

SULTAN AIDS RELIEF WORK

Makes Available All Grain Stored in Turkish Warehouses

Constantinople, Sept. 2. — All grain stored in Turkish government warehouses, millions of bushels, has been made available for distribution by the American Commission for Relief in the Near East by Mohammed VI, the Sultan of Turkey, following an audience that monarch has just granted to Major David G. Arnold of Providence, R. I., director of the Commission.

The Sultan, according to Major Arnold, expressed his appreciation of the American effort to relieve conditions in Turkey and upon the conclusion of the interview, issued an order to the Grand Vizier to cooperate with the Commission, which now numbers about 450 American workers, aided by several thousand assistants.

The Commission's field of operations covers the entire area of the old Turkish Empire and stations are scattered from Smyrna to Tiflis, in the Caucasus. Major Arnold, who arrived less than two months ago and who has established headquarters here, was formerly of the famous Rainbow Division in France, and before the war saw service with American troops in Mexico. He is an attorney by profession. The personnel of the Commission includes many former army officers.

The work of the Commission involves a monthly expenditure of about $2,500,000. Forty-two thousand tons of supplies, including a large amount of drugs and valuable hospital equipment, have already been put to use. In addition the organization has supervised the distribution of 30,000 tons of flour for the Food Administration. The supplies have been shipped to Turkey direct from America but their delivery into the interior, it is said, has involved every conceivable transport difficulty.

TANLAC BREAKS WORLD'S RECORDS

Four years ago few people had ever heard of Tanlac. To-day it unquestionably has the largest sale of any medicine in the world, and is a household word everywhere. Over 12,000,000 bottles of Tanlac have been sold in this country alone. If laid out end to end they would make a track from Philadelphia to Denver, Col., or stood up would make a column 13,333,333 times higher than the Woolworth Building in New York City, the tallest building in the world.

Tanlac's unprecedented success and rapidly-growing demand is based on merit and merit alone. Thousands of people have testified to the benefits derived from this celebrated tonic, stomach, appetizer and system purifier, in all cases of derangements of the stomach, liver and kidneys. Tanlac is the greatest achievement of modern pharmaceutical science. It is sold by all leading druggists.

Splendid Way To Reduce Your Weight

There is perhaps no one thing that so plainly shows the passing of our youth as the horrible tendency to put on too much weight after we have reached the age of 25 or 30 years. However young our faces may appear, the sagging, lumpy figure and forty inch waist "gives us away."

The cause of this over stoutness is that our stomachs convert the food we eat into fat because there is not enough oxygen in the blood to produce a proper combustion to destroy the excess fatty tissue. Fat people will be pleased to learn of a simple home method that is wonderfully efficient in reducing weight, quickly and easily without a starving diet, violent massage or strenuous exercise. Go to any drug store and get a box of Phynola; take five grains after each meal and at bed time. This treatment will often give quick relief from overburdening fat. Phynola taken at meal time assists the stomach in giving you the benefit of the food you eat; at the same time dissolves the fatty tissue from any part of the body where there is excessive fat. By this method many have reduced their weight a pound a day and there is no flabbiness left. Grogans, the druggist, stores, 16 N. Third St., 3rd and Walnut sts. and Penna. R. R. Station, George's Drug Store, C. Keller's Drug Store can supply you with the genuine Phynola at small cost.

HUN PROPAGANDA BY OLD GROUP

Biereck Again Bursts Forth With Blatant Blasts of What German-Americans Will Do

New York, Sept. 2.—George Sylvester Viereck, probably the most insidious of the Kaiser's propagandists during the war, in an interview here with his old-time audacity declared that an organization is being established to further the interests of Germany.

His aims, he announced, will be "the redemption of the German-Americans' brothers in the old fatherland from the heel of the conqueror," to combat and if possible defeat "the purpose of the Peace Treaty, which is most cruel document in history and the greatest crime of modern times," and "regain by revenge all that is Germany's, including the Saar Valley, German Austria, German Bohemia, German Tyrol, all of Alsace-Lorraine except a small strip of Alsace where French influence predominated, East and West Prussia and the Baltic provinces."

All that is needed to launch the movement and make it more powerful than the old German-American Alliance ever dreamed of being, said Mr. Viereck, is a strong leader. However, Mr. Viereck already has made a choice. He recommends Charles Nagel, formerly Secretary of Commerce and Labor, for the job.

Mr. Viereck further revealed in so many words that the present "charitable" movement among German-Americans to collect money, food and clothing for "the starving brethren and sisters in the homeland" is the camouflaged nucleus of the new propaganda organization.

"If there were a choice between re-electing Woodrow Wilson or any of his clique and electing Eugene V. Debs," he said, "I would vote for Debs. However, I am not enough of a radical to consider Debs an ideal candidate. If I had my way the next President would be either Mayor Thompson, of Chicago, or Senator La Follette, the sturdiest American of them all."

"I was a great admirer and unflinching champion of Mr. Wilson," he continued, "until his abject failure in Paris. He betrayed his own idealism. He transformed the 'fourteen points' into fourteen Judas kisses."

"The Peace Treaty as it now stands is the most cruel document in history and the greatest crime of modern times. The League of Nations is nothing but a farce. Wilson has betrayed the German-Americans. They elected him because he kept us out of war. He not only plunged us into war, but in the League of Nations, he has opened the way to countless other wars. Fortunately, some true Americans in the Senate realize this."

Farmer Is Shot Seven Times When He Refuses to Accompany Officers

Augusta, Ga., Sept. 2.—County Officer Morgan was killed, another officer was slightly wounded and a prosperous farmer named Jones was fatally shot ten miles from here yesterday when the officers attempted to arrest the farmer on whose place they had found a "moonshine" still. Jones denied ownership and when he refused to accompany the officers the shooting began. The farmer was shot seven times, Morgan twice and the third man once.

Gen. Leonard Wood Boomed For President

Chicago, Sept. 2.—It is expected that Major General Leonard Wood's candidacy for the Republican nomination for president will be announced within a few weeks. It is not known whether he will resign his Army command, as he must if he is to be an active candidate, or will continue at the head of the Central Department, with headquarters in Chicago, and permit his friends to carry on his campaign. There is nothing in the Army regulations, it is said, that prevents officers from booming in Army officer for the Presidency. The announcement of the Wood candidacy is expected to come from Washington, although it may be given out in New York City.

Snyder Backs Plan For Paving in Pottsville

Pottsville, Pa., Sept. 2.—Auditor General Snyder is not only busy at work in his task of raising the largest amount of revenue the State ever collected, but he is also giving attention at his home here to the expenditures of the State, growing with great bounds. The new State roads are costing the huge sums and the contract prices are being scanned with great care by Snyder. The Auditor General has thrown the whole weight of his influence at his home here in favor of the consent of the voters to the proposition to borrow half a million dollars for the construction of paved streets in Pottsville, a proposition which has some active opponents.

High Churchmen Will Say Thanksgiving Mass

Baltimore, Sept. 2.—For the first time in this country three cardinals will officiate at the pontifical mass in the Thanksgiving peace service Sunday, September 14, at the Baltimore Cathedral. Cardinal Mercier, of Belgium, then the guest of Cardinal Gibbons, will pontificate; Cardinal Gibbons will preside at the service, and Cardinal O'Connell, of Boston, is expected to preach the sermon. Archbishops and bishops from all parts of the country will be present in honor of the Belgian prelate.

Jury Chosen to Pass on Guilt of Farmer

Greensburg, Pa., Sept. 2.—A jury was selected after eight hours work in the criminal court here yesterday afternoon to try James Crawford, a farmhand, charged with the murder last May of Emma Austraw, aged 19, a schoolteacher of Derry township. The girl disappeared April 23 and several days later her body was discovered on an abandoned farm near Lovahanna Station. Court adjourned after one witness had been placed on the stand. He was not cross-examined, however. Proceedings will continue to-morrow.

Chicago District Shopmen Vote Against Wilson Plan For 4-Cent Wage Raise

Chicago, Sept. 2.—Railroad shopmen of the Chicago district voted against acceptance of the four-cent-an-hour wage increase announced last week by President Wilson and Director General Hines, according to an announcement last night by J. B. Sanders, district secretary. He said the vote completed last night showed ninety-six per cent. of the men opposed to acceptance. The results have been forwarded to the international officers at Washington, he announced.

Work and Save, Chicago Man's Remedy

Chicago, Sept. 2.—Strict economy and increased production are suggested as remedies for the present high cost of living by H. A. N. Daily, president of the National Canned Foods and Dried Fruit Brokers' Association, in a letter to the public. Speaking of the extravagant habits of all classes, he says: "I question whether there ever was a time in this country when there was less real distress and suffering. The only known distress is the inability to satisfy the extravagant tastes and desires of the times. Ask any butcher who are taking the most expensive cuts of beef and ignoring the less expensive ones, and he will almost invariably tell you that the sales are being made to those who should be exercising economy."
