Toilet Ivory Ware

*One-Fourth Off
Today's Prices*

The pieces in this stock of Ivory Toilet Ware are sample lines and discontinued patterns and some with slight imperfections—but mostly perfect pieces, excellent in design, fine material and of good weight.

As we bought this stock in January at one-third off today's market price and so much less than what it would cost to replace similar pieces today, you can readily see that at one-fourth off you are receiving values unusual.

Christmas is on the way and it is none too early to think ahead and pick up appropriate pieces for gifts at a decided saving. Many women have several toilet pieces and want to add another from time to time to complete the set.
