

PERSHING IS TO BE CHIEF FIGURE IN BIG PARADES

Commander of Armies Expected to Reach Port September 8

Washington, Sept. 2.—General Pershing will head the parades in New York and Washington of the First Division, it was formally announced last night by Major General James W. McAndrew, former chief of staff of the American Expeditionary Forces, who has been detailed by Secretary Baker and General March, chief of staff, to arrange all military matters in connection with the welcome to be accorded the American overseas commander.

General Pershing, who sailed yesterday from Brest on the transport Leviathan, is expected to reach New York on the morning of September 8, General McAndrew said, and will stay in that city three or four days before coming to Washington to report formally to the War Department. After the First Division parade here it is expected General Pershing will visit his old home in Missouri, after which he will return to Washington to present his views as to the permanent military policy of the nation before Congressional committees.

General McAndrew, who now is head of the general staff college here, will go to New York within a few days to complete the military arrangements for the welcome there.

LEAGUE WILL BE GOVERNORS OF AUSTRIANS

Responsibility For War Accented in Treaty to Be Presented Today

Paris, Sept. 2.—The Treaty of Peace will probably be handed the Austrian Delegation late this afternoon, according to indications here this morning.

The Treaty will be accompanied by a covering letter which, according to the forecasters, sets forth Austria's responsibility in aiding to bring about the war, and points out that she could not obtain treatment similar to that accorded Czechoslovakia and Jugoslavia. It is declared to recognize, however, that because of her small extent Austria will need economic and financial help to insure her existence.

As to the political future of Austria, however, it is shown that under the Treaty the League of Nations is to have a very large say. For one thing, the decision whether Austria shall be allowed to join Germany would be left with the League. Of such permission being given, however, there would appear to be little chance, as France is known to be very much against a union as are Switzerland and many other countries.

Not Satisfactory There seems to be a general feeling of dissatisfaction in Peace Conference circles with the Treaty, which was adapted from the German Treaty and does not fit such a small power as Austria. The treaty, however, had agreed to-day on virtually all sections of the Treaty, because there is a general weariness with discussion.

Under the terms of the Treaty Vienna, with its 2,000,000 inhabitants, seems doomed to lapse into comparative commercial insignificance, as there is a population of only 4,000,000 within the country outside of the city to support the capital, while with Jugoslavia, Czechoslovakia and Hungary existing as separate powers Vienna can hardly hope to recover the business formerly drawn from their territory.

WATER COMPANY FACING A FINE

Allegheny County Concern Has Not Supplied Customers, It Is Charged

The Public Service Commission today ordered the officials of the Allegheny Park Water Company, which operates in Allegheny county, to show cause on September 11, in this city, why a fine should not be imposed upon it for alleged failure to furnish water to consumers in compliance with its charter obligations on or before July 1. The order was issued by the chief marshal, Matthew Cullen, with a good staff of aids, had the formation plans in good order, and there was no hitch in the parade.

The parade was held on the Allegheny river front, the big parade moved off promptly at 9.30 o'clock.

cession started promptly, and went over the entire route. The organizations marched well, and many in uniform proved a big attraction. The chief marshal, Matthew Cullen, with a good staff of aids, had the formation plans in good order, and there was no hitch in the parade.

Three judges watched the parade at different points. First, second and third prizes were offered the best float entered by organizations only; the organization making the best appearance and the organization having the most men in line. The latter will not be decided until today, as the awards will be made according to the per capita representation of each organization. This gives the local unions with small membership an opportunity to win. The judges were Wellington G. Jones, of the Harrisburg Telegraph; Emory C. Lutz, of the Patriot-News; and J. Ross Swartz, of the Bricklayers' Union. The awards were as follows:

Prizes Awarded First prize for the best appearing unit in the line of march was awarded to the judges to the delegation representing the International Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, No. 257. While it was generally conceded that those members in the first section of Machinists of Lodge 1070 were deserving of the credit of being the best uniformed and most attractive body in line, the fact that the remainder of the Lodge 1070 members, who marched in other sections, were not attired in other than civilian clothing, eliminated them from taking first prize.

The second prize for appearance was awarded to the Bridge Structural and Ironworkers Union, No. 285, and the third prize was awarded to the Boilermakers Lodge No. 184. The winning delegation's members were attired in uniforms appropriate to their trade, each wearing white overalls, blue shirts and white caps, and the majority carrying flags. The marchers of the Bridge Workers unit appeared in dark blue shirts and white caps, while the Boilermakers were uniformed with white shirts, white caps and dark trousers.

First prize for the best float in line was unanimously granted to the excellent presentation of the International Alliance of Theatrical Works and Stage Hands, No. 98. This float was a large one, the feature being that of Justice weighing Capital and Labor. From the start to the finish of the parade the various organizations were given applause. Thousands of people were lined along the sidewalks all over the entire route. There was a scarcity of usual decorations, but in the western section of the city flags and bunting were in evidence.

Railroad Men in Line One of the attractive features of the parade was the representation of railroad men. Six craft units were in line numbering 1,200. This included the shopmen of No. 1070, who had nearly 700 men, and were marshaled by William B. McNair. The men were dressed in white suits from top to bottom. They had with them a singing crew of 25 who used megaphones. This section included every branch of railroad employees.

Charles G. Sollers commanded 40 soldiers who were overseas. Each soldier carried a flag of one of the nations that fought with the Allied forces. There were clerks, machinists, freight handlers, pipe fitters, boilermakers, steam fitters, a big bunch from Enola, carmen, blacksmiths, electricians and painters. The women car cleaners, wearing attractive white costumes were in line and attracted much attention. They were given applause all over the route. Each woman carried an American flag.

Printers Lead Procession The printers of Harrisburg headed the procession, and made a highly creditable showing. They were marshaled by Frank C. Hoffman. With the "typos" marched Mayor Daniel L. Klester, who is a member of this craft. Procession, stereotypers, bookbinders and other branches of the printing trade were also in line. The men wore white shirts and straw hats. In an automobile were a number of veteran printers. A handsome silk banner was carried by this organization. The carpenters were considered the

Demobilized U. S. Troops Form Brigade For War Service in Lithuania

Paris, Monday, Sept. 1.—An American brigade for service in the Lithuanian Army has been formed, the work being a complete success, according to an announcement made by the military mission of the Lithuanian delegation to the Peace Conference. Enough demobilized American officers to form the staff have applied for commissions and many discharged enlisted men have entered the ranks, it is said. The Lithuanian government is said to be planning to protect the untrained men and is reported to be negotiating with a prominent American insurance company to insure the men along the line followed by the American Army's War Insurance Bureau. The company's Paris office has called headquarters for authority to issue such policies. The American Red Cross has also cabled officials in America for permission to form a medical and welfare unit to serve with the brigade.

Justice John Stewart Compares American Boys to Gideon's Army

Chambersburg, Sept. 2.—In an address at the demobilization of a service flag in the home-coming celebration Justice John Stewart, of the State Supreme Court, said he had no hesitancy in saying there was an actual intervention of Providence in the success of the Allies in the recent war. He said: "Right is right and God is God. If the Allies were right then it was God's war and there could be no doubt as to on which side Divine sympathy would be found. That it was God's war was evidenced by the success achieved and at its very close the planting of the flag of an Ally over the site of the little town of Bethlehem and on Calvary Hill."

Bells Ring and Whistles Shriek Welcome to Prince

Montreal, Sept. 2.—The ringing of church bells and the shrieking of factory whistles greeted the Prince of Wales as his special train arrived here to-day from Ottawa. The Prince will spend a few hours in the city before departing on his western trip.

The day's program included a forty-mile automobile trip through the city and then to Mount Royal where the city government will give a luncheon in his honor. The royal visitor interrupted his automobile tour to pay a short visit to the home of Mederic Martin, mayor of Montreal, and to the Carlier Memorial, which is to be unveiled by him on his return to Ottawa.
