The Hat's the Thing!

*Modeled fine and chiseled neat
From gracious head to dainty feet.
How to clothe her with success
Is just a skillful happiness!
Flowing lines of clever cut
Are all signs of Fashion, BUT
Like a Bubble playing up
From its slender pleasure cup,—
Reigns her hat—a vibrant crown
That crowds all other Beauty down!"*

Announcing the Millinery Opening

Thursday, September 4th and Friday, September 5th

Formal presentation tomorrow of the authentic new style creations—the most fascinating display of millinery we have ever made. The hats are different in many respects from any you have seen heretofore.

The season starts off with a wide variety of rich dark colors—shades of nut brown, mahogany, flame, and many others. Shapes were never so becoming—over the ear hats, of the loose hats—brimless hats that depend entirely upon a novel draping—large, small hats—all with that touch of softness that make them so becoming.

Fully a thousand styles to select from. We will welcome your inspection of these new modes for autumn as interpreted by fashions foremost creators.

Fall Suggests More Cheerful Interior of Home

You have been out among the beautiful foliage and flowers during the summer months and soon these beauties of nature will give way to the more barren effects of winter. The colorful cretonnes, the filmy lace curtains and the rich materials for portieres are like foliage and beautiful flowers and vines to the home. We have a splendid assortment of attractive materials in the new designs that will enhance the beauty of home.

Plain Terry Cloth for portieres; 36 inches wide in rose, blue, green, brown and mulberry; 89c yd.

A wonderful assortment of new cretonnes in beautiful new colors and designs; cretonnes for every purpose; 45c to $1.50 yd.

New curtain materials in Marquisette, voile, scrim and lace nets in plain barred and figured patterns in white, ivory and ecru; 29c to $3.00 yd.

Fall Undergarments For Baby

They must be ready for any early change in temperature, likely to come any day now.

First, they must be comfortable in shape, so reasonable to expect—so important to the baby's health, and yet so rare to find. Our new stocks have been specially selected for this necessary merit.

Then the textures must be fine and soft, to soothe and never vex the tender skin, no ridge, or rough edges. Buttons and button-holes must be right and they are in these garments.

Open wrappers, double-breasted and band wrappers in cotton; merino and silk mixtures.

Wrapper buttoned down front; 35c, 45c, 59c, 65c, 75c, $1.00 to $1.50.

Double breasted shirts; 50c, 59c, 65c, 75c, 85c to $1.85.

Infants' white stockings; cotton, wool and cotton, cashmere, and silk and wool; 29c, 50c, 59c, 75c, 85c.

BOWMAN'S—Second Floor.

The New Separate Skirts For Street, Sport or Dressy Wear

Simplicity is evident in every line of these new models. They are fashioned along slender straight lines and new pockets and belt treatment add to their smartness.

Their distinctive lines are formed with serge, poplins, fantasette, and last, but not least the popular plaids and velour checks. A plaid skirt may go box or side pleated with equal effectiveness if the plaids are of glowing colors subduing the bold designs into a smart ensemble.

Plaids, $15.00 to $29.50
Others, $8.95 to $22.50
