several weeks ago and secured lodging with Simon F. Price, was arrested in Johnstown yesterday on the charge of stealing a diamond ring, valued at $225, the property of Mrs. Price.

WINS HIGH POST IN STATE ORDER

Philadelphian Chosen Grand Inner Guard at Lancaster Convention

Lancaster, Pa., Aug. 21.—The most coveted State office in all Pythian Knighthood was won by C. W. T. Robinson, of Philadelphia, when, after several ballots he was elected grand inner guard at the first business meeting of the convention.

Chaplain Rentz Home From France, Visits His Family

Carlisle, Aug. 21.—Chaplain G. S. Rentz, who was in France with the 11th Cavalry, is spending two weeks' leave with his family in Carlisle. While in France, Chaplain Rentz was stationed at the headquarters of the 11th Cavalry, where he served as Protestant chaplain for the group of camps in the Arrondissement of Tours, comprising at one time about 20,000 men.

Mixture With Kick Is Sold at Mechanicsburg

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Aug. 21.—A number of persons, in an intoxicated condition were seen in the streets here on Tuesday afternoon. A report has gained credence here that intoxicants are being sold. One report has it that a mixture is being made of grain alcohol and other ingredients that gives a pleasant taste, but is intoxicating. It is certain the mixture was not purchased at any of the hotels as the landlords confine themselves to "near beer" and soft drinks.

Advertisement for Shell's Schleisner Stores. It features a large illustration of a woman in a fashionable blouse, with text describing the store's location at 28-30-32 North Third Street and advertising an extraordinary display and sale of high class blouses for all occasions on Friday and Saturday.

Body of Babe Found Along Penny Tracks

Altoona, Aug. 21.—The body of a baby, thinly clad, was found last night along the main line of the Pennsylvania at the GY tower, at Twenty-fourth street. It was turned over to Coroner Chester C. Rothrock.

State Police Turn on Four Who Heckle Them

Carlisle, Aug. 21.—Two State policemen, Joseph Boldosser and Henry C. Hagerty, came to town on Tuesday evening, and, after transacting their business, spent a portion of their time here with two young ladies, with whom they walked down High street.

Chaplain Rentz Home From France, Visits His Family

Carlisle, Aug. 21.—Chaplain G. S. Rentz, who was in France with the 11th Cavalry, is spending two weeks' leave with his family in Carlisle. While in France, Chaplain Rentz was stationed at the headquarters of the 11th Cavalry, where he served as Protestant chaplain for the group of camps in the Arrondissement of Tours, comprising at one time about 20,000 men.

United Brethren Minister Is Dead at Keller, Va.

Hagerstown, Md., Aug. 21.—The Rev. George W. Kirafofe, formerly of this city and a well known United Brethren minister of the valley, died yesterday at Keller, Va., following an illness of a year and an operation resulting in the loss of one of his legs. He was seventy-one years old and one of eight brothers, six of whom were ministers.

Liverpool Pays State Share For Better Street

Liverpool, Aug. 21.—The State Highway Department will give Liverpool its first improved street. At a special meeting of the town council the borough paid to the State $2,000, as its share of the cost. The State will improve an 18-foot strip through the borough along Front street. Work will begin in a few weeks and will give employment to a number of Liverpool men.

Advertisement for Dr. Wernet's SURE Powder. It features a large illustration of a woman's face and text describing the product as a sure cure for false teeth, available at Schleisner's stores.

Milton A. Clendenin Dies in Philadelphia

Chambersburg, Pa., Aug. 21.—Milton A. Clendenin, of Philadelphia, formerly of Chambersburg, died suddenly at his home yesterday morning according to word received here by relatives and friends. Mr. Clendenin had long been engaged in the book store and stationary business here. About 29 years ago he removed to Philadelphia where he had since been engaged in business. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. John M. McDowell, of town, and two brothers, Calvin of Mechanicsburg, and John W., of Kansas. Burial will be made at Silver Springs, near Mechanicsburg.

Mt. Olivet Camp of 1919 Has Closed For the Season

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Aug. 21.—The camp meeting at Mt. Olivet has closed. The weather in general was ideal for camp life, but the rain of the last few days affected the attendance. The sixty-two cottages have all been occupied. Some of the cottagers have gone home and others soon will follow. A special feature of the camp was the demobilization of Mount Olivet service flag. There were 23 young men and one young lady from camp in the service, nearly all of them in France. There were two sold stars on the flag.

Boiling Springs Citizen Dies of Cancer at Home

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Aug. 21.—E. D. Merrim died at his home at Boiling Springs on Tuesday afternoon. He was 59 years old. The cause of death was cancer. He was a member of the Modern Woodmen and the United Order of American Mechanics of Boiling Springs. He is survived by a wife and stepson, and these brothers, Samuel, of Hagerstown, Md.; David, Harrisburg, and Raymond, Reading. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the house. Burial in Mt. Zion cemetery near Churchtown.

Bolt Kills Cows, Hits Barn and Strikes Tree

Chambersburg, Pa., Aug. 21.—Lightning played a number of pranks in and about Maple Grove, near here, during a severe storm. It killed three fine cows belonging to Charles Palmer, shattered the end of a barn owned by Frank Sellers and struck a large tree under which twenty cows belonging to the same owner were standing. The animals, however, all escaped injury.

EAT

With False Teeth? SURE Dr. Wernet's Powder. Keeps them firm. Prevents sore gums. White. Flavored. Antiseptic. If your dental plate is loose and drops, get instant relief, use Dr. Wernet's Powder for false teeth. You can eat, laugh, talk with ease. Guaranteed by Wernet Dental Mfg. Co., 116 Beekman St., N. Y. 25c, 50c, & $1.00. At Drug and Department Stores. Refuse all others. This is the original powder.

Bacon Leads in Sales

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Aug. 21.—Yesterday the sale of Government food amounted to $150, about half the amount sold on Monday. Today is the last day when goods will be sold. Among the articles sold, the bacon took the lead.

Congressman's Daughter Starts on Trip to Orient

Lancaster, Aug. 21.—Congressman W. W. Grist left here yesterday morning for California with his daughter, Miss Rebecca Grist, who is to sail next week for China. Miss Grist has been preparing for some time past to enter one of the Chinese missions as a teacher. She expects to remain in the Orient for two years.

Wins at Swatting Flies

Gettysburg, Pa., Aug. 21.—Wilbur Steiner won the first prize in the fly swatting contest, having swatted seven pints of the "peaky little critters." In addition to the prize of $5 offered by the Parent-Teachers' Association, he received 10 cents a pint.

Advertisement for Post Toasties cereal. It features a large illustration of a smiling boy and text describing the product as 'The Big Idea in Corn Flakes' and 'is Post Toasties'. It also includes the slogan 'Tender and sweet and ready-to-eat'.

Little Lines From Nearby

Lewistown—The Gill family reunion will be held on the Hambright farm near McVeytown on Saturday, August 30. York Haven—Russell Green, of Harrisburg, is here to spend his vacation with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Green. Shippenburg—Mrs. Rebecca Horst died at her home in Pinola, aged 77 years. She was a member of the Rowe Mennonite Church. York Haven—Daniel Cassel, representative from York Haven, died at his home in Pinola, aged 77 years. Columbus—in Holy Trinity Catholic church, Miss Mary T. Link became the bride of Joseph V. Weiser. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. P. G. Breugeman. Sunbury—Prof. E. C. M. Eilenberger, former superintendent of the Sunbury schools, has accepted a similar position near Palm Beach, Florida, at a salary of $2,000 a year. Sunbury—Troop 22 of the Boy Scouts, which held no meetings since early in July, held a special meeting last night and on Friday night will resume regular meetings. Sunbury—Frank Albert Scott, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Northumberland and retired railroad, died at the home of his step-daughter, Mrs. John Ferick.

Advertisement for Beckley's Business College. It features text describing the school's offerings, including 'DAY AND NIGHT SCHOOL' for shorthand, typewriting, bookkeeping, accounting, English, penmanship, arithmetic, and spelling. It also mentions 'Strictly Individual Promotion' and 'Register Now Day and Night Sessions Open Aug. 25 & Sept. 1'. The address is 121 Market St. (Opp. Senate) and a catalog is available free.

Advertisement for Washable Blouses and Georgette Blouses. It features a grid of prices for various blouse styles: Washable Blouses for $1.49, $3.95, and $5.95; and Georgette Blouses for $6.75, $8.95, and $12.95. The text describes the blouses as being made of fine materials and available in various colors and styles.