

CHARRED BODY OF NEGRO FOUND IN CHURCH RUINS

Three Other Negro Churches and a Lodge Are Burned

Eastman, Ga., Aug. 29.—The charred body of Ell Cooper, a negro, was found yesterday in the ashes of a negro church, which was burned by incendiaries early in the morning. Three other negro churches and a negro lodge in this section were burned Tuesday night. The acts of violence followed reports that the negroes planned to rise up and "wipe out the white people," and that Cooper remarked the negroes had been "run over for fifty years, but this will all change in thirty days." The only explanation for the burning of the churches and lodge rooms was that these were said to have been the scenes of mass meetings recently during which the uprising of negroes was discussed. Hundreds of copies of a Chicago negro newspaper were said to have been distributed at these meetings. Cooper was taken from his home Wednesday night, according to his wife, by a crowd of about twenty white men. The negro was taken several miles by the mob and it is presumed that he was shot by the crowd and his body thrown into the burning church. The church was discovered in flames at 1 o'clock in the morning and residents of the neighborhood were aroused by shooting.

LABOR UNIONS IN FRANCE PUT END TO STRIKE

Attitude Is Swung by Big Gain in the Membership

Paris, Aug. 29.—The recent collapse of the movement for a general strike is explained in some quarters by the saying that, while the extremists were getting control of the Socialist party, they were losing their hold on the labor unions, which, 300,000 strong before the war, now have a membership of more than 1,500,000. The 300,000 were well in hand, it is said, but the 1,200,000 have brought with them a certain independence of thought and action. The consequence is that the vast majority of union men are not ready to accept such radical measures as a general political strike.

HOPED NOT
A popular singer received a song from a lady amateur song writer, which she played over to her husband. "Good heavens!" she exclaimed, when she had finished, "what does she call it?"
"I wonder if He'll Miss Me," was the reply.
"Well," was the comment, "if he does he ought never to be trusted with a gun again."—Dallas News.

Scientific Discussions by Garrett P. Serviss

Is there a new, i. e., hitherto unknown, form of matter? The assertion that there is seems no more probable, no more contrary to human experience than the other extraordinary assertion, frequently ventured nowadays, viz., that there is a fourth dimension of space.

Some very surprising things have been coming out lately about the alleged "new" form of matter. Its most startling peculiarity — if we accept the claim that it exists at all — is that it seems to be formed out of the visible and weighable substance of the human body, and yet is itself generally invisible and perhaps unweighable, although capable of exerting astonishing force upon ordinary material objects.

In one case, that of the Golighers in Belfast, Ireland, a young woman sitting on a chair supported by the platform of a weighing scale, and not in direct contact with the floor or with any other solid body, was able, according to the testimony of an accredited physicist, Dr. Crawford, connected with the Belfast University, some wonderful feat, that of appearing to support an elbow beneath the table, turning upward until it comes into contact with the under surface of the table, and then exerting an upward force sufficient to lift the table several feet into the air, and maintain it there for a considerable period of time.

Cossacks Capture 13,000 Bolsheviks and Disperse 20,000

London, Aug. 29.—The Cossacks under General Kamontov, who succeeded in breaking through the Red army, captured 13,000 Bolsheviks and dispersed 20,000 mobilized, but unarmed, men.

According to a Bolshevik communication received by wireless in London August 27, the Cossacks broke through the Red army, whose heavy masses closed in behind them, cutting off their communication with the anti-Bolshevik forces. A Red regiment with forty officers deserted to Kamontov who is forming a division made up of former Bolsheviks. He has evacuated Tambov and is proceeding northwest towards Koslov, headquarters of the Bolsheviks in southern front.

General Denikine's advance is continuing rapidly; he is now within ten miles of Kiev and twelve miles from Petrovsk. If a junction occurs, the entire old Bolshevik forces remaining in the pocket, 250 miles deep on a fifty mile width, to the south of Kiev will be cut off.

Poles Advance on Dvinsk
The Bolshevik claim of the capture of Pskov, southwest of Petrovsk, is probably correct. Further to the south the Poles are advancing on Dvinsk, and to the eastward have forced the Bolsheviks back to the Dvina near Polotsk, imperiling their line.

Parts From France With Sorrow, Pershing Says on Eve of His Sailing

Paris, Aug. 29.—"When one has known the generous French people, when one has seen them in the time of rejoicing, one cherishes such respect and friendship for them that one parts from them with real sorrow," said General John J. Pershing, the American commander-in-chief, to a representative of the Journal.

SEEMED REAL HEARTLESS

There were two Browns in the village, both fishermen. One lost his wife, and the other lost his boat at about the same time.

The vicar's wife called, as she supposed, on the widower, but really upon the Brown whose boat had gone down. "I am sorry to hear of your great loss," she said.
