

SEIZURE OF EGYPT SCORED AS ROBBERY

Great Britain's Legal Position Branded as That of Highwayman by Folk

Washington, Aug. 25.—L'kening Great Britain's legal position in Egypt to that of a highwayman, Joseph W. Folk, counsel for the Egyptian Peace Delegation, told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today that the Versailles Treaty proposed to validate the "robbery" of Egyptian independence.

Having occupied Egypt after construction of the Suez canal under the pretext of protecting the Egyptians from rebels, he said, Great Britain in 1914 "seized the Egyptian government and now proposed under the Treaty to reduce her to a subject nation. The Treaty, he said, would make Egypt's grievance against Great Britain an internal question so that it could not be dealt with by the League of Nations.

"The people of Egypt," he declared, "want a League of Nations which will protect their independence and not destroy it. They ask you not to deny them that self-determination for which more than a million Egyptians fought in the war just ended."

Occupation Temporary

The delegation sent to Paris conference by the Egyptian representative assembly, Mr. Folk said, were held in virtual imprisonment and were not permitted to send a representative to the United States. He declared the protectorate claimed by Great Britain over Egypt was "the same sort of protectorate that a highwayman would claim over your pocket book."

Great Britain had repeatedly pledged he said, that her occupation of Egypt would be temporary and he asked that a clause be written into the Treaty giving Egypt the right to appeal to the league council. Republican members of the committee suggested, however, that the League was to be controlled by the same powers as made the Treaty, and that Great Britain's rights in Egypt already had been recognized formally by the American State Department.

Referring to the outbreaks against British rule in Egypt, he said, Great Britain had "suppressed" the news of what was taking place and did not want the United States especially to learn the facts if it could be helped.

CHINAMEN URGE SHANTUNG TO BE RESTORED THEM

Gather in New York to Protest Its Award to Japan

New York, Aug. 25.—Congress was urged to ratify the recommendations of the United States Senate committee on foreign relations restoring the province of Shantung to China, "its rightful owner," in a resolution adopted to-day at an open air meeting in Chinatown yesterday of 1,000 Chinese. Chinamen from Philadelphia, Newark and other cities congregated with their New York brethren to protest against the award of Shantung to Japan.

The meeting was preceded by a procession led by the Chinatown Boy Scout band and headed by Dr. Charles Sur, Chinese consul general here, and Lee To, president of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce. Prominent members of Chinese Tong and of the China Society of America were among the marchers.

The action of the Senate Committee, Dr. Sur declared, was the forerunner of a lasting friendship between the people of the United States and the people of his native land. The American people, he added, would "to a man" favor the award to China of the province "stolen by the Germans and passed over to a foreign power."

One Kipona Prize

Here's a photograph of the big silver loving cup that will be awarded the owner of the best decorated boat in the illuminated float parade during Kipona, on Labor Day.

This big trophy was secured by Chairman W. R. Lutz, of the committee in charge of this event, and will be displayed in a Market street window this week. It stands fourteen inches high and will be suitably engraved with the winner's name.

The cup will be contested for annually until it has been won three times by one man, when it will become his personal property.

GERMAN PLOTS IN MEXICO ARE REVEALED TO U.S.

Included Invasion of America Same Time of Last European Drive

New York, Aug. 25.—Revelation of extensive German plots in Mexico during the war, which included a proposed invasion of the United States by a German-Mexican army of 45,000 men, at the same time that the Germans launched their drive on the western front in July, 1918, was made here by the National Association for the Protection of American Rights in Mexico, which gave out a statement by Dr. P. B. Altendorf, formerly of the United States Military Intelligence Department, reciting his experience as an American secret service agent in that country.

Dr. Altendorf, the son of a Polish banker in Cracow, Austria Poland, abandoned a medical course in the University of Vienna at the outbreak of the war and fled to Mexico, where he was offered a position as a German spy to operate against the United States by Kurt Jahnke, head of the German secret service in Mexico.

With pretended reluctance, but with secret joy I accepted," he said, "and at once found myself in a position to render valuable service to the Allies in general and to the United States in particular. He held in bail ranking from $5,000 for a $35-a-week teler to $500 for a millionaire former congressman and banking commissioner.

It is the fact of the insignificant $500 bail which leads those interested in the investigation to believe that one of the four new arrests will be in reality a re-arrest, and that a second warrant, on a new charge, will be served on Daniel F. Lefean, former banking commissioner, of Philadelphia, Pa., as soon as he sets foot in Philadelphia.

Arrests May Follow Reported Burning of 4,000 Live Chickens

Philadelphia, Aug. 25.—Evidence regarding the reported burning of 4,000 live chickens at a West Philadelphia cold storage and packing plant one week ago will be placed before William T. Phillips, secretary of the Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals by agents of the society who have been investigating the report.

The complaint alleging the burning of live chickens to boost prices was made to the S. P. C. A. by George S. Lichtfoot, a member of the Stationary Firemen and Oilers' Union, with offices in the Parkway Building.

"This ambitious scheme," he says, "was financed by Von Eckhardt (German Ambassador to Mexico) and was undertaken with the cooperation of Carranza."

More Arrests Are Due For Complicity in Smash of Philadelphia Bank

Philadelphia, Aug. 25.—The coming week, the sixth since the failure of the North Penn Bank, will be marked by the issuance of three or four more warrants for persons charged with implication in the two-and-a-half-million-dollar looting by the district attorney.

Notice of the new arrests to be made was given yesterday by Assistant District Attorney James Gay Gordon, Jr., who, with Assistant District Attorney Joseph H. Taulane, is probing the case for the Commonwealth. At his home in Westtown, where he had gone to rest Sunday, Mr. Gordon refused to divulge the names of those to be arrested. Seven arrests already have been made, the defendants being held in bail ranging from $5,000 for a $35-a-week teler to $500 for a millionaire former congressman and banking commissioner.

It is the fact of the insignificant $500 bail which leads those interested in the investigation to believe that one of the four new arrests will be in reality a re-arrest, and that a second warrant, on a new charge, will be served on Daniel F. Lefean, former banking commissioner, of Philadelphia, Pa., as soon as he sets foot in Philadelphia.

Perfect Health Is Yours If the Blood Is Kept Pure

Almost Every Human Ailment Is Due to Blood Impurities

You cannot overestimate the importance of keeping the blood free of impurities. When you realize that the heart is constantly pumping this vital fluid to all parts of the body, you can easily see that any impurity in the blood will cause serious complications.

Any slight disorder or impurity that creeps into the blood is a source of danger, for every vital organ of the body depends upon the blood supply to properly perform its functions.

Many painful and dangerous diseases are the direct result of a bad condition of the blood. Among the most serious are Rheumatism, with its torturing pains; Catarrh, often a forerunner of dread consumption; Eczema, Tetter, Erysipelas and other disfiguring skin diseases; Malaria, which makes the strongest men helpless, and many other diseases are the direct result of impure blood.

You can in a large measure avoid liability to disease, by the use of S. S. S., the wonderful blood remedy that has been in constant use for more than fifty years. S. S. S. cleanses the blood thoroughly. It is sold by druggists everywhere.

Man Found Along Road Is Brought to Hospital

Found along a road near the Bonnymead Farms yesterday in a semiconscious condition, Joseph Linary, of Peipher's Lane, was brought to the Harrisburg Hospital by a passing automobilist.

Suffering with severe head lacerations, Linary appears to be in a dazed condition. He is unable to give any details of the accident, but it is believed that he was struck by an automobile.

FUND ORGANIZER QUILTS HIS POST

Allen Resigns From the State Workmen's Insurance to Establish Business

Albert L. Allen, who organized the State Workmen's Insurance Fund four years ago, and contributed materially to its growth and its success, to-day sent his resignation as assistant manager to State Treasurer Harmon M. Kephart, chairman of the Workmen's Insurance Fund Board. Mr. Allen will enter the insurance business himself, feeling that it affords a larger field for his experience and knowledge of liability insurance.

Tells of Fund's Growth

Mr. Allen's letter of resignation gives an interesting history regarding the growth of the fund from an idea and an act to a business with a premium income of millions. It is as follows:

"I hereby tender my resignation as assistant manager of the State Workmen's Insurance Fund to take effect September 15, 1919.

"Having served almost an exact four years in this position during the period of organization and development of the State Workmen's Insurance Fund, I have attained the maximum of possibility that has been reached so far as my personal opportunity in State employment is concerned. I am entering the open business field for the purpose of obtaining an improved opportunity.

"It is with feelings of both regret and satisfaction that I relinquish my connection with the State Fund to enter in a private capacity the compensation insurance field of Pennsylvania.

"The severance of the associations built up during my four years in the service of the Commonwealth naturally is attended by feelings of regret. However, this feeling is somewhat offset by my satisfaction in having participated in the development of the State Workmen's Insurance Fund from a mere name to a compensation insurance institution having an annual premium income of approximately $2,500,000, having a surplus of over $1,500,000, having returned to policyholders each year substantial dividends and standing today as a safe and secure compensation insurance medium with the confidence of the public.

"It is my desire to express at this time to the members of the State Workmen's Insurance Board my sincere appreciation of their friendly attitude and co-operation which has always been accorded me."

Determined Struggle on in Japan Between Military and Reactionary Forces

Tokio, Thursday, Aug. 21.—A quiet, but determined, struggle now is under way in Japan between the military and reactionary forces of the empire and the liberals over the general question of China. The bureaucrats insist that Japan should retain all the special preferential rights she has hitherto gained in China, and oppose concessions urged by groups which seek to calm world opinion concerning Japan's alleged aggressiveness.

The diplomatic advisory council met yesterday and discussed the Shantung and Consortium questions. According to the newspapers several members criticised the foreign office for undertaking to abandon an exclusive Japanese settlement of the Shantung matter without consulting the council, which is supposed to advise the government in such matters.
