

Pulpit to Voice Welcome to Returned Soldier Boys

New Cumberland, Sept. 5.—Services at Trinity United Brethren Church on Sunday will be in keeping with the Home Coming week.

at 10.30 and 7.30. The vacation season is over and the Junior and Senior Endeavor Societies will meet at the regular time on Sunday.

SUES HARRISBURG DEALER Carlisle, Pa., Sept. 5.—M. J. Mohler, of Mechanicsburg, has filed a motion here against George Grant, a Harrisburg junk dealer. Mohler claims that on July 18, that Grant was operating his truck without proper display of license tags and also that he ran recklessly, a collision occurring on the road near Mechanicsburg in which both machines were damaged.

ATLANTA CLINCHES TITLE New Orleans, La., Sept. 5.—Atlanta, by defeating New Orleans, virtually won the Southern Association championship. The Atlanta club, by a score of 5 to 0, took the second straight game of the series with New Orleans, which club, by reason of the splitting of yesterday's doubleheader between Little Rock and Chattanooga, went into third place. The Southern Association season closes Sunday and Atlanta now leads by seven and a half games.

Well Drillers Strike Vein of Glass Sand

Lewistown, Pa., Sept. 5.—Snyder and Young, who are drilling a well at the Murrill Dairy products building in this place, drilled through a 14-foot vein of pretty white glass sand. There are quite a number of white glass sand mines in the upper end of the county, but it was not thought there was such a heavy vein of the sand running under Lewistown at this point. The sand is of the finest quality.

LO, I COME, SAITH THE LORD Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the Lord.—Zachariah II, 10.
