

SPROUL WILL ENTER FIGHT TO LOWER PRICES

On Return From Convention Governor Announces He Has Well-Defined Ideas

GOING TO WASHINGTON Will Take Up Living Cost Problem; Maurer's Troubles Surprise Him

Philadelphia, Aug. 28.—Governor Sproul returned home to-day from the west coast, he declared, to enter the fight against the high cost of living. He spent the day going over a mass of official correspondence that had accumulated and will leave to-night for Washington. There he will confer with President Wilson, Attorney General Palmer and the governors of several States on the living cost problem.

"I have certain well defined ideas about ways and means of reducing living costs," the Governor said, "but at this time I do not want to discuss them. I want to talk them over in Washington first."

Maurer Trouble Surprise Governor Sproul brought back as his guest the Governor of Arizona, J. E. Campbell. Together they will journey to Washington, where they will join five other Governors in the attack upon advancing prices. The Governor said he was surprised to learn that the State Department at Washington had revoked the passports of James H. Maurer and Abraham Epstein.

"I intend to make inquiry and try to straighten out the situation," he said. "Pennsylvania is interested in Maurer's mission abroad his trip was authorized by the State. I cannot see any reason why the Government interfered unless it was on account of Maurer's affiliations with the Socialists and kindred organizations. This might be the stumbling block."

"People who know Maurer best realize he is not a dangerous radical," the Governor added.

U.S. DRY UNTIL RATIFICATION OF PEACE TREATY

Sale of Liquors Will Not Be Permitted Until Formal Proclamation

Washington, Aug. 28.—The statement was made by Attorney General Palmer that the nation will remain under war-time prohibition until the Treaty of Peace is ratified and peace formally proclaimed by the President, no matter what may be the status of demobilization prior to final action on the Treaty by the Senate.

The "wets" who had hoped that the war-time prohibition ban would be lifted at an early date, he said, might just as well give up hope unless the Senate ratifies the Treaty. That it was possible that under such circumstances war-time prohibition would remain in force until January next, when the amendment to the Federal Constitution will make the nation bone-dry, was admitted by Mr. Palmer.

He must depend upon small margins for a profit and with the unsettled conditions now prevailing he finds the situation most difficult. Let me illustrate by a few quotations: 'Kellogg's Corn Flakes cost 11 1/2c and retail for 14c and 15c; Cream of Wheat costs 21c, retails 25c; Mother's Oats cost 11c, retails 12c to 15c; 12 pounds of Hoffer's flour costs 86c, retails 95c; lard costs 37 1/2c and 38c and sells at 40c'.
