Manager "Budget" Householder's West End team copped the first game of the post-season series for the championship of Harrisburg yesterday afternoon on the Island when "Eddie" Stricker pitched his team to a 6 to 1 victor was a case callison Hill. C. Stricker for the Hill lads, while the losers showed a streak of stage fright at the opening of the contest, and at the close of the first inning, West End had sent three runners over the plate.
A crowd of 3,500 fans from all parts of Harrisburg was on hand to root for their favorites. It was the first time that the two leagues were pitted against each other, a sthe
first at Two Runs Scored.

Stricker is Star
The star of the game was "Eddle" Stricker was just the begin to ters. It was just the begin to ters of it strikens to the first inning be saved Ehling an meror by stopping a high thrown ball to first base. With his bare hand he caucht the throw and retired Knight at first base.

With his out of three times at bat, firthing in the loser's single run.
Possibly the best playing on the Reading team was done by Tom Giblin at first base. This lad his tory winning the Reading blew up in the sixth inning. Bill Euken to Second Base.

The star of the game was fireder the first inning. Bill Euken Gorge Sond fare from West End had a chard

RIVALS MEET IN BARRETT'S SHOW

Johnny Gill to Mix It Up With Frankie McGuire Tomorrow Night

JOHNNY GILL

At Steelton to-morrow night Joe Barret will open the boxing sea-son. For his first bill he has arranged a good program and local fans will find much to interest them in every battle. The big mixup will be between Johnny Gill, of York, recently from overseas, and who boxed for the Twenty-eighth Dito Play Return Game Williamsport. The show will be held at the Olympia A. C., Front and Locust Streets, Steelton. The show held at the olympia A. C., Front and Locust Streets, Steelton. The show held at the olympia A. C., Front and Locust Streets, Steelton. Harrisburg fans will see the Athletics in a second game on Monday afternoon. This contest as was the first one, will be staged at H. A. C. field with the Klein Chocolate Company team battling against the Mack crew. Manager Connie Mack is after revenge. He is still sore over the defeat of his team by the Klein boys several weeks ago. Manager John Brackenridge, of the Klein team, was in Philadelphia yesterday, and completed arrangements. The game will start at 3.45 p. m. Another big crowd is looked for.

Manager Mack said last evening that he wants to show the people of Harrisburg that he has a baseball team, and he with prove it on Monday. Manager Brackenridge with his champions were in the city to-day enroute to Mt. Union and Burnham. They play at Mt. Union to-day.

By Associated Press.
Forest Hills, N. Y., Aug. 2.—East and West clashed in the final of the National lawn tennis championship tournament here to-day when William T. Tilden 2nd, of Philadelphia, and William M. Johnston, of San Francisco, matched their skill on the courts of the West Side Club. In three previous matches this year between the pair, Tilden won twice, while the 1915 champion outplayed his opponent in the final of the national clay court championship. Tilden's victories were in the East vs. West matches at Cincinnati in July, and in the final of the Newport invitation tournament. Cor.
