Carlisle, Pa., Sept. 5.—W. L. Galbraith, tax collector of Penn township, has filed an action against E. G. Tritt, of the same township, to recover $624.30 and interest. The basis of action is alleged errors in the accounts of Tritt, who was a member of the board of supervisors and treasurer of the board. The plaintiff claims he paid road tax collections for the period of 1913-17 to the treasurer from time to time. When the time came to settle Galbraith did not have all of his receipts and checks, but that settlement was made on the basis of a statement furnished by Tritt. Now Galbraith claims he finds he paid $624.30 more to the treasurer than he received credit for.

War Veteran to Hospital

Lewistown. Ps., Sept. 5.—Private Harry Carson, 40 years old, a veteran of the Spanish-American War, has been taken to the State Hospital at Danville, Pa., to-day for treatment. Private Carson was seriously wounded in a battle with the natives on the island of Luzon. When he stooped over to recover hisrifle a native scout struck him on the head with a rifle butt, fracturing his skull. Since that time Carson has submitted to operations in eighteen different hospitals without beneficial results. He has been in the straight jacket as long as 42 hours at a time, placed there at his own request in fear that he might do himself or others bodily harm.

Carson is the father of six children and is allowed a pension of only $50 per month for their support.

EX-CIRCUS STAR

"Al" Walker, 1335 Reno street, Philadelphia, for many years a star acrobat in Barnum & Bailey's circus, tells of a recent discovery which brought him happiness.

"For some time," he began, "I had been feeling mighty miserable. Didn't have an ounce of energy. Even light foods upset my stomach, Gas would form after eating, causing pain and distress. I tried several so-called tonics but continued to feel rocky until I hit upon Tanlac. to feel rocky until I nit upon Tanlac. Tanlac was just what my poor rundown system needed. My appetite has increased, the heaviest meal digests perfectly and I am gaining weight every day. Tanlac sure puts the old 'pep' back in a fellow. I'm mighty glad I found it." Tanlac is sold here by all leading druggists.
