TREATY WITH 45 AMENDMENTS IS REPORTED BY SENATE COMMITTEE; STIGMATIZED AS BREEDER OF WAR

What the Reservations and Amendments Propose

The reservations propose: 1—Unconditional right to withdraw from the League. 2—Declination of the United States to accept any of the legal or moral obligations of the much-discussed article ten or to accept any mandatory from the League except by action of the Congress of the United States. 3—Reserving to the United States the exclusive right to decide what questions are within its own domestic jurisdiction. 4—Absolute reservation of the Monroe Doctrine to the judgment of the United States alone.

Four Reservations Added to Pact by U. S. Senate Foreign Committee

CHANGES SAID NECESSARY TO SAFEGUARD U. S. SOVEREIGNTY

Washington, Sept. 10.—Characterized as an alliance and not a league, "which will breed wars instead of securing peace," the German Peace Treaty including the covenant for a League of Nations was formally reported to the Senate today by the Foreign Relations Committee, with 45 amendments and four reservations. It will be the first great document of its kind to be discussed in the open—without the confines of "executive session."

HURT IN AUTO CRASH

Injured when an automobile in which she was riding collided with another machine last evening, Miss Emma Hoover, 26 years old, of 216 North Second street, is in the Harrisburg Hospital with a fractured left arm and lacerations.

Accompanying the treaty was the majority report of the Foreign Relations Committee, subscribed to by every Republican member except Senator McCumber, of North Dakota, explaining the amendments and reservations, all of which it was declared were governed by a single purpose, and that is to guard American rights and sovereignty, the inclusion of which would stimulate breaches of faith, encourage conflict and generate wars.

To Preserve Independence These amendments and reservations, the majority report says, are submitted "to preserve American independence and American sovereignty and thereby best serve the welfare of mankind."

That is one thing that certainly will not happen. The other nations will take us on our own terms, for without us their league is a wreck and their gains from a victorious peace are imperiled.

That the adoption of amendments will necessitate reassembling of the Peace Conference, the report denies, asserting that the conference probably will be in session for six months more in Paris and might as well be "at least as usefully employed" as "they now are in dividing and sharing southeastern Europe and Asia Minor. German delegates, the report contends, could easily be brought to Paris, and as Germany is not a member of the league she need not be consulted about changes of the covenant."

At the outset the majority report deals at length with criticisms of delay, and "points out that whereas the Peace Conference took six months to agree on the treaty, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee has had 47 working days. Demands for speed "in the most important subject that ever came before the Senate of the United States, the report says, were "largely the work of the administration and its newspaper organs."

Bankers Wanted Haste A second "artificial" demand for haste, the report says, came from "certain great banking firms which had a direct pecuniary interest in
