COAL-

And Next Winter

Iis human to incline to the Arkansas doctrine, "when it rains you can't fix the roof; when it shines you don't need to
In summer we don't need coal, so we rarely worry about the winter to come. But we do worry
Nearly every winter we hear the same reports of inadequate production, of storms that halt transportation, of storms that halt traffic, etc.
Nearly every winter finds us beseeching someone to do something about it. The railroads should be rebuked, mines should be corrected, coal dealers should be investigated. We run around in circles, investigating, examining, full of chills and ague and "flu" and measles and pneumonia.
But there is another winter coming. And it will be as full of plague as any other winter. It will be as cold and miserable and as fraught with ills if we are to be without the means of balking them. The wise virgins filled their lamps. The wise householder will fill his coal bins NOW.

If you wish to buy coal next winter under
