

17,000 MORE COAL MINERS JOIN STRIKE

Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Company and Plymouth Workers Go Out

Scranton, Pa., Sept. 9.—Fourteen thousand employees of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Coal Company in its mines within Lackawanna county to-day obeyed the strike order of their grievance committee.

They went on strike in support of the company's miners at Archbald who are protesting against the discharge of those who refused to do emergency work at laborer's wages. The men have other grievances.

It is expected that by to-morrow 6,000 men in the mines of the company at Nanticoke, Avondale, Kingston and Dorranceton will join the strikers.

The strikers' committee having failed to secure a conference with General Manager W. W. English, declared to-day that the mines will remain idle until the company officials make a request for a conference.

The miners of the Delaware and Hudson Company, who struck yesterday, remain out to-day. The miners in the Plymouth district, numbering about 3,000, to-day joined the strikers.

The conciliation board's action requesting the men to return to work at once had no effect.

COLORED LODGE MEETS IN CITY

Business Sessions Precede General Receptions and Big Parade

"Honor men as you expect to be honored. Be good and law-abiding citizens and treat your fellow men as you expect to be treated, and there will be no dividing line between the white and colored races." These were in part, words spoken this morning by Dr. Charles H. Crampton, of this city. He welcomed the delegates to the twenty-second meeting of the District Grand Lodge No. 1, Grand United Order of Odd Fellows, and the fifteenth annual meeting of the District Household of Ruth.

The opening session was held in Wesley Union Zion A. M. E. Church this morning at 10.30. Dr. Crampton, of Brothly Love Lodge No. 896, spoke in behalf of lodges here. He called attention to the large colored population in Harrisburg, and to their good standing in the community. "I am glad to see that you will not have any trouble. Harrisburg is a good place for colored folks and I am glad to welcome you to this city and extend to you the right hand of fellowship."

Welcome From the Mayor Mayor Daniel L. Keister, in his welcome address, told of Harrisburg's greatness and the many places of interest. He extended to the delegates the freedom of the city and spoke of the high standing of Harrisburg's colored population as good citizens. He praised the colored folks of Harrisburg, and hoped the delegates and visitors would find their visit to the city both pleasant and profitable.

M. L. Nicholas, of Philadelphia, responded to the welcome by Mayor Daniel L. Keister, and the response to Dr. Crampton was made by George H. Newman, of Pittsburgh. This speaker made an eloquent address, touching on the growth of the order, and to the good accomplished in the past. He said: "Be real men and women in your living. Don't lose sight of God. He is the one upon whom the organization is founded. It is the good you do that brings the results." This speaker was warmly applauded, and paid a high tribute to the men and women in the two orders.

Household of Ruth Members of the Household of Ruth were welcomed by Mrs. Josephine E. Crampton, of this city. Household of Ruth No. 1, Mrs. Prudence Penn, of Philadelphia, noble governess of the order, responded. An adjournment was taken until this afternoon when the business sessions start.

The sessions to-day were presided over by District Grand Master Isaac Ashbury, of Washington, Pa. He was presented with a gavel by R. Josey. In the closing address he extended a cordial greeting to the delegates and urged them to conduct their business promptly and to put forth every effort to make the convention a memorable one.

The business sessions will be held in Odd Hall, Friggs and Cowden streets, and those of the Household of Ruth in the Wesley Union A. M. E. Zion Church, Foster and Ash streets.

This evening Miriam Household No. 1 and Naomi Household No. 495 will give a reception in Chestnut street hall to the District Grand Lodge officers and delegates.

To-morrow afternoon the parade will be held, following which there will be a competitive drill of the uniformed rank at Chestnut street hall for the $50 prize.

Wednesday evening a public reception will be given in Chestnut Street Auditorium in honor of visiting members of the fraternity under the auspices of the joint committee of local lodges.

An Old Lodge The Grand United Order of Odd Fellows dates back to 1342. It has a large following in the United States, and there are three lodges in Harrisburg, and a large membership in the Household of Ruth. At this convention delegates numbering about 300 are present from all parts of Pennsylvania. There will be many organizations in the parade to-morrow, including the third oldest lodge from Reading, with 100 members. This lodge will be headed by the Municipal band. Harrisburg lodges will have about 500 in line.

The election of officers will be held after the parade to-morrow. There is likely to be competition for the office of grand master. One candidate who has entered the field was quite active this morning. He is Robert E. Lee, of Philadelphia, who has been identified with the order for a long time, and has held number of offices in state and national bodies. He is a member of Temple Lodge No. 22, F. and A. M., Pride of East, No. 47, Knights of Pythias, Germantown Lodge No. 2295, Grand United Order of Odd Fellows, past grand master Council No. 2; Philadelphia Patriarch No. 1, and Household of Ruth No. 403.

Other candidates mentioned are Dr. J. W. Sutton and John D. Morris, Philadelphia, who stand high in the organization. Charles H. Crampton, of this city, is a candidate for deputy grand master.

More Boys, Eager For Holiday, Join 'Strikers;' Parents Facing Arrest

Prosecutions against the parents of "striking" children from several of the city's schools are threatened by Austin Miller, who has charge of the delinquent pupils for the School Board. Fines and costs probably will be imposed upon parents who allow their children to participate. The house of detention for the children is also an alternative.

Despite the assurances of the School Board that Willard seventh and eighth grade students will be transferred to one of the Junior High Schools soon, about forty of them remain in the city to-day and roamed the streets. They were rounded up by pupils from the Rely and Hoas outside in demonstration in some of the principal streets.

The School Board declares they are more intent on getting a vacation than on expressing satisfaction with school conditions.

MACHINE GUNS GUARD JAIL By Associated Press. Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 9.—Machine gunners and armed deputy sheriffs continue to guard the jail here as a precaution against possible attack to release some of the fifty or more prisoners held here on charges growing out of the rioting of August 30. Threatening letters have been received by Judge Nelson, of the criminal court, and Sheriff Cate, and it was announced to-day that the guards had been instructed to shoot any attackers.
