

INTERESTING PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

KUNKEL REUNION AT NEFF'S GROVE

Many People From This City Attend the Event on Thursday

The fifth annual reunion of the Kunkel family was held Thursday, September 4, at Neff's Grove, near Allentown.

Opening address, George G. Kunkel, president; prayer, the Rev. C. F. Etwells; reading of the minutes, M. D. Kunkel, secretary; report of secretary and treasurer; report of committees; address, Prof. G. E. Kunkel, of Broadheadsville; vocal selections by Mrs. William Boyer, formerly Miss Sallie Kunkel; address, the Rev. H. A. Kunkel, of Palmyra, and election of officers, with the following results:

President, the Rev. H. A. Kunkel, of Palmyra; vice-presidents: first, Rev. G. G. Kunkel, East Bangor; second, D. C. Kunkel, Palmerton; third, Lieut. C. E. Kunkel, Philadelphia; fourth, George F. Kunkel, Lynport; secretary, M. D. Kunkel, Stony Run; treasurer, Jos. H. Kunkel, Stony Run; organist, Chas. Kunkel, Stratton, Pa.

The next reunion will be held in Kunkel's Grove, Aquashicola, Pa., the last Thursday of August, 1920.

Mrs. Zudrell Gives Party on Kiddie's Birthday

JACK HOLLENDORF

Mrs. F. J. Zudrell gave a merry birthday party at her home, 1921 Chestnut street, in celebration of the fourth birthday anniversary of little Jack Hollendorf. Games of all sorts were enjoyed by the small guests and refreshments were served in the diningroom where a color scheme of pink and white prevailed.

Mrs. Zudrell's young guests were Eleanor Peters, Dorothy Zudrell, Elizabeth Peters, Dorris Kenkins, Selyn Martin, Robbie Hyman, Billie Stocks and Jack Hollendorf.

CARRIE HARVIE DWYER PIANO TEACHER and ACCOMPANIST For Terms, Call or Write Bell Phone 4958, 113 Calder St.

Percy Vinton Ritter Instructions in water color painting Classes Now Forming Studio, 1835 N. Sixth St.

Harrisburg School of SPANISH Mrs. Melvin Menges, Instructor Second & State, Opens Sept. 15 Ask for Bulletin at the Y. M. C. A.

Dinner Saturday Eve., Sept. 6 Stuffer's Restaurant 4 N. Court St. 5 to 7:30 50c Chicken Noodle Soup Braised Veal Cutlet—Roast Beef Chicken Au Gratin, Fried Tomatoes Mashed or Lyonnaise Potatoes New Corn—String Beans—Entree Ice Cream—Pie or Pudding Coffee—Tea or Cocoa

ALFRED C. KUSCHWA Organist and Choirmaster St. Stephen's P. E. Church PIANO—ORGAN—SINGING Studio: 225 Briggs Street

ARE YOU GOING TO "BECKLEY'S" IN SEPTEMBER? "IT'S THE BEST SCHOOL" SEE AD PAGE TWO

FRANK A. MCCARRELL Organist and Choirmaster Pine Street Presbyterian Church Instructor of PIANO—ORGAN—HARMONY 43 organ pupils have secured church positions in Harrisburg and vicinity. Studio, 230 Woodbine Street

Miss Jeanne Pratt pupil of William H. Sherwood will resume piano-forte teaching at 219 W. State St. September 15

BERNARD R. MAUSERT New Organist and Choirmaster Grace M. E. Church (Fifteen years of successful teaching experience) Former Instructor: Dr. Franz Schulz, leading Bach exponent of Berlin. Dr. Hugh Blair, organist Holy Trinity, London. PIANO Dr. Carl Hermann Reinecke, Royal Academy, Berlin, and several noted American artists. Will Accept a Limited Number of Pupils Facilities shortly available to pupils for practice on one of the finest organs in the country. Season begins Sept. 8th. Terms on application Temporary Address, P. O. Box 1255, City.

ANNOUNCES PLANS FOR CONVENTION

Program For W. C. T. U. Conference at Hummelstown Completed

Mrs. M. M. Steese, county president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, announces the following program for the thirty-fifth annual convention of the W. C. T. U. of Dauphin county, to be held in the Reformed Church at Hummelstown Thursday, September 11:

Morning Session—10, devotional service of praise; roll call of officers, superintendents and delegates; address of welcome, Mrs. M. Keller; response, Miss Mabel Stites; appointments of committees, courtesy, resolutions, credential place of meeting; report of corresponding secretary, Miss Grace Henry; treasurer's report, Mrs. S. A. Fishburn; president's address, Mrs. M. M. Steese; election of officers; reports of superintendents; 12 m., noonite prayer; announcement and adjournment. Noon luncheon will be served by the Hummelstown Union. Afternoon Session—1:30, executive session; 2, devotions, the Rev. H. S. Garner; 2:15, convention business; vocal solo, Mrs. Flora Dienderfer; Wisconsin; reports of superintendents, continued; in memoriam, Mrs. C. M. Spahr; reports of committee; adjournment. Evening Session—7:30, community singing, led by Mrs. Florence Ackley Ley, of the War Camp Community Service; devotions, the Rev. A. R. King; select music; address, interspersed with readings, Miss Amanda Landes, M. A., Millersville State Normal School; offering; benediction.

The county officers are: Mrs. M. Marjorie Steese, of Steelton, president; Mrs. C. M. Spahr, of this city, vice president; Miss Grace Henry, of Penbrook, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Gertrude Leidigh, of this city, recording secretary; Mrs. S. A. Fishburn, of Penbrook, treasurer.

The department superintendents are: Flower mission, Mrs. Walter Fisher; social meetings, Mrs. C. E. King; soldiers and sailors, Mrs. J. A. Stahler; Sunday school, Mrs. John Freeman; open air meetings, Mrs. William Cooper; temperance and missions, Mrs. C. Ronemus; scientific temperance, Mrs. M. Rollins; literature, Mrs. J. H. Smith; peace, Mrs. Harry Sittes; L. T. secretary, Mrs. Walter Davis.

WED AT PARSONAGE A wedding of direct interest to many local folk was solemnized last evening when Mrs. Clara Jane Barber, of Eau Claire, Wis., and Melvin W. Parker, of Lancaster, were united in marriage at the parsonage of Stevens Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, Thirteenth and Vernon streets, the Rev. Dr. Clayton Albert Stueger officiating. After the ceremony the party left for the city for Lancaster, where a reception followed at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Parker.

PRESENT FLOOR LAMP Members of the Sachs' organization presented a floor lamp in French blue and gold to Miss Sachs yesterday in recognition of the first anniversary of the establishment. Miss Sachs celebrated the occasion last evening with a banquet at the Penn-Harris.

The Harrisburg Academy HARRISBURG, PA. Founded in 1784 and chartered in 1809, The Harrisburg Academy has maintained an uninterrupted corporate existence. For several years the school has graduated twenty-five to thirty young men, all of whom have continued their studies in some of the more of universities and professional schools. The school reopens for its 126th year of service with the strongest teaching staff and the largest enrollment of pupils in its history. Additional classroom facilities have been provided for the increased enrollment. There will be no military uniforms used this year. Calisthenics and outdoor sports will be substituted in the place of military drill. Buildings are open for inspection and classification of pupils. The prospectus for 1919-20 is sent upon request. September 22, 9 a. m., organization of lower school. September 23, 9 a. m., lower school begins. September 23, 9 a. m., new boys register and classify. September 24, 9 a. m., Academy opens.

The Office of Dr. M. V. Hazen will be closed until Monday, September 8 due to the death of his father

A Delicious Coffee is Golden Roast Delicious—because it is carefully blended from only the best coffees grown, and then put through a roasting process which brings out every bit of the goodness of the blend. Serve it always. It's sure to meet the approval of your family—and it will delight your guests. Golden Roast is "uniform." Different packages do not vary in taste and quality. Always full flavored and with a pleasing strength and delicious aroma. Kept airtight in sealed pound packages until it reaches you. Order a pound from your grocer today. R. H. LYON Coffee Purveyor to the Penn-Harris, Harrisburg, Pa.

Joseph H. Strouse to Wed Miss Moss, of Lancaster

The engagement of Miss Hedwig Moss, of Lancaster, to Joseph H. Strouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Strouse, of Cottage Ridge, was announced to-day at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Moss, of Lancaster and Atlantic City, at the Shelbourne, Atlantic City.

Miss Moss, a sister of Mrs. M. Lee Goldsmith, of this city, is a member of the undergraduate body of Smith College and a graduate of Shippens school, Lancaster. Mr. Strouse, who is connected with the mercantile firm of William Strouse & Co., received his discharge some time ago after serving in the Navy as ensign for sixteen months. He attended the Harrisburg Academy, Mercersburg Academy and the University of Pennsylvania.

INFORMAL LUNCHEON Miss Mary Creighton, 1915 North Front street, entertained at an informal luncheon at the Penn-Harris yesterday, in compliment to Miss Elizabeth Wisner, of New Orleans, who is the guest of Miss Almada Herman, 2025 North Front street. After the luncheon the party went to the Harrisburg Country Club for golf followed by a picnic supper.

LEAVE FOR HAMBURG Mrs. Oliver D. Schock and daughter, Miss Bertha E. Schock, 508 N. Third street, left for Hamburg, Berks county, where they will spend a month at their country home, situated within sight of the Schuylkill river mountain gap, noted for its scenery.

CAPTAIN STACKPOLE HOME Captain and Mrs. Edward J. Stackpole, Jr., returned to this city last evening after an absence of several weeks and will occupy their new home, 2410 North Second street. Captain Stackpole is recuperating from wounds and has been granted release from the U. S. A. General Hospital, near Rahway, N. J., for three months. Mrs. Stackpole spent the summer at Vineyard Haven, Mass.

LEAVES CITY Frank Oenslager of Riverside, has rented his residence to Dr. A. E. Brown, headmaster of the Harrisburg Academy, and with his family has gone to Atlantic City for several months before leaving for the South for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. David E. Tracy leave to-morrow for Park Grove Inn, Asheville, N. C., where they will spend two weeks.

Miss Mabel Bright, 227 Hummel street, left to-day for Detroit, Mich., where she will represent the Harrisburg agency of the Burgess Adding Machine Company, at an office managers' convention.

Mrs. James C. Durbin has returned after a motor trip through the New England States where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Durbin.

Miss Susanna Fleming, a student nurse at Johns Hopkins, Baltimore, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Robert McCreath.

Mrs. William E. Bailey and Miss Annette Bailey, Front and Seventh streets, are home after a visit at Detroit.

Dr. J. Ritchie Smith, of Princeton Theological School, who has been spending several days in this city, motored to Eaglesmere yesterday to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bailey.

Miss Katherine Stamm, of Thirteenth and Reese streets, is spending the weekend in Scranton.

Miss Elizabeth Ross, 219 Pine street, is the guest of Miss Lillian Carl, of Greencastle.

Alexander Schampan has returned to Philadelphia to resume his studies at the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy, after spending several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Schampan, 1417 North Third street.

Miss Martha O. Sellar and Miss Sue Sellar, of 17 North Front street, are spending several days at Eaglesmere.

Miss Amelia Durbin is taking a trip to Vancouver, B. C., by way of Yellowstone National Park. She will return through the Canadian Rockies.

Mrs. Harry C. Knouse and children, Myra and Helen Winfred, with Miss Bertha Messmer, have returned to their home, 2340 Derry street, after summering at Mt. Gretna.

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Allen, Miss Jean Allen and Miss Hope Swengel have returned after a motor trip to Gettysburg.

Ask Clubwomen of City to Send Pershing Telegram

Miss Elsie Janis has requested that the prominent women's clubs of this city arrange to send a telegram of welcome and gratitude to general Pershing representing the sentiment of the women of Harrisburg. This telegram, with similar ones from every city in the country, is to be sent direct to Miss Janis at Manor House, Tarrytown, N. Y. She will personally present the messages to General Pershing on his arrival in New York for the parade, Wednesday, September 10. Later they will be transcribed into an engraved resolution to be retained as a tribute by Pershing. Any individuals desiring to express greetings have also been requested to send them through Miss Janis.

Kohlhaas-Nissley Bridal at Parsonage This Morning

A quiet wedding was solemnized this morning at 8 o'clock when Miss Mary P. Nissley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Nissley, 204 Pine street, Steelton, and Webster S. Kohlhaas, son of J. G. B. Kohlhaas, 1903 Manada street, were united in marriage at the parsonage of the Zion Lutheran Church, 212 Pine street, the Rev. S. W. Herman officiating.

Celebrates Birthday With Delightful Party

Little Miss Dorothy Myers was the honor guest at a party given Thursday, from 5 to 8 o'clock, by her mother, Mrs. George Myers, at her home 225 Hummel street. The event was given in celebration of the seventh birthday anniversary of the little guest of honor and the children enjoyed games under the direction of Miss Emily Bright.

The following young people were present: Theaeta Kennedy, Virginia Kennedy, Lois Pfander, Lois Weller, Elanore McCann, Fern Thomas, Frances Swope, Martha Slothauer, Olive O'Brine, Dorothy Kepford, Janet McKay, Emily Bright, Evelyn Keller, Helen Keller, Margaret Wolf, Grace Webster, Myrtle Stokes, Beva Dinger and Dorothy Dinger.

State Chamber to Hold First Meeting

Members of the Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce will hold their first annual meeting at the Penn-Harris Hotel September 29 and 30, announcement of the sessions having been made by Alva B. Johnson, president of the organization. Plans for the program are being arranged now by the directors and the speakers and their subjects will be announced later.

HOUSEPARTY AT PERDIX Mrs. Charles Evans and Mrs. Sheesley are chaperoning a group of young people from this city and vicinity who are attending a two-week's houseparty at Perdix. The party includes Miss Mildred Sheesley, Miss Helen Kochenderfer, Miss Katherine Martin, Miss Mabel Kramer, Miss Marguerite Evans, of Washington, D. C., William Evans, and B. D. Sheesley.

BUILDING PERMITS Building permits were issued to-day to Harry M. Cornprophet to construct a two-story brick building at 1823 1/2 Fulton street, at a cost of $1,000, and to Charles F. Masner to build a one-story frame garage at the rear of 245-47 Crescent street, at a cost of $200.

Witmer, Bair & Witmer WALNUT NEAR SECOND Witmer, Bair & Witmer

Doing Something Different Every Day---A Little Better Than Yesterday

Out of the Melting Pot of Fashion We Pick the Gold and Discard the Dross

It Is A Refining Process That Gives Our Styles A Distinction All Their Own

WITMER, BAIR and WITMER WALNUT NEAR SECOND

