CITY IS LINING UP SOLIDLY IN FAVOR OF DAYLIGHT LAW

Boroughs Join With Harrisburg to Get Hour of Sunshine For Next Summer; Many Cities Are Lining Up

TELEGRAPH IS PRINTING PETITIONS FOR WORKMEN

The campaign to have Harrisburg turn its clocks ahead an hour next summer and save daylight despite the protests of farmers who were successful in having Congress repeal the popular measure, to-day was reported as having gained more supporters in less time than any other civic enterprise has attained in recent years.

Virtually the only opposition recorded to-day was from men and women over 60 years old who admittedly oppose the measure because it interferes with time-honored custom.

Want Petition The majority of the letters, however, were requests for petitions to circulate in shops, factories and places of business.

Whatever opposition had developed among businessmen practically was wiped out to-day with dispatches from New York saying that the New York stock exchange will observe the new hours when the board of aldermen pass the New York resolution.

With the C. of C. Members Pleased and banks of New York observing the new hours it means that business in other cities might be seriously disrupted if the smaller municipalities did not follow.

No Inconvenience to Result "Even if Harrisburg and New York stood alone," said one prominent businessman, "no inconvenience would result to local business houses."

The text of the petition follows: "We, the undersigned, do hereby heartily endorse the Harrisburg Telegraph's movement for the continuation of the daylight-saving system in Harrisburg, and we earnestly petition the members of City Council and the Mayor to take such action as will give us next year the extra hour of daylight which we have so much enjoyed the past two years and which has been such a boon to people in general, giving us a time for healthful recreation and amusement which we cannot have in any other way."

65 BRICKLAYERS QUIT WHEN PAY BOOST IS DENIED

Refusal of Steelton Plant to Meet Demand Is Followed by Strike

WANT .20 AN HOUR MORE Workmen Claim Outside Jobs Are Plentiful at Higher Rate

As a result of a refusal on the part of the officials of the Steelton plant of the Bethlehem Steel Company to grant the bricklayers an increase of 20 cents an hour, about sixty-five of them this morning secured their tools and drew their pay.

When asked what they intended doing the reply was that bricklayers outside were drawing eighty-five cents per hour, and as there was a demand for them they would have no difficulty in securing other positions. At any rate, they said, they would not wait for the officials to come to a decision, so they were "just quitting."

VOTERS TO PASS ON $490,000 IN LOANS IN FALL

New Bridge, Paving, Bathing Beaches and Sewers Will Cost Large Sum

Ordinances authorizing a vote in November on four loans totaling $490,000, were passed finally by Council to-day. The Commissioners held the weekly meeting one day earlier than usual so that they could be present to-morrow at the opening of the convention of the League of Third Class Cities in Allentown.

One of the loans, for $300,000, was approved in 1915, the money being intended to pay for a bridge in Walnut street crossing the Pennsylvania railroad lines. This money was never borrowed, and with the State planning to erect a soldiers' and sailors' memorial bridge, in [Continued on Page 9.]
