LEADS FIGHTING FOR JOE BARRETT'S OPENING SHOW AT STEELTON

Big Event This Evening on West End Field; May Decide Championship

The third and what may be the final contest for the City Championship, will be played this evening at six o'clock between Reading Railways and West End teams, winners of the Hill and uptown league pennants.

In order to keep in the running, Reading Railways will have to land this contest, West End being the victor in the two first games, and as the championship is for the best out of five, should West End win to-night, the series will end, and West End will then have a chance to battle with the Dauphin-Perry champions.

SOLDIER BOY GILL

In the windup of Joe Barrett's opening boxing show at Steelton last evening, Johnny Gill, of York, had a shade the better of Frankie McGuire, of Williamsport, in six rounds. Gill had the edge on McGuire as far as condition went, and led the fight all the way through.

The show as a whole was rather disappointing. The preliminaries did not last more than a round each. Even matches was the cause of this. As an opener, Joe announced that Young Wagner, of York, would not be present to meet Harry Miller, of Harrisburg, due to the death of Wagner's sister at Columbia. This match was called off.

The second preliminary was brought on after a long wait and only lasted about two minutes. This was between "Kicker" Peck, of Carlisle, and Danny Fortna, of York. Fortna outwitted Peck by at least fifteen pounds, and was a much more experienced man. "Kicker" was knocked down twice in the first minute of fighting and was willing to take more punishment, but "Tim" Peck, the referee, stopped the fight.

The next match was between Harry Miller, of Glen Rock, and Ben Atticks, of Harrisburg. Atticks landed one real, solid one as an opener and Miller failed to revive at the count of ten. These two boys were even in the match, as far as weight went, but Miller never got a start.

In the semiwindup, Young Silar, of York, took the count in the second round when Billy Angelo, the Greek lightweight champion, landed a solid blow on the point of the chin. Angelo proved that he is some scrapper. He is built like a real fighter and carries a punch in both hands. Before the fight he issued a challenge to Sammy Schiff of another lightweight in this section of the country.

Pronator Barrett announced that he has leased the building at the corner of Front and Locust streets, Steelton, and will remodel it into a first class clubroom. The next show will be held in these rooms in about two weeks. It is probable that Johnny Wolcott will be one of the principals in the windup. Barrett is trying to match him with Johnny Gill.

Football Star Return Home After Two Years' Service

Morgantown, Sept. 4.—Clay Hite, of Huntington, W. Va., who starred for three years previous to America's entrance into the war as a halfback on the West Virginia Mountaineer football team and then saw two years service as first lieutenant in the infantry in France, will return to West Virginia and play football for the halfbacks position between Hite and King, who has also played three years, and Benny Lantz, the other star, who has played two years.

A TIME FOR PRAYER A visitor at the capitol was accompanied by his small son. The little boy watched from the gallery when the house came to order. "Why did the minister pray for all those men, pap?" he questioned. "He didn't. He looked 'em over and prayed for the country," was the answer.—Blightly, London.

GALAHAD TEAM TIES DILLSBURG

Local Ball Team Plays Great Game; Black Has Puzzling Curves

The Galahad baseball team and Dillsburg battled to a 4 to 4 tie in seven innings last night on the Dillsburg A. C. diamond. Art Black was on the mound for Galahad and twirled a good game striking out eight batters but costly errors in the second inning enabled them to tie the score.

Two weeks ago Galahad defeated Dillsburg in a slugging match and last night Dillsburg was out for revenge. MacWilliams was the mound selection and it looked as if Galahad was going to come home with the bacon again when they tallied four runs in the second on two singles, two doubles, a hit batsman and base on balls. Dillsburg came back strong in their half of the second and on two singles, a hit batsman and a base on balls and a costly error netting them three runs.

Smith Holds Galahad Smith was then sent in the box for Dillsburg, and he held the Galahad team scoreless the balance of the game. With darkness falling over the field Dillsburg tied the score in their half of the seventh inning when Simmons singled, stole second and came home with the tying tally when the Galahad catcher left the ball away from him.

The game was witnessed by a large crowd of rooters and if cheering would have been nothing to it, for it was a very jolted crowd throughout the game.

Eighteen-Year-Old Is Still Showing Good Speed; Remarkable Performance

One of the most remarkable performances ever made in harness racing occurred recently at the Readville track, near Boston, when Hawkins won an amateur race in 2:15.3. This horse landed one real, solid one as an opener and Miller failed to revive at the count of ten. These two boys were even in the match, as far as weight went, but Miller never got a start.

Chief Bender will be in the world's series. That is certain. Cincinnati will have him in the lineup when the big games start. He is there now and may pitch a game this week. It was probable Bender would be sent in yesterday against Chicago. Bender was never in better form than he is at present.

Many Friends Help Chief Bender has a number of friends in Harrisburg with whom he spends part of the fall hunting season every year. They have been in communication with this star and are backing him to be a big factor in winning the world's championship.

Boston Teams Plan Series For City Championship

Boston, Sept. 4.—Chances of a city series between the Red Sox and the Braves in October are good. Babe Ruth with the chances of big money beckoning to him in the early fall, is the only one of the Red Sox not definitely committed in favor of a city series, and it goes without saying that the Braves are keen to show what they can do against the American League.

MARYSVILLE IS AGAIN CHAMPION

Clinch D-P League Pennant in Victory Over Duncannon Team

STANDING OF TEAMS W. L. Pct Marysville 11 5 .688 Newport 8 8 .529 Port Royal 7 8 .467 Duncannon 5 11 .312

Last Night's Score Marysville, 10 Duncannon, 1. Saturday's Games Marysville at Port Royal 2 games. Marysville clinched the 1919 Dauphin-Perry League gonfalon last evening when she easily won from Duncannon on Rosboro Field, Duncannon, score, 10 to 1, in a postponed game. Marysville has been in the lead since the opening of the season, gaining undisputed possession of the first rung in the league on Memorial Day by winning both ends of a double header. Since then she has never been headed.

The result of last evening's fray was never in doubt. Marysville jumped into the lead at the outset of the game when one run was scored four singles. The other nine runs came in bunches, three being scored in each of the third, seventh and ninth rounds. A total of 20 hits, two in them doubles and one a triple, were pounded out by Marysville clubsmen, 15 of them being secured off Stricker during his 7 innings reign on the mound. The last of the game developed into a farce, when numerous substitutions were made.

Leading Hitters Herman Rutter and Moore led the Marysville contingent at the bat, the sterling first sacker hitting safely four times. Rutter and Moore each secured a trio of hits. Every member of the team had at least one hit. J. Lichtner, Hippensteel, Ellenberger and Stees each securing a brace of safeties.

Only five Marysville batsmen were retired by the opposition in one inning passed without a Marysville hit being recorded. Eleven runners died on base.

Harry Biever, Marysville's star hurler, twirled a high class game, blanking Duncannon until the ninth inning. Then, with two men already retired, Dearolf drove the ball into deep left and scored for Duncannon, unable to locate the pellet. Biever fanned an even dozen of Duncannon batsmen and allowed but five hits.

The Marysville contingent played a strong game throughout. J. Lichtner had a busy day in the center garden, gathering in a half dozen drives, several of them after hard runs. He pitched in center for Duncannon made several nice catches. The lineup and summary:

CRITICISMS BASEBALL LEAGUE Editor, Harrisburg Telegraph.

Sir: I saw an article in your paper that a movement is on to have this city retain daylight saving next summer, despite the action of Congress, in repealing the daylight saving measure. Representatives of the West End and Allison Hill Baseball League propose to have an ordinance introduced in Council to have all clocks turned forward an hour. I cannot see that it is a benefit to the working class, but only a benefit to the cheap baseball sports, who are too cheap to support a first class team, but shoot off hot air about baseball in the daily papers. What we want is an ordinance to benefit the working class, not only the baseball sports. Congress saw the measure was not a benefit to the working class and that is the reason for repealing the measure. I hope the next Congress will see the same as our Congress did. I think it is time for the working class to wake up and take notice and have some say about the affairs of our city and not have a few run the city. So wake up all union men and send a petition to your next Council, asking them not to interfere in what our Congress has done in Washington. Hoping to be workers in our big industrial plants will do the same. For the standard time was good enough for us years ago. Why is it not now.

Dave Fultz Resents Claim of National Commission

New York, Sept. 4.—Denying that the new International League is indebted to the National Commission, David L. Fultz, president of the league, to-night replied to an ultimatum of the commission demanding payment within thirty days of $8,700 alleged to be due, on penalty of withdrawal of protection from "those cities which were represented in the old National League."

West End Will Have Strong Football Team This Season; Former School Stars Play

West End Athletic Club will be in evidence on the Grid again this season. This organization has for several years been prominent with a strong aggregation. It was West End who first put a real independent football team in the field and played opening games with college and preparatory schools in neighboring counties.

The boy in charge this year is E. J. Flickinger and he is certain to pick a good team. Among the candidates who will be with him are a number of scholastic stars. To start off with there are four good boys after and positions. Art Winn, who played one of Central's flanks in 1915, will have for opponents, Heiney, McCain and Flickinger, of last year's team.

Managers of football teams in this vicinity can now schedule games with West End by communicating with E. J. Flickinger, 212 1/2 fourth street, city. He may also be reached by calling, Bell 2434 R.

Five Racing Events on Card at Charter Oak Park Today

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 4.—Five early closing events, with purses totaling $2,000, are on the program of Grand Circuit racing scheduled for Charter Oak Park to-day. The races were called off again yesterday because of rain.

Cincinnati Wins Three in Series With Chicago Team

Chicago, Sept. 4.—Cincinnati made it three out of four from Chicago yesterday by winning the final game of the series here, 6 to 1. Before Alexander got settled in the first inning the league leaders scored four runs. Daubert singled and scored on Roush's drive which Robertson misjudged. It went for a home run. Neale walked, stole second and scored on Kopf's double and Kopf counted on Schreiber's hit. They added two more in the fourth on singles by Ruether and Rath, their double steal and Killefer's wild throw to second and Robertson's wide throw to Deal.
