Ask Composers to Write Music For State Song

The State Federation of Pennsylvania Women has asked all Pennsylvania composers to write music for the official State song of the federation. The words of the song — only one stanza — follow:

"Hail Pennsylvania, loyal and true! Thy daughters consecrate their lives anew. Birthplace of Liberty, May truth keep us free, Dear Pennsylvania, we sing to thee."

The stanza is sung by 55,000 women who are members of the association, but a new musical setting is desired because the old one was that of a foreign national hymn.

Mrs. Frederick W. Robott, of the music committee of the federation, and president of the National Musical Club of Philadelphia, said:

"We feel sure that the musicians of the State will be interested in presenting musical settings, from which one will be selected, which if adopted by the federation as the official music to be used at all meetings. The committee asks the co-operation of all composers in the State."

Manuscripts should be sent to Mrs. Abbott, Room 201, the Bellevue-Stratford, Philadelphia, before September 15.

Visiting the Shops with Adele

"WHAT a delicious cake!" I remarked, as I nibbled at a piece of exceptionally good spice cake. "Yes," replied my hostess, "it does taste like 'more,' doesn't it? And will you believe me when I tell you I baked it all myself? I looked at her in absolute dismay, for the last time I tasted spice cake of her making it had been decidedly ordinary. "You see," she continued, "I can say what I will about it without sounding conceited, for, after all, the credit does not fall to me. No, indeed! I mixed and baked it just as I always did before, — and hereby lies the secret—I used Grand Union spices." Immediately I understood the miraculous change she had wrought, for the spices you find at the Grand Union Tea Company, 208 North Second street, are so superior to those sold elsewhere that enough cannot be said for the results obtained by their use.

I WAS looking through an old family photograph album last evening, and I laughed until I could scarcely laugh any more. Truly, I've never seen anything more screamingly funny in all my life than the strained, unnatural expressions on the faces of my esteemed ancestors and relatives as they gazed at me from out their pages. And their awkward, uncomfortable postures! I declare, if I thought the originals really looked as they there appeared, I'd start right out to hunt another family. But I know they didn't, and, cruel as it may seem, I lay the blame at the door of the old-fashioned photographers. Poor souls, they couldn't help it—they did their best. But, if they could but see the natural, idealistic portraits put out by Roshon, our own artist-photographer, they'd realize, for a moment, how beautiful a photograph can be.

IS there anything we all desire more than perfect health? Scarcely! And yet but few of us possess it. The cause of many bodily ills, the robber which frequently steals it away, any interference with the free circulation of the blood causes the accumulation of poisonous substances which are usually washed away. Pain results and invariably, to obtain relief, we instinctively massage the affected part with the hand; or, far better, we use a Hamilton-Beach New Life Vibrator. The applicator, pulsating at the rate of 10,000 vibrations a minute, brings almost instant relief. It induces a fresh flow of blood, which breaks up the obstructions and causes the disease-breeding toxins to flow away. Don't take my word for it, however. Investigate the matter at the Dauphin Electrical Supplies Company, 434 Market street, where a complete line of vibrators is at your disposal.

IF you're a trifle inclined to stoutness, you know just exactly how difficult it is to find a becoming suit. Those that you ordinarily see in the stores either make you resemble a barrel or fit you so poorly that you'd cut a ridiculous figure were you to appear in one. So it is with a sigh of despair that you sally forth on a suit-searching expedition. But, cheer up; for relief is at hand. At the Closet Shop, in the Pennsylvania building, you can find garments with just the proper lines for those who are stout. Only to-day, on visiting the shop, I espied a smart suit of Navy Duvet de Laine, designed with silk braid and with soft, furry collar of rich Hudson seal. To say that it's modish is putting it mildly and I know you'll be overjoyed to hear that it comes in a large size.

ARE you one of those discriminating persons who feels that the best is never too good? Or do you belong to the group of people who "don't give a rap" about the beauty of an object so long as it serves its purpose? If you are a member of the former class, you will surely go to Saltzger's Art and Antique Store, 223 North Second street, when in search of stand frames. At no other place will you find such artistic, desirable ones, and it is doubtful whether you could discover such a large assortment elsewhere. You will surely be delighted with a new lot of dull, green gold, as well as with those of antique gold, mahogany and platinum finish. And you will be more than pleased with the silk backs Mr. Saltzger uses in framing.
