

LINGLESTOWN IS PAYING HOMAGE TO ITS VETERANS

Men Who Served in War Are Guests of Honor at Big Jubilee

Veterans of the World War, back in their home town from overseas, were given a great welcome to-day by Linglestown citizens. It was a memorable day from this historic town. Visitors came from all over the county, by auto, on big auto trucks, in wagons, carriages and some on horseback. They came early, and as the big program will be carried far into the evening, will stay late.

march in order to pass the reviewing stand, on which were the prominent speakers and distinguished guests. There were numerous historical floats and other interesting features in the parade. The Municipal Band of Harrisburg with forty men headed the procession, and the Sons of Veterans Drum Corps led 150 members of this organization and a large delegation of Grand Army of the Republic members. The exercises following the parade were held at the reviewing stand where the demobilization of the service flag, and addresses were a part.

Following the singing of 'America,' the Rev. J. J. Wagner offered prayer. The welcome address was by Captain George F. Lumb, head of the State Police. The community singing was in charge of Mrs. Florence Ackley Loy, and the demobilization was in charge of Roger S. Care. Soldiers from overseas were given a prominent place in front of the big reviewing stand and as they marched to their seats were given prolonged cheers.

Chicken Feast An airplane exhibition followed the interesting program. After the number of aerial stunts the aeroplane landed near Willow Grove Cemetery where it was inspected by many hundred people. An interesting feature was the chicken corn soup feast with many trimmings given the soldier boys. The latter included the veterans from Lower Paxton, West Hanover, East Hanover, Middle Paxton and Susquehanna townships. They were all out in uniform.

Berks Historians Make Baron Steigel Pilgrimage

Lancaster, Pa., Sept. 6.—More than 200 people of the Berks County Historical Society passed through this county yesterday on a Baron Steigel pilgrimage. This is their fifteenth annual tour. Besides the Berks county residents, the party included people from Philadelphia, Harrisburg and several other cities. In the Harrisburg delegation was Miss Anna L. Boyer, a great granddaughter of Baron Steigel, who many times been the recipient of the Red Rose in the Manheim celebration. The tour covered seventy-five miles. The party was piloted by the following Reading men: Dr. E. H. School, president of the Berks County Society; Cyrus T. Fox, secretary and chairman of the committee; George M. Jones, corresponding secretary; C. S. Miller, treasurer; John Mould, Fred M. Smith.

They then went to the cloister where they spent forty minutes going over the historic buildings. The members then gathered in the Saal where they heard an interesting historical talk by the Rev. S. G. Zerfass. From Ephrata, the party went to Litzitz where they spent a short time, leaving for Manheim where they ate lunch. At Manheim they visited the home of Nathan L. Leong, the Banner Museum and site of Baron Steigel's office. Later the tourists visited Brickerville and the Speedwell Forge. In old Lutheran Church at Brickerville they were addressed by the Rev. F. A. Weickel, of Litzitz, pastor of the church. It was in the parsonage of this church that Baron Steigel resided following his financial embarrassment in 1779. Here he made a scanty living as a preacher and teacher of music and the common school branches. After hearing an address by George Jones, of Reading, at the Elizabeth Farms, the society started to Schaefferstown, in Lebanon county, where they visited Tower Hill.

NEW CUMBERLAND HONORS VETERANS WITH CEREMONIES

Thousands Cheer Soldiers Who Served Nation Well During War

The big welcome home celebration in honor of the soldiers and sailors of New Cumberland began this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock with the parade, headed by Chief Marshal J. A. Witmyer. M. A. Hoff was chief of staff. Several hundred service men from the town were in line, and all along the route of the parade there was a constant roar of applause from the big crowd. New Cumberland was among the foremost in the number of sons which it sent into the service, and that the home folks appreciated this fact was shown this afternoon as the highly decorated there are five gold stars in the service flag of New Cumberland. Bruce Felty, Guy Felton, William Naus, Frank Smith and William Springer.

To Get Certificates The baseball game which followed the parade was called at 3:30 o'clock. Forgo, in old Lutheran Church at Brickerville they were addressed by the Rev. F. A. Weickel, of Litzitz, pastor of the church. It was in the parsonage of this church that Baron Steigel resided following his financial embarrassment in 1779. Here he made a scanty living as a preacher and teacher of music and the common school branches. After hearing an address by George Jones, of Reading, at the Elizabeth Farms, the society started to Schaefferstown, in Lebanon county, where they visited Tower Hill.

FARMERS WANT AGENCY AGAIN

United States Railroad Administration Criticised in Filed Complaint

Formal complaint that the United States Railroad Administration was keeping the station agency at Osceola, Tloga county, closed in the face of a demand for such service was filed with the Public Service Commission to-day by Ernest L. Ward in behalf of himself and other residents of that section. The complaint states that the agency was discontinued when the war began, but that since the war is over there is no longer occasion for it to be closed.

Charges that Achille Chambon and Mouis Balrocki were operating jitneys in the vicinity of Monongahela without State certificates were filed by operators of auto bus lines in that district. Adjutant General Frank D. Beary will go to Washington early next week in connection with the legislation for the new National Guard. He will make a report to the Governor upon his return. The organization of the new Pennsylvania Guard depends upon this legislation.

Nine telephone companies have filed notice with the Public Service Commission that they have increased their service rates most of them effective early in October. The increases range from $3 to $6 a year in the case of the smaller companies, but there is a doubling of the business rate in Johnstown, while in Potter county rates are up as high as $8. The companies filing are the Johnstown Telephone, which also decreased some toll rates; Columbia Telephone operating in Lancaster county; Juniata Farmers' Telephone and Telegraph, Juniata county; Lost Creek Valley Rural Telephone, Juniata county; Lavelle Telephone and Telephone, Schuylkill, Northumberland and Columbia counties; Oriskany Telephone, Huntingdon, Franklin, Fort and Juniata counties; Fayette Rural Telephone, Fayette county; Erie County Telephone, Waterford, and Allegheny Telephone, Gettysburg and Gettysburg. Increases in electric rates were filed by the Erie County, Schuylkill Gas and Electric, Raystown Water Power, Harwood, Pennsylvania Light and Power, Pittsburgh, and Lehigh Navigation Electric Companies.

Overdoing How American Women Break Down Owing to the modern manner of living and the nervous haste of every woman to accomplish just so much each day, they overdo, and as a consequence develop ailments peculiar to their sex, as is indicated by backache, headache, nervousness, the blues, displacements and weakness. Women who find themselves in this condition should slow down, and depend upon that good old fashioned root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, to restore them to health and strength, for there is no other remedy known that so quickly restores a healthy, normal condition. Here is the Story of a Most Remarkable Recovery Minneapolis, Minn.—'I was run down and nervous, could not rest at night, and was more tired in the morning than when I went to bed. I have two children, the youngest three months old, and it was drudgery to care for them as I felt so irritable and generally worn out. From lack of rest and appetite my baby did not get enough nourishment from me, so I started to give him two bottle feedings a day. After taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman, full of life and energy. It is a pleasure to care for my children and I am very happy with them and feel fine. I nurse my baby exclusively again, and can't say too much for your medicine.' Mrs. A. L. MILLER, 2633 East 24th St. Surely this proves the curative value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound
